THE COURT TO DECIDE

On the Question of Whether or Not the District Attorney

MAY HAVE OUTSIDE ASSISTANCE.

Carnegie Gains Another Point on the Philadelphia Company.

TESTERDAY'S LABORS OF THE JUDGES

An argument was heard before Judges Ewing and White yesterday on the mandamus proceedings brought by Deputy District Attorney Goehring against Controller Grier to obtain his salary. The papers in the case, filed by Mr. Goehring and Controller Grier, were read by the attorneys.

James Fitzsimmons then spoke on behalf of the Controller. He contended that the law did not contemplate a Deputy District Attorney and that the District Attorney has an assistant who could do the work intended Mr. Goehring should do. He had the time and could do it when through with the grand jury. Also there was no fund in the County Tressury from which to pay the new deputy.

Judge Ewing remarked that from a long experience in Criminal Court and his knowledge that assistance was necessary, he thought something should be done. He did not, either, think that the Assistant District Attorney should be called down to

W. B. Redgers argued in behalf of Goehring. He said the duties of the Assistant District Attorneys are specifically laid down. They are to have charge of the grand jury work and not to aid in the trial of cases. He said also that under the act of 1875 the District Attorney has the right to appoint a deputy. As to there being no money in the treasury, it would be sufficient to raise that question at the proper time. There would be plenty of money when the District Attorney proceeded on forfeited recognumbers and bail bonds. The Court took the papers and reserved a Supreme Court, but the lower Court was sustained in giving Mrs. Davies a verdict for $2,800. McKnight went into court yesterday afternoon and paid the money. The case is now settled.

REPUSED TO SUPPLY GAS.

The Wellsbach Incandescent Light Company Sues the Philadelphia Company. W. H. Holmes, Superintendent of the Wellsbach Incandescent Gas Light Company, of 722 Penn avenue, filed a petition for a temporary mandamus to compel the Philadelphia Company to furnish his company gas for illuminating purposes. He alleges that on December 15 he applied for gas, the supply to commence with the beginning of the new year. In his application the Philadelphia Company undertook to limit him to gas for fuel purposes only, and it he used it for illuminating purposes he was to pay an excessive rate.

He claims it is the duty of the company to supply gas to all parties desiring it upon the same terms and conditions without discrimination. The writ was issued and made returnable January 29.

The Wellsbach Company has a patent burner and they want the gas to use in the burners that are kept on exhibition.

CHARACTERISTIC OF WHITMAN.

Two Selections From the Good Gray Poet's Works That Are Typical.

If I were permitted to point out only two pictures in the gallery of Walt Whitman's works, says A. Q. Keasbey in Frank Leslie's Weekly, I would select these, the first exhibiting his mode of dealing with the great theme so constantly in his mind, "American Democracy," and the other showing him in his psychological mood, dreaming of the destiny of the human soul. The first is from the poem entitled "Thou Mother With Thy Equal Brood:"

Sail, sail thy best, ship of Democracy

Of value is thy freight, 'tis not the present cally.

The past is stored in thee.

Thou holdest not the venture of thyself alone, not of the Western continent alone,

Earth's resume entire floats on thy keel, O ship, is steadled by thy spars.

With thee time voyages in trust, the antecedent nations swim with thee,

With all their ancient struggles, martyrs,

With all their ancient struggles, martyrs, heroes, epics, wars, thou bear'st the other continents; Theirs, theirs as much as thine the destination triumphant.

Steer thou with good strong hand and wary eye. O helmsman, thou bearest great companions.

Venerable, priestly Asia sails to-day with And royal feudal Europe sails with thee. The second is a short, separate poem, which artists would call a genre picture: A noiseless, patient spider, I marked where on a little promontory it stood isolated,

Marked how, to explore the vacant, vast surrounding, It launched forth filament, filament, fila-

It launched forth filament, filament, filament, out of itself.

Ever unreeling them, ever tirelessly speeding them.

And you, O my soul, where you stand, surrounded, detached, in measureless oceans of space,

Carelessly musing, venturing, throwing, seeking the spheres to connect them.

Till the bridge you will need be formed, till the ductile anchor hold,

Till the gossamer thread you fling catch somewhere, O my soul!

