A New Church Enterprise to Make Its Debut To-Morrow.

CONGREGATIONALISM IN THE CITY. Some of the Topics to Be Discussed in the

City Fulpits. GLEANINGS FROM BELIGIOUS CIRCLES

Among the church notices for Sunday is the Central Congregational, which will be organized on Sunday morning at Lyceum Hall, old University building, with Rev. J. B. Kochne as pastor. The Rev. Mr. Kochne has been pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church for several years, and now branches out into Congregationalism. The new church will organize with a membership of 50 or more. Pittsburg has, hitherto been an unproductive soil for the Congregational church. The only churches of this order in the city are the Welsh church on Fifth avenue and a small organization on the Southside, also Welsh. In Allegheny there is a prosperous Congregational church. Congregationalists who come to Pittsburg, isually drift into Presbyterian churches. If the ministers of the city will send in notices after the style in which they are published below they will confer a favor on Black to move and draw. The above position came up in a game be-tween W. C. Brown, of Altoona, Pa., and James Wyllie, champion of the world. Mr. Wyllie, having the black side, moved 22 25, and Mr. Brown scored a pretty win. Mr. Mulholland claims that the move Mr. Wyllie made loses, and shows a forced draw. We would be glad to hear from any of our readers on the above position, as it is one of those fine endings where the draw is forced by playing with a man short.

White to move and win.
The above problem appeared in the Aberdeen Free Press December 29, 1891, as problem No. 433. We published in Tag Disparce of December 12, 1891, as problem No. 94, by H. D. Lyman, author of "Lyman's Book of Problems," published in 1881, and on page 165, problem No. 184, of same book, we find the same problem as above, save that white in the above problem has a single piece on 12, and Mr. Lyman has a king but both solutions are the same. We would be slow to make the charge of plagiarism, but we draw the attention of the draughts editor to the above facts so that he can request Mr. Davidson to explain.

THE DRAUGHT-PLAYER'S ALPHABET. From Aberdeen Free Press.]

A for Fred Allen, who problems can plan,
B for Charles Barker, the Melican man,
C is our champion, H. Christie by name,
D for Drinkwater, of problemist fame,
E stands for Edward and Ellis, you know,
If Farr you should want, 'cross the ocean you go,
Of G's there's a crowd—Gardner, Gilbert, and
Gould (g'dd),
Helley's the best of the school that's called old,
Illingworth's gone many miles o'er the briny,
Janvier's work is both "starry" and shiny,
Kear's a bold hero so clever and plucky,
Lyhan is brilliant, good-looking, and lucky,
M for R. Martins, our beafning greypate,
N for J. Nelson, great Anderson's mate,
O is a blank, so I'll leave it alone,
Quigley you'll find in Joe G. 's problem-book,
Richmond's the man whom no nonsense will

S stands for Spayth, the Smiths and A. Schafer, From Aberdeen Free Press. 1

Richmond's the man whom no nonsense brook.

Stands for Spayth, the Smiths and A. Schafer, Taylor's name's good, can you find me a safer?
U for unknown, and V for T. Vanner,
W for Wardell, arch-diagram planner,
Wythe, of course, comes tate in my rhyme,
Mark, the older his years, the greater his prime!
X is a letter with rhyming ne'er mates,
But Y comes in right, with wonderful Yates,
"Zanou!" It was that caused "fun on the Bristol!"

WESTMINSTER, Dec. 27, 1891. CHECKER TRUTHS IN VERSE. Mr. James Org, in his yearly poem (to the Brethren o' the Brod), gives the following verses on the strength of American players. It goes a long way in showing that the players of England and Spotland respect the American experts, and in no encounter will they hold us cheap. On this point our experts might take a lesson, for to read some of their writings we would be led to believe that they can just do un anything overthere of their writings we would be led to believe that they can just do up anything over there with ease. It is a good thing to have confidence, but if J. P. Reed had not held C. F. Barker too cheaply in September, 1891, he would not be so far out of sight to-day; and in no place is this lesson more needed than in Chicago. Mr. J. T. Denvir, who is a strong player and an able editor, brings his own personality so prominently forward that it is simply thresome. In his match-games book, between Burker and Reed, the name of Denvir occurs 23 times. This is not the path to greatness. We take the liberty of speaking plainly, as we desire to see Amerispeaking plainly, as we desire to see Ameri can talent come to the front in a way tha will command respect, but not in a way that would be open to ridicule. Anyone who studies the following verses will see that the Scottish poet touches in a delicate way the same truths:

Oor checker brethren owre the waves Are garrin's scart oor croom; An' certes, sirst their youthfu' braves Hae made us change oor tune. Their skill's incisive, keen, an teuch-They dinna need to tell's— They've shown by oc'lar proof eneuch We'll hae to watch corsel's.

