

NO USE FOR HORSES.

Pittsburg Liverymen Talk of the Decay of Their Business

BECAUSE OF RAPID TRANSIT.

The Number of the Animals Dispensed With in This City.

EFFECT ON OTHER LINES OF TRADE

It would seem that cities will in a few years cease to furnish horse markets worth speaking of. In this city the substitution of cable and electric cars for horse power has done away with the use of 1,500 horses in this one department alone, and rapid transit has caused the discontinuation of the services of 300 to 400 more in the livery business.

At the stable of John Burns & Son it was stated that orders for night service were now generally taken by telephone, much to the comfort of the poor beasts whose labor formerly consisted largely in standing in the inclement weather on three legs taking cats. This kind of service, once very remunerative, is considered now of small consequence by livery men.

Establishments Out of Business.

Inquiry among livery men shows that while nearly all have reduced their equine force about a score of livery establishments have gone out of business altogether except that some have been converted entirely into boarding stables.

Big Demand for Florio Grounds.

The dates for Allqupps Grove on the Lake Erie road have been nearly all taken for the months of June and July. The agent states that five Mondays are still open in July, the dates are all filled for the latter end of June and most of the August dates have been engaged.

Suit About a Girl's Picture.

Joseph Manning charges Martin Durkin with larceny. They live on Penn avenue. Durkin's sister gave Manning an album, and he placed her photograph in it. Durkin asked for his sister's picture, but was refused. Manning now claims that Durkin then went into his room and carried off both photograph and album.

From Workhouse to Central Station.

Thomas White, of the Southside, was brought from the Workhouse, where he had just completed a 30-day sentence, yesterday and lodged in Central station. He is held on a charge of assault and battery, preferred against him by Mary White. He will be given a hearing to-day before Magistrate Succop.

Canada to Look Into Its Whisky.

OTTAWA, March 9.—A royal commission has been appointed to ascertain and report for the information and consideration of Parliament the fullest and most reliable data possible respecting the effects of the liquor traffic upon all the interests affected by it in Canada.

Mr. A. Asher, formerly of Pittsburg, Pa., will ship from Paxton, Ill., 30 head of Norman mares and horses, all dapple grays, weighing from 1,200 to 1,500 pounds, to be sold at the Arnhem Live Stock Company, Limited, auction sale, Wednesday, March 16, at 10 A. M., without reserve to the highest bidder. These horses are said to be the finest lot of light and heavy draught horses ever shipped to this city.

It is wonderful the beautiful effects to be had in very low priced wall papers.

Most of the designs are in sets, such as only the very wealthy could afford a few years ago. JOHN S. ROBERTS, 719 and 721 Liberty st. (Head of Wood.)

FARMERS, gardeners, teamsters, bakers, grocers and expressmen, if needing a horse, can save money at Arnhem's sale.

Do not fail to attend the great auction sale of forfeited pledges now going on at I. E. Isaacs, 419 Smithfield street. Sales daily at 10 A. M., 2 and 7:30 P. M.

SUFFERERS from catarrh can find relief and a sure cure by using Pisco's Remedy for Catarrh. All druggists. 50 cents.

Doubleless as in other displacements there will be a readjustment and in 25 years the country will offer development in other directions, just as it did when the Pennsylvania canal was built, a project which some thought would ruin Western Pennsylvania as they thought it would destroy the market for horses and horse feed, whereas it increased the market to such an extent that values of these products rose 300 per cent.

The late development, however, must take some other direction, as in the last 25 years in the absence of wars, the great cities have furnished the market for the farmer's surplus feed and horses, whereas horses from this time forward are like to become yearly less useful, and on the level plains of the West will soon be discarded even as plow motors.

Universal Fringe Means Merit.

The success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in effecting a speedy cure of a gripe, cold, croup and whooping cough has brought it into such demand. Messrs. Pontius & Son, of Cameron, O., say that it has gained a reputation second to none in that vicinity. James M. Queen, of Johnston, W. Va., says it is the best he ever used. B. F. Jones, druggist, Winona, Minn., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is perfectly reliable. I have always warranted it and it never failed to give the most perfect satisfaction." Fifty-cent bottles for sale by druggists.