The Movement Much Better Than at the Same Time Last Year.

ACTIVITY IN THE REALTY MARKET.

Some of the Shadyside Building Schemes Beginning to Materialize.

TWO BAST END RESIDENCES PICKED UP

The principal features of the local business situation the past week were elections by the banks and insurance companies for directors, and dividends by the Pleasant Valley, Manchester and Central Traction Companies. Dividends are always a source of inspiration, and the effect of those noted upon the stocks of the respective companies was immediate and radical. Money was abundant, but the call for loans and discounts manifested a broadening tendency.

The volume of trade was scarcely up to expectations, but was larger than last year at the same time. There was no abatement Judge Collier handed down an order yesterday which contains the first victory of mill owners over the Philadelphia Commillowners over the Philadelphia Commillowners over the demurer of the cashier remarked: "If this year does not turn out the best in the history of Pittsburg I will write myself down a false prophet.

Mr. J. C. Dick, a prominent real estate operator and builder in the East End, takes operator and builder in the East End, takes a hopeful view of the business outlook. In an interview yesterday he said: "The building prospect in and about Pittsburg, and especially in the East End, far surpasses that of any former year. A few of the reasons for this are: Scores of outsiders are seeking homes in all the outlying districts of the city; second, the facilities for rapid transit are nearly neglect enabling. rapid transit are nearly perfect, enabling people to quickly reach almost any point to which they may wish to go; third, the immense railroad and river traffic, natural gas, coal and iron, and the prospect of a ship canal from Lake Erie are making Pittsburg the foremost city in the United States; tourth, I learn from good authority that the building trade will not be internupted this year by strikes. "Viewing the situation and prospect in this light, and keeping in mind the rapid growth of the city, I recommend real estate as a safe and profitable investment, and ad vise home seekers to act promptly before values are marked up, as they will be before

A BOOMING WEEK IN LOCAL SPECU-LATIVE CIRCLES.

Trading Assumes Dignified Proporti Showing That Outside Interest is Increasing-Gains All Along the Line-Philadelphia Gas and the Tractions the Features.

The past week was a good one on the Stock Exchange—the best, indeed, within ordinary recollections. Orders were plenty and trading correspondingly active. The tone was strong throughout. The entire active list improved from fractions to points. The largest gains were made by the National Bank of Commerce, New York and Cleveland Gas Coal and Pittaburg Junction Railroad.

The last prices, as compared with those of the previous Saturday show, the following changes: Philadelphia Gas improved $1 a share; Central Traction, 2; Citizens', ½; Pittaburg, I. Plansant, Valley, I., Junction, Rail share: Central Traction, 2: Citizens', ½; Pittaburg, 1; Pieasant Valley, ½; Junction Railrond, 2: New York and Cleveland Gas Coal, 3½; Luster, ¾, and Switch and Signal. ¾. The rest of the list held its own with a stronger undertone.

The Tractions were the most interesting features of the week, although Philadelphia Gas led the procession in activity. The declaration of dividends by Pleasant Valley, Manchester and Central gave them a forward impulse which continued until the finish. Yesterday Birmingham again improved its position. In the afternoon it was stronger than on call, and several goodsized lots changed hands at something better than board quotations. Talk of a dividend was heard in various quarters.

Sales yesterday were $1,000 Duquesne bonds at 13½, 30 at 18½, 50 at 18½, 10 at 18½, 50 at 18½, 10 at 18½, 50 at 18½, phin Gas at 15%, 10 at 15%, and 25 Switch and Signal at 11%.

Tetal sales yesterday were 714 shares and $1,000 bonds, and for the week, 4.833 shares and $16,000 bonds. To this should be added at least 1,000 shares, about half of which were Birmingham Traction, picked up at private sale. Final prices were, in nearly all cases, the best of the week. The market finished as follows:

ING INTENSELY DULL. Industrials Monopolize All the Life-Sugar

THE STOCK MARKET AGAIN BECOM-

Goes Down on the Proposed Issue of Stock, but Cordage Moves Up-Railroad Bonds Rather Active. New York, Jan. 16 .- The stock market to-time, and, as a rule, the fluctuations were on a strict parity with the amount of business done: so that the final changes, while gen erally advances, are for insignificant fractions only in railroad stocks. The dealings still retained their professional character which they have had for some time, and no significance may be attached to the trading. No stock made any movement of importance, and in no stock were the sales as much as 9,000 sh res, which, after the activity and wide movements we have had, sufficiently shows the waning interest in the market on the part of speculators.