An' even tho' they think to soose Orr globe-famed worthy chief, We widma wish them less than eroose, Nor boup they'il come to grief. Lang may their champion's grit, immense Uphand the Stars and Strips, An' may their trust in Providence Ne'er suffer dark cellipse.

We wish them weel across the peel,
An' haud thick friendship dear.
An' wish them wi! a wish richt leal
A happy, good New Year,
ABERDEEN, SCOTLAND,
JAMES OGG.

CHECKER ITEMS OF INTEREST. Mr. F. Dunne, of the Leeds Mercury, dis-poses of the great bombshell of the checker editor of the Chronicle Telegraph on the world's championship, as held by Wyllie, in world's championsine, as held by wylie, in the following conclusive manner: "Our co-temporary ought to be aware that Wylie has always denied that he had any money on in the match with Yates, which he has looked upon, both at the time it was played and since, as a mere exhibition contest. The purse was found by the late A. J. Dunlap." J. P. Reed, ex-champion of America, has been engaged by the Y. M. C. A. of Washing-ton, Pa., to give blindfold exhibitions for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. We will be able to give full particu-

James Wyllie's record as a quick player is 42 games of checkers in one hour, and the average game is about 60 moves, making about 2,50) moves to the hour. How is that for quick moving?

for quick moving?

Charles F. Barker's visit to Providence was a very interesting affair. His play was of the championship order, across the board. Out of 34 games piayed he allowed but one draw to Mr. Parmenter, and won 53. In the evening he played 10 simutaneously, but in this he allowed 1 win to Mr. Lewis and 2 draws to A. L. Eddy and C. A. Barden, leaving 7 wins for himself. His principal openings were Kelso with the blacks and Switcher with the whites.

No. 1 engine house that we gave notice of last week contains several checker players, but the two best are the Captain and Lieutenath. A friend of ours visited the house, and played the above gentlemen 5 games each, with the result of 7 games won and 3 drawn.

HAVE YOU THE GRIPPE?

Many People Have It and Do Not Know It. How to Recognize the Symptoms and How to Treat Them.

And How to Treat Them.

Hundreds of people have the Grippe who do not know it. Not necessarily the final stages, but the first stages. They feel pains in the head, and a bad taste in the mouth, get tired and despondent, have chilly sensations, limbs and muscles ache. In some cases these things are overlooked. In most cases perhaps they are considered simply a slight cold. In nearly every case they indicate the coming of Grippe.

There is but one thing to do when these symptoms appear, and that is totake prompt and vigorous measures, to fortify nature to repel the enemy. A little well directed effort at just the right time will accomplish very much more than labored efforts afterwards. There is but one ahing to be done, and that will promptly arrest, and in no way injure, something endorsed by scientists, recommended by physicians, and popular because so efficient—Duffy's Pure Man. Whiskey. Two years ago, and last year when the Grippe was raging, this was the standard remedy used, and recommended by the profession. It did more to prevent the Grippe than all other known or recommended the whoke would otherwise have been grievously sick, perhaps even worse. It is as efficient to day as ever. It should be borne in mind that other so called whiskies may not be so efficient, and it any dealer asserts that such whiskies and it any dealer asserts that such whiskies. is to use a pure stimulant, something that will promptly arrest, and in no way injure, something endorsed by scientists, recommended by physicians, and popular because so efficient—Duffy's Pure Mait Whiskey. Two years ago, and last year when the Grippe was raging, this was the standard remedy used, and recommended by the profession. It is as efficient to-day as ever. It should be borne in mind that other so called whiskies may not be so efficient, and if any dealer asserts that such whiskies are the same, distrust him at once. There is but one medicinal whiskey, and that is Duff's Pure Malt.
