BAD BUSINESS AT SANDY LAKE.

The Books Are Missing, So Is the Secretary, and No Dividends.

NEWSY NOTES FROM NEARBY TOWNS

SPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCH. SANDY LAKE, PA., Feb. 9.-The officers of the Economical Mutual Benefit Association of this place, which was recently placed in the hands of a receiver, are likely to soon get into further trouble. The receiver, & B. Griffith, has notified the policy holders that there will be no dividends, and that he has been unable to secure the books, which mysteriously disappeared, and can, therefore, make no satisfactory statement of the company's business. The members are thoroughly aroused, and. are forming themselves into organizations in the different counties. They have employed attorneys at each county seat, with ployed attorneys at each county seat, with the purpose of taking the matter into court by a bill in equity against the officers and directors. They allege that the affairs of the association have been negligently, fraudu-lently and criminally managed. In a few days the policy holders of Venango county will hold a meeting in Franklin to origanize and put the matter in a more definite shape. Many of the members were not satisfied with the appointment of S. B. Griffith, of Moreer, as receiver, for he had been in the West, and is now said to be in a mining officers of the company are as follows: J. L. Tewell, New Castle, President: C. W. Smith, Sandy Lake, Vice President: T. M. Cooley, M. D., Sandy Lake, Medical Director: D. Perrine, Sandy Lake, Treasurer; C. B. Fulton, Sandy Lake, Secretary.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL WAR.

Principal Cooper Still Holds the Fort, Backed by Students and Citizens.

ERIE, Feb. 9 .- [Special.] - The contest at Edinboro between the trustees of the State Normal School and the deposed principal, Joseph Cooper, for possession of the school, is approaching a climax Prof. Cooper after capproaching a climax Prof. Cooper after learning the classes this morning came to the to consult his counsel, and pon his return found Trustees. trustees demanded to know what their attitude was. The spokesman informed the trustees that if they would give Prof. Cooper a public and speedy trial on the charges of immorality, deception and other alleged irregularities, and sustain them, they, the teachers, would enlist under the new Principal, Prof. Benidict, of Towanda. If not, they would stand by Cooper as Principal, under their, contract for the year. The teachers then suggested that the matter be left to the public school officials of Edinboro to arbitrate. This the trustees refused, and the teachers left the meeting. This evening the "Cooper" and the teachers left the meeting. This evening the students wearing the "Cooper" badges were joined by a large number of sympathizing citizens and paraded the streets, headed by fifes and drums.

While the parade was in progress, Prof. Benidiet, the new Principal, called on Prof. Cooper and explained that he wasn't there to take any man's position, and would withdraw. The trustees have asked the State Superintendent to interfere, but it is stated that he told them to allow Prof. Cooper to serve it year out. One of the trustees, who is the financial manager alleges that $1,400 has been taken from his safe, and rumors are affeat in which Prof. Cooper calls upon the trustees to investigate or be responsible to the public.

Sues a Druggist for Her Husband's Death. NEW CASTLE, Feb. 9 .- [Special.] -- Mrs. Frederick Wehr, of Rose Point this county, has brought an action for trespass and $10,000 damages against A. S. Marshall, a prominent druggist of Portersville. One morning about a year ago the body of Frederick Wehr, a shoemaker, was found frozen stiff on a country road.
