PRICES ARE TENDING LOWER.

The Lumber Trade Is Dull and Hemlock Quotations Have Been Cut.

TANKEE INVENTIONS IN ENGLAND

OFFICE OF THE DISPATCH, PITTSBURG, TUESDAY, March 15. The bark question is one of interest to all manufacturers of leather, and in an indirect way to all consumers of the same. Prices of bark last season were about the highest on record, chestnut oak reaching to $10 00 to $10 50 per cord and hemlock to $7 00 and $7 50 per cord. Under the stimulus of high prices unusually large quantities were peeled last season, until supplies became so large that a reaction followed, and prices have been on the decline for the past few months. Allegheny tanners are more heavily stocked up with bark that they have been these many years. The majority are better stocked than they ordinarily are in August or September. As a result prices are now 50c to $1 00 per cord less than at this time last year.

A year ago chestnut oak bark was selling at $10 to $10 50 percord, and now the price is $9 to $9 50. Hemlock is now slow at $6 50 to $7, a decline of 50c from prices of a year ago. The business of peeling was overdone last season, and this season we are having the natural reaction. Large quantities of last year's peel are being pressed on to markets. The bark peeling time usually begins about the beginning of April and continues to June 1. As old stock is still on hand in larger quantity than usual, it is plain that the new peel will be curtailed.

Lumber and Bark. Lumber is in close sympathy with bark, and when the former is dull, as it has been all the past year, bark never fails to follow suit. Bark is but a small factor in the value of a tree, and hence with lumber a drug, the bark supply is likely to be very much curtailed the present season. The bullock is not slaughtered for the hide, but for the meat, and so the tree is not cut down for the bark, but for the wood, and as long as lumber drags bark cannot be brisk.

The movement in lumber is slow. Mills are not buying freely for good and sufficient reasons, namely, the large amount of carried over stock and the uncertainties of the future. Hemlock lumber is particularly future. Hemlock lumber is particularly dull at a reduction of 50 cents per thousand from prices which prevailed in the early part of the year. The rates for 2½ to 3 inch sizes are $10.00 to $10.50 per thousand. White pine lumber is also dull, with a range of $14.00 for common, up to $50.00 for uppers. Well seasoned hard woods are firm at the same prices as prevailed for the year past.

Green stock is very slow at a decline of $1 00 to $1 50 per thousand in the past few weeks. White oak has the lend in hard wood lines and cherry and poplar come next in order of demand. Common white oak well seasoned is in fair demand at $16 00 to $20 00 per thousand, and wagon oak at $25 00. Cherry is scarce and sells at a range of $40 00 to $70 00. Clear dry pop-lar is in good demand at $25 00 and culls at about one-half price.

Yankee Inventions Abroad. The London correspondent of the Chicago Hide and Leather has the tollowing in the current issue:

We still continue to look to American inventors for the best finishing machinery. Messrs. Pearson & Benrion, of Leicester, have just secured the agency for an American triple reel-burnisher which is said to be the best machine of its kind in the world. Great credit is certainly due to the makers of boot and shoe machinery in the United States for the ever increasing number of states for the ever increasing number of improvements and specialties they are constantly bringing before the trade. We, for our part, are anxious to adopt them as quickly as our American cousins. In fact, the British boot and shoe manufacturers are leaving no stone unturned to keep abreast of the times.

American leather continues to keep well to the front in our markets. In 1890 the import of foreign leather into Great Britain was $31,701.400, and in 1891, $33,246,690; these are the highest figures ever reached, and out of this total the greater part was from the United States. The sales of American leather have followed overty closely those of United States. The sales of American leather have followed pretty closely those of the home product; supplies having been just about enough to meet the demand.

THE MARKET BEARISH.

