

MRS. AULTMAN'S CASE.

Canton's Probate Judge Says Her Mind Is Surely Unsettled.

INVESTIGATION CONVINCED HIM.

She Imagines That Many Prominent Men Had Proposed to Her.

NEWSY NOTES FROM NEARBY TOWNS

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

CANTON, Jan. 25.—There is nothing but a feeling of sympathy in this city over the unfortunate affair leading to the appointment of a guardian for Mrs. C. Aultman, the respected widow of the late millionaire manufacturer. Other developments have arisen to-day bearing upon the subject.

Probate Judge Fawcett, before whom the hearing for the appointment of a guardian for Mrs. Aultman was held, in an interview to-day said the proceedings were in every respect regular and every precaution was taken. It was one of the clearest cases examined in his history. The testimony revealed that Mrs. Aultman imagined many things taking place which had no existence. For instance, she thought a number of prominent men in the city had proposed marriage to her.

She became possessed of the idea that she was holding a series of very costly entertainments during the past two years, which had almost ruined her financially and caused her so much trouble and worry that she could hardly bear up under it. Dr. Phillips, one of the witnesses examined at the inquest, was seen by a reporter and made the following statement: "On August 21, 1891, I was called to see Mrs. Aultman in consultation and found her seriously ill. I continued to attend her in consultation with Dr. E. O. Portman until November of the same year when I ceased to call, she being confined to her bed. She was of such a character as to involve the nerves of those about her. From that time her mental faculties have been so much impaired that she has been entirely incapacitated from attending to business. She is not in any manner her former self."

John East, who it was reported was to marry Mrs. Aultman, said there was no truth in the report, and also denied that Mrs. Aultman had made any proposals to him.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 25.—(Special.)—The Attorney General to-day began proceedings in the Supreme Court to wind up two insolvent insurance companies, Akron and Columbus. The association, the Attorney General declares, is insolvent, its entire cash assets consisting of $8,150, deposited in the City National Bank of Akron. The total liabilities aggregate $10,769. The amount of its insurance in force in Ohio is $57,467, and the total amount in force in 26 States and Territories outside of Ohio, while incorporated as an assessment fire association it has transacted a regular fire insurance business on the cash or joint stock plan. The association is hopelessly insolvent, its total cash assets, consisting of amounts to $72, while its total liabilities amount to $2,307.57. The aggregate amount of insurance in force in Ohio is $57,467, but $45,492, while the total insurance in other States is $107,541. The Local Ball Club Threatens to Fight the New League.

MR. TEMPLE'S IMPORTANT TALK.

The East End Gyms Cause a Surprise in the Local Bowling Tournament.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

A very serious rupture is threatened in the new League and it is unfortunate that circumstances cause the Pittsburgh club to be at least threaten to be the aggressive party. The definite cause of the threatened trouble is the Lyons case and two telegrams yesterday, one from Lyons and the other from President Temple, put the matter in a very grave shape as far as the harmony and confidence of the clubs of the new League is concerned. In a word the directors, at least the majority of them, met yesterday and very emphatically decided that if Lyons is not conceded to the Pittsburgh club the entire case shall be relegated to the courts.

The telegram that brought about the decisive step was from Lyons, who is at Cincinnati. It was to President Temple, and read as follows: "I have received letter from Nick Young requesting me to sign with New York. Powers is here. What shall I do?" President Temple, after consulting with his colleagues, replied as follows: "Don't sign with New York. You have signed with us, and we will retain you and go to court on the matter if necessary. Your salary will be paid by the Pittsburgh club, even though you sit on the bench the entire season."

The Situation Very Grave. President Temple also received a letter from President Young pointing out that a "mail vote" on the question would be deemed as much time as a vote by the League meeting. Of course the request for a mail vote was very foolish one to start with, but now the whole question has assumed a phase of the utmost gravity.

The West Virginia State militia has been ordered to disband. The report is that the militia was organized by the late Governor and A. B. Hoover, and that the State militia is being disbanded.
