The tragedy happening at the close of Friday night's testivities at the Pittsburg Club forbid a detailed account of the gayety marking the reopening. The house of pleasure was so suddenly and awfully turned into one of mourning that it seems but respectful and in good taste to leave it so. By this time Miss Katherine Shaw's sad death has been told, with all its affecting incidents, at every fireside in the two cities, and nought remains now but to speak of the deep sympathy felt for the family weeping round their dear one's coffin this morning. The story of Death is one on which the story of life must always wait, and the reopening of the Pittsburg Club is therefore ignored in the presence of the dread visitor who, without introduction or invitation, crossed its threshold on Saturday morn.

Not a Begging Scheme There should be no misunderstanding about the proposed banquet to the delegates to the Department Encampment and the distinguished old soldiers who will be guests of the local Grand Army posts at that time. The banquet is intended to be entirely a citizen's affair; it is proposed by the citizens, and is to be tendered by the citizens zens, and is to be tendered by the citizena. It is not a begging scheme of the local Grand Army men, but is prompted by men outside the Grand Army, whose patriotism is rejuvenated by the recollections that this coming great gathering produces in this particular locality which was such an important point during the Rebellion. Though the Grand Army men would not ask for a penny for the purpose, they are, of course, ready to do any work that needs to be done and will take off the citizens' shoulders as much as possible in that way. The banquet in fiself would be nothing to the distinguished veterans who will be here at the encampment, but the feeling that prompted it will be highly appreciated and enjoyed.

The weekly drills are well attended, and quite a number of recruits have lately been taken

REPORTS from Harrisburg yesterday show the condition of Adjutant General McClelland to be most critical. Hopes are still en-tertained for his ultimate recovery, but the slightest change for the worst means death. His affliction is caused by an ulcerated stomach.

THE annual military and full dress recep will be held in the Academy of Music in that city on Monday, February 15. Invitations have been sent to a number of officers of the N. G. P. in this vicinity,

MAJOR A. J. LOGAN, Second Brigade Quar-termaster, has been confined to his rooms at the Kenmawr Hotel for the past month with quite a serious attack of lung troubles. As soon as his condition will ailow, Major Logan will take a lengthy Southern trip. A proision in the Court of Inquiry recently held in the case of Adjutant Charles Reese. of this city, is still being awaited with con-siderable interest. It is over a month now since the court sat, and it is being hinted now that the matter has been quietly side tracked into one of the numerous pigeon-holes connected with division headquarters. Most of the companies of the Fourteenth Regiment have lately gotten a "move on" Regiment have lately gotten a "move on" toward fixing up the meeting rooms and as a result the boys will have much more pleasant quarters in which to spin their war yarns. The example set by the head-quarters of the regiment in refurnishing the rooms has been felt throughout the regiment.

A NUMBER of the members of Company I of McKeesport have formed a permanent escort club, with a membership of about 40. The organization expects to hold up its head among the best drilled in the country, as especial attention will be paid to some pretty fancy movements. The officers elected are: William Lautner, President: Charles Smitn, Vice President: H. Adams, Treasurer, and J. O. Cook, Secretary. A NUMBER of the members of Company I of

First Lieutenant hurs, of Company B, Eighteenth Regiment, elected a week ago, has quite a lengthy military record. He was has quite a lengthy minitary record. He was formerly a member of the old Duquesne Greys and later of the Fourteenth Regiment. Aside from this he has been connected with a number of the Western military organizations and has borne titles ranging all the way from private to Colonel. Mr. Huff is quite a disciplinarian and will make a valuable addition to Company B.

There is a Difference

In make up: Most baking powders contain ammonia or alum. Cleveland's does not, not a particle; it is composed of pure cream of tartar and bi-carbonate of soda, with a little flour to keep the strength, nothing else. That is why Cleveland's is the most wholesome.

In strength: A rounded teaspoonful of Cleveland's Baking Powder does better work than a heaping teaspoonful of any other; a large saving on a year's bakings. That is why Cleveland's leavens most.

In results: With most baking powders cake is coarse grained, gets dry and "husky;" with Cleveland's, it is fine grained, keeps moist and fresh. That is why Cleveland's leavens best

The annual spring inspections in the Second Brigade started last Monday with the Fifteenth Regiment, and during the week Fifteenth Regiment, and during the week Major Patterson put seven of the companies through the ordeal. To-morrow evening the first of the local companies will be inspected, commencing with Company A of Fourteenth Regiment. Company F of the East End will follow on Tuesday evening, Company K of Mansfeld on Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, and Company B in the city on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The balance of the companies of the Fourteenth will be inspected later on in the month.

During the past month many inquiries have been made as to the authority of the Presi dent of the United States over the National Guard of the various States. The President has full authority to call the militia of the States into the service of the United States whenever he deems the emergency sufwhenever he deems the emergency suf-ficiently great, and he alone is the judge of the necessity. When called into such serv-ice it is subject to precisely the same au-thority as the regular army, and must go wherever ordered. There are a number of views on the subject, and the matter has not been practically tested.
