ALLEGHENY MAGISTRATES.

The Ordinance Was Never Considered, but

Will Be Soon. At the next meeting of the Allegheny Fi nance Committee the sub-committee ap pointed last summer to draft an ordinance for the appointment of police magistrates will make its report. The subject has never been before Councils. The first bill drawn up by the sub-committee was found to be unsatisfactory to some, as the boundary lines of the police districts cut through sev-eral wards. Accordingly, another one will be drawn up and presented with the first, fixing the lines so that if there are five dis-tricts they will be as follows: First district, First and Second wards; Sec-ond district, Third and Fourth wards; Third district, Firth and Sixth wards; Fourth dis-trict, Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh wards; First district, Seventh, Eighth, Tweifth and Thirtreemth wards. been before Councils. The first bill drawn Fifth district, Seventh, Eighth, Twelfth and "Distreenth wards. If only three districts are made they will be: First district, the first six wards; Sec-ond district, Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh wards; Third district, Seventh, Eighth, Twelfth and Thirteenth wards. Chairman Lewis, of the sub-committee, is not in favor of the police magistrate idea. Last night he said: "I do not think the act of Assembly absolutely requires the appoint-ment of magistrates. In the first place they are not necessary in Allegheny. The Mayor can hear all the cases himself in half an hour and often less. They would also be a considerable expense, their salaries amount-ing to $4.700 a year. In addition, such a plan would necessitate the erection of several station houses."

FATHER LEEMING ON TEMPERANCE.

A Strong Lecture to a Large Audience at St Bridget's Church.

Rev. George Leeming, formerly of Sidney, Australia, lectured last night to a large nudience in St. Bridget's Church, Enoch street, on temperance. Father Leeming handled the subject in a thorough manne The audience paid the closest attention during the hour and a half occupied by the lec-turer. Among the many instances of the evils of strong drink cited by the gentleman was the argument of Gladstone, who said that if all the evils known to the world were put on the scales and all the sorrows and suffering caused by strong drink were put on the other side, it would overbalance all the other evils twice over. If a general marched to war with 306,000 men and re-turned with but 40,000, all the sorrow and suffering of the widows and orphans and of the wounded would not begin to compare with the suffering and the wrecked homes ecaused by rum. ing the hour and a half occupied by the lec

LOWER ST. CLAIR TOWNSHIP

Again Comes to the Front With a Shooting Affray.

Lower St. Clair township was the scene of a shooting affray late on Saturday night last, but just who the parties were the police were unable to find out.

The place where the shooting occurred The place where the shooting occurred was on Spring street, which is a short dis-tance outside the city line. The facts, so far as the police were able to learn them, are that late on Saturday night the men called at a house on Spring street and demanded admittance, as they desired to get a drink and the house, it is said, has the reputation of being a speak-casy. The proprietor was in an upstairs now afrom the place, he fired two shots. One of the bullets struck one of the men in the leg and he was carried away by his comparions.

As the shooting occurred outside the city limits the police did not act in the matter.

Not Exactly Prize Ring Rules.

Two cousins, George and Benjamin Grant, of Gazzam street, quarreled last evening over an old family trouble. They adjourned to the corner of Fifth avenue and Robison to the corner of Fifth avenue and Rouson street to fight it out. A ring was formed and a crowd gathered. Benjamin knocked his cousin down and bent him about the head with a stone. The crowd interfered and he ran. Later he was arrested by Detective Sterck. George was taken to the Fourteenth ward station in an unconscious condition.

their work was suspended soon after they began and has only been resumed within a short time. It is expected they will make their report inside the next ten days, and soon after it is presented to the court objec-tions will be filed and proceedings begun. A fund is being liberally subscribed by the Center avenue people and they intend to employ the best legal talent obtainable to follow the case to the Supreme Court.

The impression is general that the consumer will have to pay the bill. With the list of saloons increased and double the price charged for the privilege of selling, it is argued that the liquor will be adulterated to make up the additional cost. An Anti-Quay Candidate.