Reports From Chicago Show a Very Drpressing Fffect on Wheat Prospects, to the Great Discouragement of the Bulis -Rye Also Deficient-Provisions Higher. CHICAGO-There were a number of very earish factors in the market to-day and these, taken in connection with the generally discouraged feeling among holders, had a very depressing effect on values. There were only a few points which could be made to favor the bulls and they produced very little effect. Perhaps the Government's compilation of the wheat crop of the world in 1891, which was published this morning, was about the most discouraging piece of news. This report makes the wheat crop of the world last year nearly 35,000,000 bushels in excess of that of 1890 and, in fact, the largest ever reported, being 11,000,000 bushels in excess of the crop of 1887, heretofore the largest. The effect of this on those who have been bulling the market on the alleged deficiency in last year's crop was most disheartening.

Of course, this report makes no mention of rye, which is universally admitted to be very deficient, and therefore it is claimed does not fairly represent the situation as to breadstuffs: still it was regarded as very bearish. Another very weak factor was the enormous increase in the amount of wheat and flour on ocean passage, which shows an increase of 3 528,000 bushels during the week and indicates that other countries than America are making large shipments.

Cables were all lower, particularly Paris advices, which noted a decline of 263% c per bushel. This was attributed to financial troubles there, where and at St. Petersburg bank failures were reported. On top of all this, while the weather was cold all over the wheat belt, the plant was reported as generally protected by snow. There were some straggling reports of damage by freezing. About the only favorable news was the report that the English visible snapply decreased 1400 bushels last week and the liberal export movement. The flour exports continue large, over 90,000 barrels having been cleared from the seaboard yesterday.

Holders showed much discouragement and there was free liquidation in some quarters both by local professionals and for outside account. On the break there was apparently some investment buying, but the chief demand was to cover shorts. A good deal of wheat was sold at 85c and below. The lowest price touched during the season was recorded and the close was weak, though somewhat better than bottom figures. May opened with sales at 85%c and 85%c, soon rold at 85%c, then railied to 86%c, weak-ned and sold off to 85c, and sold at close at 85%c, soon rold at 65c at the close yesterday. The local feeling continues bearish and there was a dood deal of long corn for sale and generous shorts celling.

The situation in corn was also favorable for the bears and they used their advantage.

was a dood deal of long corn for sale and generous short selling.

The situation in corn was also favorable for the bears and they used their advantage. May opened 39%633%c, weakened to 39%c, created with wheat to 39%c, but weakened with it again and closed steady at 39%c, a loss of %c.

Oats were dull and easy, closing with a loss of %c.

Provisions started with a show of weakers on account of the heavy receipts and ness on account of the heavy receipts and lower prices for hogs, but grew strong and advanced mainly on free covering by chorts, and there was some reaction. The close shows slight advances over yesterday's last curvations.

The statement repeatedly made, but always important, that realty is cheaper in Pittsburg than in any other city in the country, is backed by solid facts.

A recent sale in Cincinnati was at the rate of $70 a square foot. This beats the best sale here by nearly $10. The Manhattan Life Insurance Company has purchased Nos. 24 to 28 Broadway, New York, for $1,000,000, and will improve it with a 14-story building. The lot has a frontage of 67 feet and a depth of 125 feet. The price paid is equivalent to $15,000 a front foot, or a trifle over $120 a square foot.

Impressions of the Northwest,

A gentleman just back from a business trip to the Northwest said yesterday: "They have had so many real estate booms in that part of the country that business has been overdone. Almost every town of any importance has been oversold and overbuilt. I was astonished at the number of vacant houses in Chicago and St. Paul. I wish we bad several hundred of them in Pittsburg, where it is almost impossible to house all

"Superior City, at the extreme western end of Lake Superior, is more like Pittsburg in a business point of view than any other place I visited. It is remarkably vigorous and is growing beyond precedent in that quarter. It sustains nearly 150 industrial concerns. It is the headquarters of the American Steel Barge Company, the builders of the famous whaleback vessels."

ONLY FOUR FEATURES.

READING, SUGAR, NEW ENGLAND AND RICHMOND SHARES

The Rest of the Stock Market Lifeless-No Disposition to Realize - The Weakness in Sugar Affects the Entire Market-Railroad Bonds Stagnant.

