

Chief would now on demand all the authority his office secured to him and that he would wage a bitter war politically on the reformers responsible for his arrest. The reformer was intimate that he would secure the arrest of those who had him arrested.

A Move Made at Midnight. At 12 o'clock last night when Captain Bell of the Allegheny police force, reported at the station to go off duty he found Superintendent Muth awaiting him, and in the presence of the officers present the Captain was notified of his suspension from duty, which, it is said, really means his dismissal.

Although He May Yet Decide to Tackle the City Bars, Too. Captain Bell's friends said last night that his case would be carried up to the Mayor and the fight would be stopped until they had either replaced the captain or exhausted all their forces.

RUDOLPH DISCHARGED. And Finney Held for a Further Hearing. A Resol. of the Recent Northside Primary Election—Quite a Large List of Witnesses.

Councilman George I. Rudolph and Charles Finney, of Allegheny, were given a hearing before Alderman Schellman last night, on the charges preferred against them by ex-Senator Rutan. Mr. Rudolph was charged with conspiracy, having, it was alleged, conspired with the members of the election board at the Republican primaries in the Third district of the Fifth ward, Allegheny, to procure a fraudulent election.

Select Councilman Lowe was the first witness called by the prosecuting attorney. He testified that on the evening of the election he had been chosen Minority Inspector and John Williams Majority Inspector. When he went to the polls, Williams was not there and he demanded his place on the board. Oliver and Finney refused to admit as a member of the board and would not have him. Rudolph was there and said he didn't know the witness had any right on the board and he couldn't serve.

William West testified to Rudolph attempting to get on the board and Oliver preventing him. Mr. Rudolph was there. The witness stood by the window all day and saw all the votes polled. He saw both Democrats and Republicans vote.

Jacob Reams said he went to the room in the schoolhouse about 9 o'clock, after the polls had closed. He did not know who made out the credentials for the delegates. Oliver, Rudolph and Finney were in the room. When they came out Oliver had the ballot box under his arm. They went to a saloon and from there Oliver went to his home and they all then went uptown. Rudolph was not there.

Charles Finney was placed on the stand, and after having been cautioned that he need not criminate himself, gave testimony in answer to questions. He had been appointed clerk by Oliver. He didn't hear Rudolph take part in the discussion about not letting Rudolph on the board. He did not know if any Democrats had been filed that day, as he could not see the window.

After several other witnesses had appeared Attorney J. N. Patterson then asked to have the case postponed for two weeks. He desired to do this because he had between the counsel the Alderman said he would discharge Mr. Rudolph and hold Mr. Finney for a further hearing. No time was fixed, and Mr. Rudolph went bail for Mr. Finney.

ALLEGHENY DIVES MUST GO. Alderman Braun Serves Notice on the Keepers in the First Ward. Alderman Braun intends to start a crusade against the disorderly places in the First ward of Allegheny. There are 20 of them within the ward precincts, and last evening he sent a notice to the proprietors requesting them to vacate by April 1, or he will prosecute them. Mr. Braun said he was not making the move on his own responsibility. A petition had been presented to him, signed by 60 respectable people, asking him to move against the keepers of these houses for violating the liquor and other laws. The Alderman said he could proceed at once, but he preferred to give the people a chance to get out. He added that no suits would be compromised, and they would be sent to court.

Chief Murphy and Assistant Superintendent Muth said the police would not interfere with the work of reform. There is no sympathy between the department and the proprietors. Chief Murphy remarked that a record of all disorderly places is kept for the benefit of the public.

Raiding Lawrenceville Speakeasies. The police are making war on speakeasies that have been flourishing for some months in the Lawrenceville district. Five were raided yesterday on warrants issued by Police Magistrate Jacob Ehrlich.

John Castello was the first victim. His place is on Forty-eighth street, near the railroad, and has been the cause of many complaints. Mrs. O'Brien, at Forty-eighth street and Blackhawk street; Mrs. Forts, of Hatfield street; Mrs. Winters, of Forty-eighth and Vine streets, and Mrs. Schagawa, of Forty-first street, were the others. Mrs. Winters gave the officers a bottle. All but Mrs. Schagawa were locked up, but she was sick in bed and her son furnished bond for a hearing. The police say there are several other speakeasies in that section, and they will capture them as quickly as possible.

A Peculiar Rent Dispute. There was an animated law suit before Judge Grigg yesterday afternoon. A lady named Bridge rented the fourth floor of No. 104 Federal street, and there established a dancing academy. According to allegation the pupils noticed cracks in the walls and became afraid to attend school. Mrs. Bridge took counsel as to the condition of the structure and the Department of Public Safety pronounced the building unsafe to stand the vibrations consequent in dancing. The tenant thereupon vacated and refuses to pay rent for the two and a half months the floor was occupied by her. She also says the building was not properly heated. Decision rendered.

He Refused to Live at Home. Coroner McDowell held an inquest yesterday into the death of John Zieler, 22 years of age, who died at midnight on Sunday at the workhouse. A verdict of death from consumption was rendered. Zieler had been committed to the institution by Mayor Voegtly, of Allegheny, February 25, on a charge of vagrancy. His parents live in Spring Garden borough, but he refused to live with them, and loafed about Allegheny, sleeping in stables and outbuildings, where he was occupied by her. He also said the disease that caused his death.

Appeals From County Valuation. The County Commissioners yesterday heard appeals from the assessments in the Twenty-first and Twenty-fifth wards. The wards the assessors returns showed a large increase, and the Commissioners added nothing. There were a number of appeals, but none of special interest.
