RENT COLLECTING

Is the special business of BLACK & BAIRD; they have been doing it for years—have a large corps of efficient and thoroughly trained men; know how much rent a property should bring and how and where to get good tenants who will pay it. They have in many cases been able to obtain two or three times as much rent as the owner or some old fogy agent had been getting. They can compel "slow" tenants to pay up where an owner cannot. They jay taxes—look after them carefully, pay insurance and attend to repairs under owners' instructions economically, all without extra charge. They charge but a very moderate commission for rent collecting and can save ten to a hundred times its amount for the owner every year. They render monthly itemized statements with check. If you do not know them almost any bank or well-known business man in the city will, and if you ask them will tell you that they are reliable. They advertise your property free of cost in their rent bulletin, which is mailed regularly to all applicants until they are suited. Their facilities for obtaining the best rents for downtown business properties are unsurpassed, having a large list of applicants for good storerooms from all sections of the If you own rented property of any kind it will pay you to see