New York, March 15.-The continued liminution in the amount of business done, and the marked restriction of the dealing to a few stocks, which are affected by particu-lar circumstances, indicates the growing apathy of the general public to the fluctuations in the stock market, and duliness is fast becoming the most important characteristic of the trading from day to day. The professionals are again left to make quotations for the moment, and all the larger interests seem to have withdrawn from the market for the time being. There is, however, no disposition, even on the part of the smaller bulls, to realize on their holdings, but every advance causes some selling. To-day Reading, Sugar, New England and Richmond and West Point England and Richmond and West Point were the only active features, and the important fluctuations were very few outside of these four stocks.

The general list was dull throughout the session and absolutely barren of special feature, and after a stendy opening the weakness in Sugar affected the market to the extent that slight fractional losses from the opening figures were the rule. Later in the day, however, the upward movement in the Coalers, which sent Lackawanna and Jersey Central up over ½ per cent, effected a recovery in the rest of the market, and the final changes are in almost every case entirely insignifithe rest of the market, and the final changes are in almost every case entirely insignificant. The close was dull, but steady to firm at close to last night's figures. The only important changes comprise a loss of 1½ in Sugar, while Tennessee Coal is up 4 per cent and New England I.

The total sales of stocks to-day were 295,-617 shares, including Atchison, 3.023; Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, 4,000; Northwestern, 8,831; New England, 17,910; Reading, 129,560; Richmond and West Point, 33,825; St. Paul, 7,000; Western Union, 4,390.

The railroad bond market, like that in stocks, was saved from utter stagnation by the activity in the Richmond and West Point 5s, which furnished $555,000 out of a total $1,823,000. These bonds, however, failed to make any material movement, being held to make any material movement, being held within a small fraction of last night's price throughout, while the rest of the list acted in the same manner. Final changes are, therefore, insignificant, even among the leading active issues. The close was quiet and firm.

Signs of a Stronger Market Are Detected Here and There.

Views of money lenders wear many hues, but are generally favorable. One says: "The ease of money has stimulated trading and the readiness with which we have been able to ship gold has given an element of strength to the market, for it has encouraged foreign buying and checked selling and at the same time given an activity to our own market which would be incompatible with any feeling of uncertainty."

Another observes: "There is a better feeling in regard to financial matters. The prospect of diminishing gold exports and increasing merchandise exports is regarded favorably." A third remarks: "The outward movement of gold appears to have ceased for the present, but the late stiffening tendency of the foreign exchanges is a warning of the possible renewal of shipments."

A HUMANE SOCIETY PROTEST

Against Using Wagons in the Present Condition of Some Roads.

Petroleum development has about come to a standstill, on account of the bad condition of the roads. On Monday a teamster started out and broke the leg of one of his horses in a chuck hole. This accident coming to the attention of the Humane Society, one of its agents made an investigation, and was so strongly impressed with the cruelty imposed on norses by putting them on the roads that he ordered wagon transportation to cease under penalty of prosecution, and Mr. McCready, an operator, said he was glad of it, as the struggles of the brutes were painful to contemplate, and there was no profit in operations conducted under such circumstances.

The action of the Humane Society in this instance is suggestive of a reform in road making Grand juries have in some counties indicted road supervisors for neglect of duty, but apparently without accomplishing much good; but if thoughtless or greedy citizens are prosecuted for cruelty in forcing horses over yawning chasms where only chamois can travel in safety, it may have the effect of making them do something for their own profit. At present the crafty granger, in collusion with the supervisor, shoulders a long-handled shovel in the fall of the year, and digging out the ditches, throws the earth on the road, and when the floods descend the road in a few hours is infinitely worse than it would be if no work at all were done on it. Such management is not only wasteful and idiotic but absolutely Tropical fruits are on the advance. Faney Florids oranges are very scarce. Malaga grapes are practically out for this season. The few to be had are in the hands of retailers. The supply of in the hands of retailers. The supply of new maple syrup is in excess of the demand, and prices are reduced. It has not occurred for many years that new maple syrup has started out at such low figures as it has this season. The low price of sugar has no doubt had much to do with the cheapness of home made sweetening. Clover seed is firm and active at the sharp advance already noted, and some dealers anticipate a still further advance.
