NEWSY NOTES FROM NEARBY TOWNS

With a Barlow Knife.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCH.] UNIONTOWN, March 9 .- At 5:39 this morning J. W. Harmony, a well-known glass cutter, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a penkaife. He had arisen very early this morning, and, going out of doors, procured a quantity of carbon oil in a bucket. He returned with it and poured it over his wife, who yet remained in bed, thoroughly saturating her clothing. He then declared his intention of burning her alive, and, seizing her by the feet, dragged her to the grate in the bedroom. There her clothing caught fire, and she would, no doubt, have burned to death but for the timely arrival of parties who lived in one end of the same house in which the Harmonys reside. They put out the fire on Mrs. Harmony's clothing, she being but slightly burned, but terribly frightened.

After this demoniacal deed Harmony gathered up his little son Raymond and went over to the home of his father, who lives but a short distance from his house. He told his mother and sister that he wanted them to look after the child, and, leaving him with them turned and almost leaving him with them, turned and almost immediately drew a Barlow knife from his pocket. He slashed it across his throat, severing the jugular vein. A few moments

The only apparent cause for the mad act is that Harmony had been drinking hard for several years, which had finally affected his mind.

The trial of John Sappo, the Slav who killed his brother Frank at Grindstone last November, ended here to day in a verdict of voluntary manslaughter. It could not be learned why he had killed his brother except because he was drunk and did not know what he was doing. He was found in the basement of a house in which about 20 Slavs were holding a drunken carousal in an upper room, with a smoking pistol in his hand and his brother lying dead on the floor with a bullet hole through his heart. Not a man testified in his behalf. He cannot speak a word of English.

PETITIONS FOR PARDON

Forwarded to Harrisburg in Behalf of In prisoned Beaver Editors.

BEAVER, March 9 .- [Special.]-The petition and all necessary papers, together with reasons urged for the pardon of Messrs. Mellon and Porter, convicted of libel in the Quay-Sfar case, were sent to-day to the Recorder of the Board of Pardons, Harrisburg. The case will come before that body March 22. The petition contains about 800 names, including those of the leading business and meluding those of the leading business and professional men of the Beaver Valley. The imprisonment of Messrs Mellon and Porter is beginning to tell on their not over-rugged constitutions, and they show the confinement in their haggard appearance. This is especially true in the case of Mr. Porter, whose lungs are weak, and who gave up a business that confined him too closely within doors to take outside work. closely within doors to take outside work Star. It is claimed by his friends that if he is obliged to serve the full term ot six months in jail his health will be com-pletely broken, it, indeed, it does not cause his death. ### WORLD'S FAIR BIDS TOO HIGH.

The Plans of the State Building to Be Altered to Limit the Cost.

HARRISBURG, March 9.-Bids for the erection of the Pennsylvania building at the World's Fair were opened at the World's Fair headquarters to-day. No award was made. The average bid was $$1,000, that being over $16,000 higher than the limit of the appropriation for the building. It is possible the surplus of $40,000 in the commissioner's hands may have to be added to the original appropriation. The lowest bid Architect Lonsdale has been instructed by the Building Committee of the World's Fair Commission to modify the plans for the interior of the State building at Chicago so as to make the cost not more than $75,-000, the limit fixed by the Commissioner. This will at once be done, and bidders will have another chance on the revised plans

He had been a policeman in that district for the past nine years. Lately he has been following the drilling business.

Foster said his arrest was the work of malice, and he would make it warm for the malice, and he would make it warm for the people back of it. The only thing he could remember on which they might have based the charge was the fact that a friend of his from Pittsburg had come to Warren, where he was done out of $100 by poker players. Foster had tried to get him to go home and cat taken him to the depot, where the Med bought a ticket for Pittsburg, but later tore it up. It was necessary to take him to a hotel until he sobered up before it was considered safe to let him go home alone. Amateur Athletes Coming to a Satisfactory Settlement.

FITZ BECOMES VERY INDIGNANT.