The only feature was the Industrials.
Sugar still felt the effect of the proposed new issues of stock, further retiring from 80

new issues of stock, further retiring from 80 to 78% c and closing only %c higher than the lowest figure. Cordage stocks were strong, and the preferred rose over I per cent; but Chicago Gas was quite neglected and Distillers' about the same.

The market opened higher and further improved during the first hour of business, but she gains were not important and realizations afterward neutralized these advanced in almost everything. The Chesapeake and Ohio preferred stocks were the strongest on the list, but while reaching still better figures than they have heretofore attained, they scored only small fractional gains. The final dealings again saw a firm temper, and Railroad bonds were fairly active and generally strong, and the Kansas and Texas seconds again came to the front, rising 1½ on sales of 160,000, the total transactions being 1,250,000. Other issues scored gains, but the list in general was quiet and the changes unimportant.

The gossip has been to the effect that a falling off in Western grain receipts will cut a figure in the earnings for January of the granger roads, but it is not as effective an amount above legal requirement, $24,566,615.

At New York yesterday money on call was easy, with no loans; closed offered at 23/5 per cent. Prime mercantile paper $4,666,615.

At the moment there appears to be very little inducement to buy stocks, but nolders still cling to what they have, meanwhile there is a fairly good sized short interest and a growing one. Sugar was weak again on the proposed new issue."

Strong on Their Merits.

Strong on Their Merits. Henry Clews & Co. say: "So far as the experience of the past two weeks of the new year goes, it does not suggest any lack of means on the part of outside operators, and we incline to think that, if a strong speculative feeling should arise, no inability of that kind will check it. So far as the intrinsic merits of stocks may affect the future, there is but one possible inference. The crops have already settled that question. The largely increased earnings and the improved largely increased earnings and the improved dividends of the last three months are but the beginning of a year of railroad traffic surpassing all precedent. The augmented business of the roads is an indication of what may be expected in the various industries, and especially those most dependent upon agriculture, so that as the year progresses the means available for investment and speculation will steadily increase. The liquidation of farmers' loans, which will increase as the season advances, will release large amounts of capital, much of which must find its way to Wall street, either for permanent investment or for transient speculation." HOW TO TEST FLOUR.

Mixing Dough in the Hand and Noting Its Conduct Recommended. There are various methods of testing flour but this is one of the simplest, says Emma P. Ewing in The Chautauquan. Take some flour in the left hand, add a little water, and with the right forefinger mix a rather stiff dough in the hand. Let it stand a few minutes then knead and work in the hand. If the flour is good the dough will become If the flour is good the dough will become stiffer and dryer with working, and have an elastic, rubbery feeling. If it is of inferior quality the dough will become soft and aticky under protracted working. ANOTHER BIG GUSHER

GORDON SANDER AT LAUREL HILL.

Wells Which Should Be Drilled Into the Fifth Eand This Week.

GLYCERINE SHOOTERS' CLOSE CALL

The McDonald field reacted yesterday.

Two good wells were brought in, one in the fifth and the other in the Gordon sand. The first belongs to the Oakdale Oil Company and is known as its No. 3 on the Baldwin farm. Like the old time gushers it got its oil as soon as the bit entered the top of the sand and started off at 100 barrels an hour. It is in the same pool as the Matthews, the Baldwin, the Herron and the Bell farm wells, and is almost on a line between the old J. J. Matthews No. 1 and the Baldwin No. 1. A almost on a line between the old J. J. Matthews No. 1 and the Baldwin No. 1. A big well was scarcely expected, as it was supposed, judging from the enormous amount of oil which has already been taken out of this pool that the sand under the Baldwin No. 3 would have been partially drained at least. This does not seem to be the case, however, and by the way it starts off there is little reason to suppose that it will be at all affected by the surrounding wells. The Gordon sander belongs to Koerner, Westhead & Co., and is located on the McDonald lot at Lauret Hill. Besides Koerner and Westhead, Louis Ruppel, George J. Schmidt and D. A. Upham are interested in the well. A pay in the Gordon was struck at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, and the well was reported to have flowed continually until 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and is good for $50 or 450 barrels a day. The well does not develop any new territory, as it is only 150 feet from Noian Broa.' big Gordon sander on the Robbins lot. The production of the fleid took a jump yesterday and went from 29,000 to 31,000 barrels. This was caused by the big wells which have been drilled in within the last two days. There are other wells on top of the sand which should be in early this week and keep the production near the 30,000 mark for some time to come. early this week and keep the production near the 30,000 mark for some time to come.

