RENT COLLECTING

Is the special business of BLACK & BAIRD; they have been doing it for years-have a large corps of efficient and thoroughly trained men; know how much rent a property should bring and how and where to get good tenants who will pay it. They have in many cases been able to obtain two or three times as much rent as the owner or some old fogy agent had been getting. They can compel "slow" tenants to pay up where an owner cannot. They 1 ay taxes-look after them carefully, pay insurance and attend to repairs under owners' iustructions economically, all without extra charge. They charge but a very moderate commission for rent collecting and can save ten to a hundred times its amount for the owner every year. They render monthly itemized statements with check. If you do not know them almost any bank or well-known business man in the city will, and if you ask them will tell you that they are reliable. They advertise your property free of cost in their rent bulletin, which is mailed regularly to all applicants until they are suited. Their facilities for obtaining the best rents for downtown business properties are unsurpassed, having a large list of applicants for good storerooms from all sections of the United States. If you own rented property of any kind it will pay you to see

AFTER THE PHYSICIANS.

Suits Against Seven of Them for Not Making Returns of Births, The Bureau of Health made information yesterday before Alderman Gripp against seven physicians and one midwife for violating the act of Assembly requiring them to make quarterly reports of births. They are: Drs. M. A. Arnholt, No. 1802 Carson street, J. D. Grimes, No. 331 Carson street; W. E. Hallock. No. 5135 Fifth avenue; R., S. Marshall, No. 124 Bluff street; D. D. O'Brien, Second avenue, Hazelwood; C. C. Rinehart, Mobile sircet, Twenty-third ward, and Elizabeth Uncapher, Thirty-fourth and Butler streets. The midwife was Martha Kase, Twenty-fifth and Jane streets, Southside. The last quarter ended January 1, but they are allowed 10 days' grace and have now had 22 days. The Health has always been put to a great deal of trouble on account of the failure of all of these returns to be sent in and hereafter those who fail to comply with the law in such cases will be sued. Information was also made yesterday by the Bureau of Health against Dr. J. D. Thomas, of No. 77 Thirteenth street, Southside, for failing to make a report of an inside, for failing to make a report of an in-fectious disease. The case was that of a child, Anna Jones, at No. 2309 Sydney street, Southside. The child suffered from diphtheria, which proved fatal, and when the death certificate was sent in the fact became known that the disease had not been
