Common Council Opposes the Auditing Committee Idea, Claiming That It Is

THE CONTROLLER'S WORK.

Final Amendment of the Ordinance After a Long Argument.

WOULD TAKE UP TOO MUCH TIME,

Argue the Members Who Fight the Bill and Win Out Easily.

OTHER BUSINESS IN COMMON BRANCH

Pittsburg will have no Auditing Committee. Common Council so decreed yester-day, by amending Mr. O'Donnell's ordinance so as to put the power of supervising accounts in the hands of the Controller, instead of a committee of Councilmen.

This will alter the present condition of affairs only in allowing Controller Morrow to employ sufficient expert help to do the work. Under the law he is already empowered to make an audit of the city's books at least once a year. But he has never had anybody to devote the time necessary to it. The work will be long and arduous, and this accounts largely for the opposition of numerous Councilmen to having the matter devolve on members. The chance of being put on the Auditing Committee doubtless had considerable influence on many who argued and voted to put the burden on the Controller's shoul-

Started a Lengthy Argument. The bill came up in the special meeting Common Council called to wind up some unfinished business. Before else had been done Mr. O'Donnell called up the ordinance creating standing Auditing Committee. For two hours there was the most animated discussion of many a day in that branch. The ordinance had passed the first two readings at prior meetings and its author called it up for final passage. Mr. Magee moved to go into a committee of the whole

Mr. O'Donnell-The gentleman bas failed to give any reason for such action. I understand the amendment to be offered will practically kill the ordinance. It is strange that this ordinance has been before Councils so long and never until now has an amendment been offered. The ordinance as it is now cannot be amended. It is as near perfect as possi-ble and covers the entire ground. It has been before this branch three months and met with general approval from the public. The parties who want to defeat it are men who have long been identified with the municipal government. I want it un-derstood that if the ordinance is defeated it will come up again, and I will be one of at least a hundred taxpayers who will form a citizen's movement to have it adopted. The action in going into a committee on the whole simply means the defeat of the or-

Would Be a Heavy Task.

Mr. MacGonnigle—I do not altogether agree with Mr. O'Donnell. The ordinance needs some amendments. The task of an auditing committee would be a heavy one and I would not want to serve on the com-mittee. An amendment should be made to let the Councilmen out.

Mr. Bigham—The ordinance is not per-feet, as its author claims. I have not the slightest doubt that Mr. O'Donnell is perfectly honest in his intentions; but it strikes me the work would be enormous and members of Councils would not have time to attend to it. The work should be done by expert auditors who should be paid for it.

Mr. O'Donnell-Was there ever an audit of the city's books?

Mr. Bigham—I have no knowledge of what would be called a special audit, except when a deficiency had been discovered in the Water Department some years ago.

Mr.O'Donnell—I am satisfied the attempt to go into a committee of the whole is simply a scheme to kill the ordinance on the part of gentlemen who are afraid to go on record as directly against it.

Chairman Holliday — You will please come to order. You have no right to make such a statement concerning the motives of The motion to go into a committee of the whole was then adopted and Mr. Bigham took the chair. Mr. Magee moved to amend the ordinance, striking out every reference to an auditing committee and making the Controller the auditor, giving him the right to employ as many clerks and experts as he

Mr. O'Donnell-Have you consulted the Controller as to whether or not such an arrangement meets with his approval? Un-less the Controller has altered his views within the past two months he prefers an auditing committee.

It is the Controller's Duty.

Mr. Magee—I do not know what the Controller wishes, as I have not talked with him on the subject, except in a half serious way. I do not know that it makes any difference anyhow, as it is the duty of the Controller's office to audit the books. If the gentleman from the Sixteenth ward is est and earnest in his efforts for an auditing of the city's books he can secure it best through the Controller's office. If such a committee as Mr. O'Donnell wants were appointed the people would be continually saying they were working for a selfish purpose and had axes to grind. Mr. Flinn—Neither the original ordinance nor the amendment are perfect. There is no question about the honesty of the present Controller, but this ordinance is not only for to-day, but for the future. Time has shown that the old maxim that "every man is innocent until proved guilty" should be changed so as to read "every man is guilty until proved honest." We cannot have Controller Morrow for ever, and who knows but that in some future time there may be a man in his place in whose hands such responsibility will not be safe? Mr. O'Donnell-I have serious doubts as to the right of Councils to impose further duties on the Controller, his powers being fixed by act of Assembly, and there is noth-ing in the acts compelling the Controller to go over the books of his predecessor.

Mr. Holliday—In neither the ordinance nor the amendment is there anything to show how far back the audit should go. This is a serious defect, in my mind.

Mr. O'Dennell—The ordinance fixes no time, and after its passage, Councils could regulate the matter by resolution.

