Here is a man who is moral. He is an ex-imple to a great many professors of religion in some things: he never did a mean thing in his life; he pays all his debts, and is a good citizen nud a good heighbor, but he says he is not a christian.

Various Grades of Sinners Saved.

Some day the Holy Spirit comes into his bers bolted The Eurgettstown burglars heart and he sees that he cannot depend were captured A new independent politiupon his motality for salvation. He says: O Lord God, I have been depending upon my good works, I find I am a sinner, and I want Thy salvation. Lord, for Jesus' sake, have mercy on me." And God pardons him, and immediately one of the towers of heaven ribes a silvery chime, for there are four evers to the heavenly temple. Here is a man who is had: he knows he is

Here is a man who is bad; he knows he is bad, and, and everybody else knows he is bad, it he is not an outcost, far from being an atcast. Ho moves in respectable circles, at one day, by the power of the Holy hest, he romses up to see his sinfulness and says: "O Lord, have mercy, I am a wan-ren; and without Thee I perish. Have ercy," God hears him, and immediately to of the towers of heaven strike a slivery ime.

But here is an outcast. He was picked up has high out of the gratter and carried to the pollee station. He has been in the peni-tentary three times. He is covered and souked with lonthesomeness and abomina-tion. Arousing from his dehauch, he cries out: "O God, have merey on ane. Thou who didst pardon the penitent thief, bear me cry for merey." And the Lord listens and par-dons, and he scener is the poor wretch ardoned than three of the great towers of eaven strike up a silvery chime.

When All the Bells in Heaven Ring.

But here is a waif of the street. She passes nder the gaslight, and your soul shudders with a great horror. No pity for her. No commission for her. As she passes down the struct, she hears a song in a midnight mission and as she listens to that song she

All may come, whoever will,

This Man receives poor sinners still, She puts but that harbor, she kneels hy the roligh lench near the Goor, she kneels hy the roligh lench near the Goor, she says "O, Lord! Then who didst have mercy on Mary Magdalea, take my blistered lert off the red hot pavement of hell." God says, "My daughter, thy elas me torgiven thee; go in peace." Now, all the four towers of the heaven strike a silvery chime, and they who pass through the celestial stre is say, "What's that' why, the worst sinner must have been saved. Hear all the four towers ring, and ring, and ring." "And there is joy in helven annong the augels of God over one ng, and ring, and ring." "And there is joy a between among the angels of God over one aner that repenteth.

sinner that repented.." My subject impresses you, I think, with the theorigit that it is possible for us to ang-ment the huppiness of neaven. People think that souls before the throne are as happy as they can be. I deny it. Look at that mother before the throne of God. When she died she left her son in this world a vagabond. That son repented of his iniquities and came to God. The report of that subvation has reached beaven. Do you tell me that mother before the throne of God has not her joy efore the throne of God has not her joy ichly nurmented?

You May Increase Heavenly Happiness.

There is many a man in this house to-day who could go out with a torch and kindle a new bonfire of victory on the hills of heaven. It you would this day repent and come to God, the news of your salvation would reach heaven, and then, hark! to the shout of the Tansomed.

Your little child went away from you into the good hand. While she was here you brought her all kinds of beautiful presents.
Sometimes you came home at alghtfull with your pockets full of gifts for her; and no sooner did you put your nightkey into the latch than she began at you, saying "Father, what have you brought me?" She is now before the throne of God. Can you bring her a rift to day? You unay. Comig to thats and repenting of sh, the tidings will go up to the throne of God, and your child will hear of R. O, what a gift to her son the everiasting hills when she hears of it. Touce said to you there are no vacant chairs in heaven; but I recall that. Right beside your loved one in that good hair, not made vacant by death, for death never enters there; it's recant chair for you. Will you take it's mathy.
