A WORLD OF ECHOES

A LIFE WELL SPENT TO BE REWARDED

TREAT THE PORAM TO THE DISPATCH & BROOKLYN, Jan. 17 .- Dr. Talmage's sub ject was "Echoes," and his text: Ezekiel vii., 7: "The sounding again of the moun tains

At last I have found it. The Bible has in It a recognition of all phases of the natural world from the aurora of the midnight beavens to the phosphorescence of the tumbled sea. But the well-known sound that we call the echo, I found not until a few days ago I discovered it in my text: "The sounding again of the mountains." That it the Echo.

Ezekiel of the text had heard it again and again. Born among mountains, and in his journey to distant exile he had passed among mountains, and it was natural that all through his writings there should loom up the mountains.

Greek mythology recognized the Echo as a symph, the daughter of Earth and Air, following Narcissus through forests and into grottoes and every whither, and so strange and weird and startling is the echo I do not wonder that the superstitious have lifted it into the supernatural. You and I in boyood or girlhood experimented with this responsiveness of sound. Standing half-way between the house and barn, we should many a time to hear the reverbera-

Drop a pin into that well, and the sound of its fall comes to the top of the well distinctly. A blast of an Alpine horn comes back from the rocks of langfrau in surge of the surge of reflected sound, until it seems as if every peak had lited and blown an Alpine horn. But have you noticed-and this is the rea-on for the present discourse-that this Echo a the natural world has its analogy in the meral and religious world?

nother family the father and mothe nsecrated people. What they do is what they teach is right. The boys y some tor time be wild and the daughters but watch! Years pass on, perhaps years, 29 years, and you go back to the reh where the father and mother used to consistent members. You have heard bor of the church you see the sexton, you ask him: "Where is old Mr. Web-

"He is up there in the elders' seat. He is one of our best and most important members. You ought to hear dimptry and sing. He is not Joe any longer; is kiden Webster."

"Old no," says the sexton, "she is the resident of our missionary society and the rectress in the orphan asylum, and when we case down the street all this ngamuffins the hold of her dress and cry, 'Auntie, here are you going to bring us some more ooks and shoes and things." And, when in more of revival there is some hore one of revival, there is some hard case back in a church pew that no one else can touch, she goes where he is, and in one whunte she has him acrying, and the first thing we know she is fetching the hardened uan up to the front to be prayed for."

Shall come back to him in five rained life-times, and five destroyed eternities. You see the echos are an octave lower than he anticipated.
On the other hand, some rainy day, when there are hardly any customers, the Christ-tian merchant comes out from his counting room and stands among the young men, who have nothing to do, and says: "Well, boys, this is a dull day, but it will clear off after a while. There are a good many ups and downs in business, but there is an over-ruling Providence. Years ago I made up my mind to trust God, and he has always seen me through. I remember when I was your ago, I had just come to town and the temptations of city fife gathered around me, but I resisted. The hold farm praying for me, and I knew it, and somehow I could not do as some of the clerks did or go where some of the clerks went, I tell you, boys, it is best always to oright fike the old-fashiomed religion of Jesus Christ. John, where did you go to church last Sunday? Henry, how is the Young Men's Christian Association prospering." About noon the rain ccases and the sun forms out and the clerks go to their places, and they say within themselves: "Well, he is a successful merchant, and I gues he wows what he is talking about."

Our Present Life to Be Echoed. I take a step further in this subject, and say that our own eternity will be a reverberation of oar own earthly lifetime. What we are here we will be there, only on a larger scale. Dissolution will tear down the body and embank it, but our faculties of mind and soul will go right on without the hesitancy resonance.

heights, and all the depths, and all the im-mensities, and all the eternities joining in Echo upon Echo, Echo in the wake of Echo. In the inture state, whether of rapture or ruin, we will listen for reverberations of earthly things and doings. Voltaire standing amid the shadows will listen, and from the millions whose godless-ness and libertinism and debanchery were a consequence of his brilliant blasphemies will come back a weeping, walling, despair-ing, agonizing, million-volced Echo. Paul will, while standing in the light, listen, and from all the circles of the ran-somed, and from all the circles of the ran-somed, and from all the many mansions whom he helped to people, and from all the thrones he helped throng with arrivals, and from all the temples he helped fill with Noises of Another Kind. Oh, what will the tyrants and oppressor of the earth do with the Echoes. Those who are responsible for the wars of the world will have come back to them all the groans, the shricks, the cannonades, the bursting shells, the crackie of burning cities, and the crash of a nation's homes. Composers of sites, tof a nation's homes. Composers of gospel hymns and singers will listen for the return of Antioch and Brattle Streat, Ariel and Dundee, Harwell and Woodstock, Mount Pisgah and Coronation, Homeward Bouud and Shiring Shore, and all the melodies they ever started. Bishop Heber, and Charlos Wesley, and Isaace Watta, and Thomas Hast-ings, and Bradbury, and Horatius Bonar, and Frances Harvergal listen. But you know as well as I do that there are some places where the reverbations seem to meet, and standing there they rush upon you, they rain upon you, all at once they capture your ear. And at the point where all heavenily reverbations meet Christ will stand, and listee for the resound of all his sighs, and groans, and sacrifices, and they shall come back in an echo in which shall minzle the acclaim of a redeemed world, and the "Jubilate Deo" of a full Heaven. Echo saintly, cherubic, archangelic Echo of thromes! Echo of pulaces! Echo of temples! Omnipocent echo! Everlasting echo! Amen!

