THE APPROPRIATION ORDINANCE

Finally Passed by a Vote That Was Practically Unanimous.

MINOR MATTERS IN COMMON COUNCIL

A special meeting of Allegheny Common Council was held last night to consider the appropriation ordinance and other business received from Select Council. The approprintion ordinance was the most important measure acted upon, and it was passed as received from Select Council without alteration. The total of the appropriations is $1,114,775. The tax levy is 9 mills city tax, 3-10 of a mill for interest on sewer bonds and 1 mill business tax.

When the ordinance had been read Mr. Koehler wanted to know if, after the ordinance was passed, there would have to be any increase in any of the appropriations. He thought that the market clerk and constable should have more salary, and perhaps others, and if awhile they were raised he wanted the salary appropriation to be large enough.

Mr. Gerwig said that there has been talk of a revision of the salary list, and if the revision is made some unnecessary clerkships could be abolished and those entitled more would get it. The one would balance the other.

Objections of One Councilman

Mr. Nesbit remarked that he thought passing this ordinance was throwing dust in the eyes of the people. It is making provision to pay expenses on a 9 mills tax when it could not be done. The contingent fund is only a little over $71,000 and there is already $68,000 to come out of it. There would be no contingent fund to hammer at and the appropriations are all going to run short. He intended to vote against the

The ordinance was passed finally without further remark, by a vote of 36 ayes to 2 nays, Messrs. Nesbit and Schondelmyer

The other measures passed finally were:

The Tax on Street Cars.

The ordinance for licensing vehicles was amended, on motion of Mr. Lewis, by striking out the word "car" wherever it occurred as an act of assembly provides for a special tax on cars. It then went over for reprinting

THE JAILER KEPT HIS WITS. Instead of Giving Up the Keys When Held

Up He Called for Assistance, DENVER, Feb. 1.—Peg Leg Eldridge and Bert Curtis, the two Rio Grande train

robbers sentenced to life imprisonment in the United States Penitentiary and in the county jail here, made a desperate attempt to escape last night.
In some way Eldridge had secured a razor, and when the single guard who was in charge of the prisoners missed the two robbers he began to search for them. Suddenly he was seized from behind by Curtis while Eldridge held the razor over the guard's throat, demanding the keys. The guard, instead of complying, began shouting for assistance, which soon arrived, and the two men were overpowered.

Formally Changed to a Corporation A report was current on the streets yes terday that the coke works of Armstrong Bros. & Co. had changed hands. Inquirers at the office of the firm were referred to At-torney J. E. McKelvey, who stated that the only change made was that the firm had become a corporation. The charter was secured about a month ago, and the details of the new management were announced at that time. The formalities have just been completed.