drilling in the bottom of the Gordon and has a little oil in the hole from that stratum. The Oakdale's No. I, on the Wetmore, is drilling below the Gordon, from which it is making 15 barthe Gordon, from which it is making 15 barrels a day, but as it caves frequently progress is vegy slow. No. 2 Wetmore is down about the same distance and is impeded in the same manner as No. 1. No. 3 is down 1,300 feet and No. 4, which was at gasser, is being drilled down to the fifth sand. The Oakdale's No. 1, on the Gormley farm, is 2,210 feet deep, and is hindered by caves. This company is moving the rig at its No. 6 on the Sturgeon heirs' farm, having been compelled to plug the first hole. They have a rig up for No. 7 on the Sturgeon heirs' farm, but will not drill the well for some time. No. 8 Sturgeon heirs' is down 1,020 feet, and a rig was put up for No. 9, but the well will not be drilled.

Should Be in To-Morrow. Should Be in To-Morrow.

W. S. Guffey and Emmet Queen's No. 2 on the H. H. Wetmore farm will probably be ready to drill into the fifth hand to-morrow morning. Jennings, Guffey & Co.'s No. 5 on the Herron farm was on top of the fifth sand last night, and will also be drilled into the fifth to-morrow. Their No. 2 on the Matthews heirs' property, one location west of No. 1 will be finished up within the next three days. The Forest Oil Company's No. 1 on the Sam Sturgeon, known as the "hurry-up" was through the Gordon last night, and they expect to get the fifth to-morrow. The dily. It is making from 60 to 75 barrels a day. Frank French, who is shooting for the High Explosive Company, was reported to have narrowly escaped joining the list of glycerine victims yesterday. He had gone McDonald from Bradford only a few days ago, and started out yesterday morning to shoot a well for Guffey, Murphy & Co. The roads are hard and full of deep holes, and while driving along after getting a lond of glycerine at the magazine one wheel of the wagon dropped into a hole. The jar broke the front axle, banged the caus of glycerine together and broke the shell. French got off the seat, looked at the wreck, picked the dinged cans from the box under the seat, and remarked to a passing teamster that he had perhaps one of the narrowest escapes from being picked up in minute pieces of any man in the business. ago, and started out yesterday morning to

The drop in prices during the last few days brought in a good many buying orders, and the cables at the start were not so discouraging as they have been for some time. Do-mestic markets were higher, and New York mestic markets were higher, and New York was a good buyer during the first hour. There was no concentrated or heavy buying here, but everybody nearly seemed to want a little, and the offerings being light the aggregate demand was sufficient to put prices up sharply; but the offerings were light and prices were gradually advanced fully I cent over yesterday's close. Foreign advices state positively that all rumors as to the removal of the Bussiar prohibition are utterly groundless.

For a time the market showed a good deal of vigor and firmness, May selling from 90% our pto 91c. Then the cables began to come lower, and the clearances were shown to be modernte. THE MOTHER OF HER CHILDREN

Has Equal Legal Right to Their Custody in Only Five States.

In only five States has a mother any absolute legal right to the custody of her children, says Mary A. Greene, LL. B., in The Chandauquen. These are Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Oregon and Washington, where both parents have equal rights in the mat-

In other States a mother has no control over her children, not even if driven from home by her husband's cruelty, unless she applies to the court for the custody. In other words, the father, by right of father-hood, can claim his child, but motherhood is not enough; the court must be appealed to before the mother can have absolute right to her children. This injustice is so tan-gled with legal technicalities that it is hard to unravel the snarl, but since it has been done in five States at can be done in others.
