that Maher had with Jack Dempsey just before Dempsey started for the West. This "go" has been referred to several times, but most persons who heard it were incredulous. It was said that Maher put Dempsey out in two rounds. It now transpires that the "go" did take place, but Dempsey was not knocked out. After a round and a half Maher smothered the ex champion so effectually that Dempsey said that there was no use in going further.

NEW YORK, March 3.—[Special.]—The only thing of importance done by the baseball magnates to-day was the adoption of the two divisions in consequence of the in-creased number of clubs in the new organization. It was at first proposed to divide the series so as to make the first consist of 86 games and the second of 66, but this was quently each division contains 77 games.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

NEW ORLEANS, March 3.-General satis faction is expressed on all sides at the fight last night, as being admirably managed in all respects. It has added to the prestige of the Olympic Club and will probably result in a number of good matches being made. Nearly all the pugilists were delighted over the arrangements of the management of the fight and anxious to make engagements with the Olympics. The large audience present, the fact that it was far above the average in respectability to those attending the prize ring, the order and decorum that prevailed and the perfect fairness shown as between the contestants, render New Orleans, in their opinion, the very best place for a square fight in the country.

Most of the audience last night was for Fitszimmons, but it was quite evident that Charlie Mitchell declared that he had always been unwilling to fight down here, imagining there was some prejudice against him, but he said that he was now certain that he could get fair and square justice

Danny Needham was seen this morning and expressed himself as well satisfied with the contest, and said he had tipped Fitzsimanother match with Ryan before getting away. Either San Francisco or here suited him, but he preferred Frisco, merely on account of its being nearer to his home. He would be willing to fight before the Olympic if it would make up the match.

Arthur Upham will remain here some time in the loope that the Olympics will arrange a match for him with some middle-weight. Hall publicly confesses that he is auxious to meet Fitzsimmons, and that one of his reasons for coming down here was to try and arrange this matter. One of its officers said that Hall had expressed his willingness and suggested that they try and arrange it without delay.

Fitzsimmons was seen in reference to a match with Hall and as to his future movements. He simply said he did not know what he would do, and referred the reporter to Jimmie Carroll. Carroll said they would take no notice of Hall; but if Hall wanted a fight they would put up Choynski against him. He said further they had not decided

There is every reason for believing that

Carroll gave Fitzsimmons' weight as too low, as those who saw him weighed but a short time before the fight say that he was 172 pounds. Maher's given weight was correct, but he had some superfluous flesh on tim, which he could easily have got rid of by training, whereas not a pound on Fitz-simmons seemed superfluous. The experts all attribute Fitzsimmons victory to his cleverness and on this point they are unani-cleverness and on this point they are unanimous, but there is some difference as to Maher, some of them estimating him higher, others forming a very low opinion of him as a quitter. Slavin, who has been a strong Maher man, thought Maher a powerful follow and a hard hitter, but greatly lacking in general-ship and courage. He could not stand up against Fitzsimmons, who, in Slavin's ominion, is one of the coolest, cleverest and shiftlest men in the ring. Charlie Michell was the hardest of all on the defeated pugilist. "Maher is the dirtiest cur that ever stepped into the ring." The said "he openit list, "Maher is the dirtiest cur that ever stepped into the ring," he said: "he ought to be ashamed to call nimself an Irishman, and the Irish generally should he ashamed of him as their representative. He can't fight and he won't fight, As for Fitz-simmons, he is one of the eleverest men I have ever seen, and a wonder indeed. I thought Maher would win, but find myself greatly deceived."

Jim Hali, Fitzsimmons' old antagonist and who was a strong Maher man, attributed his defeat to lack of training. Maher, he said, had given his trainer a lot of trouble. Fitzsimmons had improved wonderfully and stimmons had improved wonderfully and showed himself a very clever fighter, but he was still of opinion that if Maher could only have got in some of his sledge-hammer blows, it would have settled the business.

blows, it would have settled the business. Tom Allen, veteran of the ring, thought Maher greatly over estimated. He was a hard hitter, but slow and very awkward, and could never fight a quick and clever man like Fitzsianmons. He thought Maher did well to quit when he did, as he stood no chance of winning and would have been knocked out in a round or two more.

A DISPATCH was sent from this city vesterday to the Olympic Club, New Orleans, for Ed Smith to fight any of the middle-weights at 180 pounds. DANNY NEEDHAM was sure that Fitz could defeat Maher, and said so before the battle. All the other leading pugilists were sure after the event. It is just as sure as we live that Siavin and Mitchell knew Maher couldn't defeat Fitzsim-mons, although they stated differently. Mitchell is no fool.

BLEW OUT HIS BRAINS. The Grip Leads a Newly Wedded Man to Kill Himself. New York, March 3. — [Special.] — John Ratner, a young Russian mattress maker, quit work to-day, and returning to his home quit work to-day, and returning to his home at 210 Forsyth street, complained of feeling ill. He had pains in his stomach, he said. His wife went to get him a bottle or soda. When she returned she found him dead. He had shot himself through the brain. Ratner had a severe attack of grip about a fornight ago. His honeymoon was not long over.

THERE is not a semblance of fairness for Pitts-urg in the schedule. AND what a razzle dazzle Pittsburg gets in the new baseball schedule. Washington and Baltimore ball teams are the great holiday for Pittsburg this year. M. M. SULLIVAN and Kilrain fought at catch weight and therefore they were not weighed just before their fight.

WALTER SPALDING lost Richardson for New York. He admitted yesterday that at the Indian-apolis meeting be placed Richardson's name among the "reserved" players, instead of in the list of "under contract" players. This was a total surprise to President Day.