Directors of the Local Club Meet and Discuss the 25-Cent Matter.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

A few days ago it was stated in this paper that the prospect of a settlement of the trouble among the Amateur Athletes was exceedingly bright. It can now be stated almost with certainty that peace will soon be established and that all will be well once again. This will likely kill all chance of the organization of a rival association to the A. A. U.

The Board of Governors of the A. A. U. have met and steps were taken whereby the Manhattan Athletic Club will probably have a representation on the board. The step is embodied in a decision of the board to recommend an amendment to the consti-tution making the number of members on the board to which each association is enti-tled three instead of two, as at present.

the board to which each association is entitied three instead of two, as at present.

Although there was no quorum at the meeting, the matter will be submitted to a mail vote, and there is but little doubt that it will eventually become a law.

A move that will make Seventh Regiment athletes smile was the recommendation regarding prizes. It is intended to allow not only medals, wreaths and banners, but, in addition, watches, silverware, to liet service and all sorts of jewelry.

This news will, doubtless, be hailed with delight by all the local amateur athletes, and they are numerous. The rules and defects above referred to have caused endless trouble and should never have been allowed.
The Manhattan Club's complaint has long been recognized as a just one.

been recognized as a just one.

Mr. Wells, of the East End Gyms, will attend the meeting of the Atlantic division of the A. A. U. to be held at Washington on the 6th inst. Probably two or three delegates from the club will accompany him.

FITZ IS INDIGNANT.

He Denies He Is a Quitter, and Wants Fal lon to Try Him.

New ORLEANS, March 9.—[Special]—Bob Fitzsimmons was seen this morning in refer-ence to Jack Fallon's remarks that he (Fitz-simmons) was a quitter and could not stand simmons) was a quitter and could not stand punishment, and that he remarked apropos of Maher's blows, "that fellow hits too hard for me." Fitzsimmons was indignant over both charges, and denied themas absolutely false. He had tried to treat Maher and his handlers courteously, and he did not see why he should be thus assailed. No one had ever been able to say that he quit a prize fight and no one ever would be able to say ever been able to say that he quit a prize fight, and no one ever would be able to say so, and if Fallon or any o' his friends thought that way he could easily test the matter in the prize ring.

"I will be in New York by next Monday," he said, "when I would like Jack Fallon or anyone else to show that I am a quitter. There is not the slightest truth in the story that I said. That fellow (meaning Maher) hits too hard for me.' I did not say it, and could not say it, because he did not hit me severely except one chance blow. I did say that Maher was a hard hitter and would prove a troublesome antagonist to a slow man who could not defend himself effectively, but his blows were not too hard for me, because I knew how to avoid them or ward them off."

Bob is quite resplendent with diamonds since his victory and sports several kohinoors in the way of rings and studs. He leaves for New York Saturday.

THE GYMS' CONTESTS.

Time for Taking Entries Extended Until

Saturday-Great Sport Expected. The East End Gyms announce that they have added boxing at 168 lbs. to the list of events for their contests to be held on the 17th inst., and have extended the time of receiving entries until Saturday, the 12th. Great interest is being taken in the rope climb, which is a novelty in this city. Six entries have been received for it, and more promised. The fencing and wrestling are also catching on, there being six entries in the former and four (among them a younger brother of Eddie Reilly) in the latter. The jumps are both well filled and the large number of contestants assure a good evening's sport and some exciting contests.

The list of events now is as follows: Fencing with folis, wrestling 120 lbs, pole vault for height, rope climb, running high jump, running broad jump, boxing heavy-weight and boxing 148 lbs. As formerly announced a gold medal is offered for each event, and all amateurs are invited to compete. Entry blanks will be furnished by O. M. Coulter, Secretary E. E. G. Local Ball Club Directors Meet and Discuss Where They Shall Be, The directors of the local ball club held a meeting yesterday afternoon at Exposition Perk. The building of the 25-cent seats was discussed and it was decided to leave the matter entirely in the hands of the Ground ittee. After the meeting Vice Presi dent Kerr who is one of the above commit tee, stated that in all probability the new seats will be erected in deep center field and will seat 1,000 people. The matter will be definitely settled in a day or two. The di-rectors are anxious to afford the patrons of the club every convenience and comfort

