Philadelphia Gas Company Announces Signs of a Material Reaction.

Philadelphia Gas soid at the early call at 13%. At the second it dropped to 15% but quickly moved up to 15%. At the last call it developed greater strength. Sproul & Co. took 600 shares from Hill & Co. at 19. The final bid was 15%, with none offered, under 19. The assurance of a dividend had no ma-terial effect on the stock, it having been long under discussion and pretty well disconnted. Wheeling Gas sold up to 25 at the second call, but fell back at the third to 28, but none was in the market at anything like that figure. Pipeare was stronger. Luster and Electric put a good fraction to their credit
