Washington County. LEWST NOTES FROM NEAREST TOWNS

MEADVILLE, Feb. 25 .- After wrestling or over three hours, the jury in the Dela-nter case notified Judge Henderson that t was impossible for them to agree on a erdici, and, accordingly, they were disharged at 5:15 P. M. to-day. Interviews with the jurors disclose that he first ballot stood three for acquittal and ine for conviction, and, notwithstanding but many ballots were taken these figures ere not changed from first to last.

Those who have followed the case closely re not surprised at the result; in fact, many redicted, after hearing the Judge's charge, but the verdict would either be acquittal r the jury would fail to come together. A colitical analysis of the jury shows that it as composed of 8 Democrats and 4 Repubicans. Two Republicans and 1 Democrat ored for acquittal, and 7 Democrats and 2 lepublicans voted for conviction.

ENTIRELY TOO SENSATIONAL

en Object to Their Blind Chaplain's Remarks During His Prayers. WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 .- [Special.]-Rev. Dr. dilburn, the blind Chaplain of the House of Representatives, is in danger of having his oratorical efforts restricted at the request of certain members who object to his "Con-gressional curtain lectures" instead of morning prayer. One of the wittiest members in the House remarked to-day that Dr. Mil-

the House remarked to-day that Dr. Milburn is "entirely too communicative to the Delty, and especially on the subject of Congressional deportment."

Without intending to be sacrilegious the wag went on to say the chaplain should confine himself to a general invocation in behalf of the Congress of the United States, without endeavoring to inform the Lord every morning what wayward Congressmen are doing, accompanied by suggestions as to what they should not do. During the early part of ex-Speaker Reed's administration Dr. Milburn received an intimation that his pravers were too "rich for the average Congressman's blood." Prior to that time some of his invocations had rather a personal flavor, and each morning there was a Congressional guessing match to determine the particular members he was addressing his remarks to. He is becoming sensational again, hence the criticism.

The Cook Not to Blame.

Many nice delicacies are often spoiled by the abominable flavorings used in them and generally their having been spoiled is attributed to the cook. Now if Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts are used, cooks will not be unjustly blamed; nice dishes will not be spoiled, as they always impart the delicate fresh-fruit flavor in whatever they are used. To have enjoyable and healthful food, the best articles must be selected to make it. It is economy for the poorest to use