Bierbauer is also in first-class trim and is the only player who has not been sore as a consequence of exercise. This is the result of his induiging in rowing considerably while at Erie. Miller is about all right again and stated

New Class for Scullers, Boston, March 9.—There is a strong feeling in favor of forming another class for senio oarsmen who have won their intermediate oarsmen who have won their intermediate race. This move will be a good thing for amateur scullers in Philadelphia, Pittsburg and other towns. In these sections there are several clever scullers who have tried the highest honors in the senior class, and although they row in faultiess style and train with great care, they are, nevertheless, badly handicapped in weight from competing with such men as Caffrey, Hedley, Hawkins, Bergen and Higgins. The plan now is to have four classes for scullers, as follows: Juniors, intermediaes, seniors and championships.

GETTING INTO FORM.

Beckley Plays a Great Game of Ball Out in Hor Springs, ARK., March 2.—[Special.]— The residents and visitors here were treated to a fine exhibition of ball playing to-day be-tween the Chicago club and a picked team of visiting professionals. Interest in the game did not lag for a moment, and the game did not lag for a moment, and the many pretty plays, especially three quick doubles by Fuller, McPhee and Beckley, caused a good amount of enthusiasm that was well merited. Beckley batted like a man who was used to winning pennants by the use of his big bat, as several terrific drives to the center fence and one long sky-scraper over it will testify. Ewing had little to do. McAleer played center in his old form, while Joyce's third base playing was grand. An amateur, named Glazener, succeeded in holding the Colts down to nine hits, and pitched a great game throughout. Both teams play again on Friday and the usual good crowd is expected. Score by innings:

Adam Schreiber, of Allegheny, has a pacer and a trotter that he intends to campaign this year. Mr. Schreiber is a popular horse-man and is determined to have a good horse man and is determined to have a good horse or two if money and effort will enable him to get them.

The pacer is a 6-year-old, named Red Hal by Tom Hal. He has shown a private trial of 2:23, although he failed to make a mark last year in a race. He is entered in a stake race at Independence, Ia., and will be entered in several races out West.

The other animal is a mare and has no mark. Mr. Schreiber intends to send her down the Grand Circuit and expects to see her doing well, as she has shown remarkable speed. The horses will be in charge of J. Smith, of Steubenville.

The British Blowers Still at It, TORONTO, March 9.-After his set-to with Slavin to-night Mitchell made a speech. He said he wanted to fight Sullivan for the $25,000 purse offered if such a match could be $25,000 purse offered if such a match could be arranged. He would meet Sullivan in any sized ring he might name, but it would have to be in a place where the best man could win and no favoritism would be shown. Slavin also spoke. He said he intended to defeat Peter Jackson when he met him in London. After that battle he will return to America to help Mitchell in getting ready to meet Sullivan. If, however, this fight falls through he declares his intention to challenge the Boston thumper at once.

Chartiers Will Withdraw. It was definitely stated yesterday that the Chartiers ball club will withdraw from the County League. This resolve has been arrived at because of lack of backing for the club. An effort will be made to get the Homestead club to take its place. If this cannot be done it is likely that Sewickley will be dropped.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 9.-The pool tour nament was continued to-night with two eries, one between DeOro, the present champion of the world, and Stewart, of Binghamton, and one between Clearwater, of Ravenna, O., and Manning. DeOro and Clearwater won their series with ease.

Frank Killen still declines to report at Washington. He would act wisely to go there at any rate and talk matters over. PRESIDENT HART, of the Chicago club, says that the great trouble in the Pfeffer case is the fact that Louisville does not want Pfeffer.

JAMES BORDER, the local ball player, states that he is not going to sign with the Missoula, Mont., club, and will Join one of the County League clubs. In a letter to a friend in this city President N. E. Young speaks highly of President Temple, of the local club, and thinks he will be a useful man in baseball. JOLIET has signed George A. Tom RYAN's manager says that Ryan wanted to go into the ring against Needham, sick as he was, but that wiser counsel prevailed. The Ryan party offered to make another match and bet $10.000 to $7,000 on their man, but Needham did not have the backing.