HAVE just received a very handsome new pattern in three colors. This is a conventional design taken from the Austrian pine.

JUDGE DEAN ON TOUR.

He is Negotiating for a Large Tract of Coal Land—One of His Stories.

Judge Dean, of Hollidaysburg, was in Pittsburg yesterday, in consultation with Messrs. Schlenker, Wendle, Scott and Brinton in regard to the purchase of a large tract of coal land within 12 miles of Pittsburg. Judge Dean refused to locate the coal land definitely, but he said it was a big and a valuable tract of land. He did not purchase the property, but probably will. Judge Dean is a handsome man of about 58 years of age. His hair is white as chalk, but his round full face is fresh as a school boy's. He is a most enjoyable talker and during his stay in Pittsburg he was called upon by many leading attorneys with whom he is popular.

The Judge has been making a State campaign and he says he rather enjoys his experience, saying: "It reminds me a good deal of an experience I had once when Cambria county was in my judicial district. I was at Ebensburg examining students for admission to the bar. There were two young men before us. After we had disposed of one the other turned to me and said, 'Judge, I guess I will not be examined.' I asked him for a reason. He said in a hesitating way, 'the law isn't any harder than I expected, but there is so thundering much more of it.' That," concluded the Judge, "is just my fix. State campaigns are not harder than I had expected, but there is much more of them than I've been used to."

No Bellevernon Extension This Year.

Considerable talk has been indulged in from time to time about the extension of the Bellevernon road to Brownsville. At one time it was thought the Vanderbilt would do the work this summer, but from present indications the prospects are very poor. A Lake Erie official remarked yesterday that the road ought to be extended to Morgantown, and he thought it would be done in time. The Bellevernon line now ends within three miles of Fayette City. It runs through a good territory and is on a paying basis. The Fayette people have petitioned to have the road pushed to their town.

TWO METHODIST CONFERENCE.

The Women Delegates Business Will Disrupt Eastern Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 9.—The one hundred and fifth annual session of the Philadelphia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church began here this morning. Bishop Walden, of Cincinnati, presided. The most important question is the election of delegates to the General Conference, involving the admission of women. The election was made the special order for Friday morning.

A dispatch from York says: The Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church opened its twenty-fourth annual session to-day, Bishop Andrews presiding. The conference promises to be one of the largest and most interesting ever held in the State. Bishop Bowman will assist Bishop Andrews in his arduous duties. In addition to the regular business of the conference there will be nine different anniversaries celebrated, the first of which, that of temperance, was celebrated last night.

Talk of Removing the Stock Yards.

Frank Reynolds, General Live Stock Agent of the Pennsylvania Company at Indianapolis, advises the road to remove the stock yards from East Liberty to the lower end of Allegheny, near the Ohio connecting bridge. He comes to this conclusion after investigating the causes of the delay in making cattle shipments. He finds from 10 to 15 hours are lost usually in making the transfers in Allegheny. He recommends that Eastern stock could be shipped over the West Penn to the main line with only a few hours' delay. The company is now considering a proposition to move the yards. The cattlemen are opposed to it, and they claim the loss of time in Allegheny could easily be prevented by the expenditure of a few thousand dollars.

Do you enjoy the good things of his world? Does a rich dinner distress you? Are you troubled with leepless sness?

A prominent physician from Cincinnati says:

"My patient has just finished the last bottle of the genuine Johann Hoff's Malt Extract with marked improvement. I can cheerfully say it is all, and more than you claim for it, for in my patient's case of dyspepsia nothing would remain on her stomach; hence there was extreme debility, and she certainly could not have survived much longer."

"After taking the second bottle we can say quite an improvement. Her appetite became better, and she could retain food without distressing her. She feels—for the first time in six months that she has been in bed—that she will recover. I have certainly proved in her case a great boon. I can cheerfully indorse the genuine Johann Hoff's Malt Extract for all you claim, both in dyspepsia, anemia and kindred diseases. I will take great pleasure in recommending it to other practitioners and to my patients."

Eisner & Mendelson Co., Sole Agents and Importers of Mineral Waters, 6 Barclay Street, New York. Look out for counterfeits. The genuine must have the signature of "Johann Hoff" on the neck of every bottle.