to have a prosperous year. Prices cannot well go lower, ss in most lines of business they are now, and have been for weeks past, down to bed rock. As compared with this time last year, fruits and vegetables are less than one-half the cost. In produce lines we note an improved tone and stronger markets for fancy dairy products since last Saturday. There is a scarcity of fancy creamery, not only here, but at all trade centers. At Elgin prices were advanced lo per pound at the Monday sales, and pro-pects are for another advance at the next Monday sales. Low grades of creamery and country butter of all kinds are still dull and slow, with no signs of a revival. New York and Ohio cheese is firm, and has been for a week past. During the week past eggs have declined about 20 per dozen, owing to lib-eral supplies. Ordinarily, midwinter eggs sell at 30c per dozen and upward, but top price for job lots now is 24c per dozen. We note a better inquiry for potatoes since the beginning of the week, but no advance so far in prices. and embank if, but our faculties of minuted soul will go right on without the hesitancy of a moment and without any change except enlargement and intensification. "Well," says someone, "this idea of moral, spiritual and eternal echo is new to me. Is there not some way of stopping this echo?" My answer is: "God can, and he only." If it is a cheerful echo, we do not want it stopped; if a baleful echo, we would like to have it stopped. The hardest thing in this world to do is to stop an echo. And if it is so hard so destroy a natural echo, how much harder to stop a moral echo, a spiritual echo, an immortal echo. Once in heaven, God will so arrange the relative position of mansions and temples and thrones that one of the everlasting charms of heaven will be the rolling, bursting, as-cending, descending, chanting echoes. All the songs we ever sang deroutly, all the prayers we have ever uttered exmestly, all the Christian deeds we have ever done, will be awaiting to spring upon us in echo. FEATURES OF TRADE CHICAGO-Wheat was more active to-day CHICAGO—Wheat was more active to-day and showed a marked improvement in tone. The drop in prices during the last few days brought in a good many buying orders, and the cables at the start were not so discour-aging as they have been for some time. Do mestic markets were higher, and New York was a good buyer during the first hour. There was no concentrated or heavy buying here, but everybody nearly seemed to want a little, and the offerings being light the as-gregate demand was sufficient to put prices up sharply; but the offerings were light and prices were gradually advanced fully 1 cent over yesterday's close. Canned tomatoes and corn have sharply advanced since the beginning of the week. All canned goods have been very dull and slow since last season's bountiful crops were gathered, and now that trade in this line be-gins to pick up, it is hoped and expected that a general revival is at hand. The movement of hog products is reported fairly good for the time of the year. The price of hogs is about $100 per cwt above the lowest point reached in the latter part of Novem-ber.

No stock made any movement of import-ance, and in no stock were the sales as much-as 9,000 sh res, which, after the activity and wide movements we have had, sufficiently shows the waning interest in the market on the part of speculators. The other daughter isappeared mysteriously, and has not been ward of. There was a young woman picked with the East river and put in the morpue, and some thought it was her, but I cannot ave.

All this is only the Echo, the dismal Echo, All this is only the Echo, the dismal Echo, the number of the dreadful Echo of par-contail obliquity and unfaithfulness. The old folks heaped up a mountain of wrong influ-ences. Indeed our entire behavior in this world will have a resound. While opportu-hilities fly in a straight line and just touch us ouve and are gone never to return, the wrongs we practice upon others fly in a cir-cle, and they come hack to the place from which they started. ich they started.

judgment day will be an Echo so, also, the judgment day will be an Echo et all our other days. The universe needs such a day, for there are so many things in the world that need to be fixed up and ex-plained. All the footsteps in that prison corridor as the Christian reformer walks to the wicket of the incarcerated, yea, all the whispers of conditence in the car of that pears of conditence in the car of that pears and rolled on until they dash against the indigment throne and then they will be struck back into the cars of these sons and daughters of mercy. Eterolity the Echo of Time.

Eternity the Echo of Time.

Eternity itself is only an Echo of time, Mid you, the analogy warrants my saying this. The Echo is not always exactly in kind the the sound originally projected. Lord haleigh says that a woman's voice sounding from a grove way returned an octave higher. A scientist playing a flute in Fairfax county, Ya, found that all the notes were returned, although some of them came in mised pitch. What we do of good or bad may not come back to us in just the proportion we expect it, bat could back it will; it may be from a desper woe. Our prayer or our plasphemy, our kindness or our cruelty, our faith or our inhelfer, our holy life or our dissolute be-havior, will come back somehow. Suppose the boss of a factory or the head of a commercial firm, some day comes out smoog his clerke or employes, and putting his thumbs in the armhouse of his vest, says, with an air of swagger and jocosity: "Well, I don't believe in the Bible or the church. The one is an imposition and the other is full of hypeerites. I declare I would not trust one of those very pious people further than I could see him." this. The Echo is not always exactly in kind ien I could see him." That is all he says, but he has said enough.

The young men go back to their counters, their shurtles, and say within themselves; "Well, he is a successful man and his prob-ably sindied up the whole subject and is probably right."

INDIANS GETTING DANGEROUS.

Osages and Pawnees Intoxicated by the Entrancing Ghost Dance,

GUTHRIE, O. T., Jan. 17.-[Special.]-A courier coming in from the Cherokee Strip to-night reports that there will surely be serious trouble on the Osage and Pawnee Reservations in the eastern part of the Strip. The Osage Indians have been very insolent for a year past. White people traveling through the reservation have been traveling through the reservation have been surrounded by Indians, who would detain them for hours, dancing about them and go-ing through the form of taking scalps. Within the past week the blanket Indians of this tribe have been holding a ghost dance, which grows larger and more vigor-ous sech day. The participants have have dance, which grows larger and more vigor-ous each day. The participants have be-come worked up to such a pitch that it is not safe for a white man to venture near. They claim the Messiah has promised to come and lead them in a grand campaign against the white men. Across the river from the Osage Reservation the Pawnees are having a dance. Should any member of these two tribes come into contact while they are excited from dancing, an open and bloody war will surely follow.