To Go Back Over Ten Years, Mr. MacGonnigle offered an amendment that the auditors be requested to go back for a period of ten years or more if necessary, and that they should report to Councils, This was accepted by Mr. Magee.

Mr. Holliday read the act of Assembly which makes it the duty of the Controller.

which makes it the duty of the Controller which makes it the duty of the Controller to sudit the books at least once a year. The only extra authority the ordinance would give him would be to employ experts.

Mr. O'Donnell wanted the Controller sent for, but this was voted down.

The amendment was then adopted and the committee of the whole rose.

Mr. O'Donnell—The people of the Sixteenth ward have kindly elected me for another term, and I give notice now that I will keep bringing the ordinance up until such a pressure is brought to bear that Councils will have to pass it.

The vote favoring the Controller as Au-ditor instead of a committee was as follows: Ayes—Messrs, Augloch, Bigham, Brown, Crawford, Donley, Delaney, Dunn, Ertzman, Fox, Groetzinger, Hagmaier, Jarrett, Johnston, Kelly, Lowry, Magee, Mason, McClure, MacGonigle, McGuire, Shannon, Taggart, Vogt, Wallace, Williams, Wright and President Holliday. Total, 27.
Nays—Messrs, Ferguson, Film, Larkin, O'Donnell, Russell and Stewart. Total, 6.

O'Donnell, Russell and Stewart. Total, 6.

The ordinance, as amended, will come up for final action at the next meeting.

Considerable other business of lesser import came up for action yesterday. The communication from Mayor Gourley relative to the appointment of a committee of business men on the World's Fair was read, and the action of Select Council in adopting the paper was concurred in.

The ordinance granting certain privileges to the Pittsburg Traction Company was next taken up.

Thought It a Big Consolidation.

Thought It a Big Consolidation.

Mr. Ferguson objected to the ordinance on the ground that it looked like a consolidation of all the lines.

Mr. Magee explained that the ordinance simply was to allow the transferring of cars to other lines, or, in other words, meant a system of transfer beneficial to all East End residents. The ordinance was then adopted.

Mr. O'Donnell, of the Committee on Surveys, presented ordinances locating Griffin street, Kearns street, Victoria street and Brooklyn street, establishing the grades of Jet alley, Coleman street, Denmarsh street, Hosack street, Hamlet street, Ophelia street and McDermott street; relocating a portion and McDermott street; relocating a portion of Greenfield avenue and Irvin street; va-of Greenfield avenue and Irvin street; va-cating Mellon street, Derry street, Gar-field street and Morton street. These ordinances were dopted afinally. Mr. Bigham, of the Committee on Public Safety, presented a release of damages by George Alexander to the city of Pittsburg and dedication of certain ground in the Twenty-first ward for public purposes. The paner was adopted.

FIELD'S SANITY TO BE TESTED.

features of the Trial of the Young Financler on Embezzlement Charges, NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Edward M. Field, head of the firm of Field, Wiechers, Lindley & Co., was brought before Judge Van Brunt to-day for trial on one of the six indictments charging him with grand larceny. Counsel for Field objected to his being placed on trial, stating that he was insane and was mentally incapable of pleading to the indictorant and was mentally incapable of pleading to the indictment.

He offered in support of this a certified copy of the verdict of the jury at White Plains, pronouncing Field insane. District Attorney Nicoll suggested that a jury be selected to try the question of Field's sanity. Mr. Cockran argued in favor of the appointment of a commission, but Judge Van Brunt decided in favor of a jury, and the work of selecting one was at once begun.

LATEST IMPORTATIONS OF WOOLENS.

Case after case of choicest English, Scotch, French and German Spring Suitings and Trouserings has been taken out of the Custom House by us during the past week, and to-day we are ready with the grandest selection of fashionable piece goods ever displayed within the four walls of a Merchant Tailor Shop.

Gentlemen who are accustomed to getting their clothing made to order should reflect on and carefully weigh the unrivaled advantages we offer

Buying our cloths direct from the European looms in large quantities and for cash only, it stands to reason that we get them for less money than out reserve everything goes the tailor who buys in limited quantities from the importer and on credit. This fact enters largely into the big saving we guarantee each patron. Then, too, we employ only the best help. Our artist cutters and journeymen tailors are skilled men who are expected to produce perfect work only. Right here, then, let it be most emphatically stated that we do not recognize as competitors the mushroom, cheap Johns of the trade or the dark and dingy little tailor shops which abound in our thoroughfares. Our fine ready-made clothing is far superior in material, make, fit and finish to the slop-shop work turned out by these concerns.

Our Work Is the Best Only!

Nothing short of perfection goes with us in Merchant Tailoring. Yet, in spite of this fact, and for reasons mentioned above, our prices are from 15 to 25 per cent lower than those of other first-class tailors. Thus, for instance, we can easily save you $10 to $15 on a suit, or from $2 to $4 on a
