On the Part of the Law and Order Society Agents Results in the COLLAPSE OF FIVE CASES.

One Detective Who Has Lived in Pittsburgh for a Whole Week.

MANY QUESTIONS NOT ANSWERED.

McClure Undertakes the Work Usually Left to Attorney Test.

ALDERMAN ROBE'S LATEST DECISIONS

Michael Robe, the Wylie avenue Alderman, and Robert McClure, chief of the detectives and general manager of the Law and Order organization, yesterday morning disposed of another batch of cases brought against Pittsburgh newsmen.

The cases were heard in Alderman Robe's little business office. The dingy place was crowded beyond comfort with Law and Order detectives and curious people.

The Agent Had Learned His Lesson. Agent McClure knew when to object just as though Larver Yost had been pulling the string on him.

His Residence a State Secret. "That has nothing to do with this case," Detective Lewis answered.

Where could you be found if wanted? "Now, Squire, I object to that question. It has nothing to do with this case."

An Answer Amuses the Alderman. "That is my business," was the detective's prompt reply.

The Grippe Raging in Atabasco. "La gripe is raging here, and I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be a certain cure for it."

Immense Glove Sale To-Day. Prices reduced to less than half cost. These are the last of the season.

Follow the Crows To-Day. To the great manufacturers' clothing sale, 301 Market street.

Did Not Make Out a Case. Agent McClure then took the stand and read him the information against Mr. Wade on information furnished him by Lewis.

CARPENTERS AT WAR.

The First Lodge of the New Order Organized on the Southside. LEADERS ANNOUNCE THEIR PLANS.

Strikes Are to Be Discouraged as Much as Possible. FEATURES OF INDUSTRIAL INTEREST.

The first gun in the battle between the Brotherhood of Carpenters and the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters has been fired by the Amalgamated Society, which has organized its first local on the Southside.

John McClure, a new Law and Order detective, was the witness in the case of Charles F. Smith, Chambers is a full-time looking man in his late 30s.

One of McClure's Own Informations. John Benham, newsdealer at the Union station, had two cases against him.

The case of John Schaffer, newsdealer at the Baltimore and Ohio depot was next called. Mr. McClure was the witness.
