

NO TARIFF SPEECH

Hill Abstains From Free Trade Talk in the Iron Center of the South.

THE GLORY OF HIS PARTY

And Its Doctrine of State Rights Now the Burden of His Song.

ALLIANCE MEN URGED TO RETURN.

The Senator Pledges New York's Vote for the Chicago Nominee.

ATLANTA TO-DAY'S OBJECTIVE POINT

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 16.—The Democrats of Birmingham were astir at an early hour this morning.

A Warm Southern Greeting.

This forenoon a committee of nine leading citizens, headed by Colonel Hewitt and a delegation of the Irish club, escorted Senator Hill and his party to the Opera House.

The Past of the Democratic Party.

I know there are those of this generation who seem to think that all the glory and greatness of this country has taken place since the war.

It was in Jefferson's inaugural address that he laid down the essential principles of Democracy.

It was in Jefferson's inaugural address that he laid down the essential principles of Democracy. He declared certain principles to be the essential ones of our Government.

Banking on the Constitution.

The Democratic party has always believed, and now believes, in a strict construction of the Federal Constitution.

American Policy as a Catch-Word.

They believe with us, in many respects, as to the currency question, if not in detail.

They believe with us, in many respects, as to the currency question, if not in detail. Why do they allow themselves to drift into other parties and frustrate the success of the Democratic party?

THOUSANDS OF THEM.

Pittsburg's Lovers of Animals Rush to the Dog Show in Force.

FAIR VISITORS ARE NUMEROUS.

Features of the Exhibition That Are of Special Interest.

THE LONG LIST OF AWARDS ANNOUNCED

The second day of the dog show was attended by well up to 10,000 people, and as much, if not more, canine music than the first day.

Adored by the Fair Ones.

It was not an uncommon sight to see a richly dressed lady gently caressing the head of a huge St. Bernard or an ugly pug and pouring loving epithets upon it.

Two Railroads Made One.

The Deal Expected for Several Days Takes Place in the Consideration of the Richmond Terminal and Richmond and Danville Railroads.

New York, March 16.—Important meetings of the Richmond Terminal and Richmond and Danville Railroads were held today, and the developments which have been expected for sometime transpired.

After these changes had been made, the report of the Reorganization Committee was read and adopted. It provides for the formation of a new company, to be known as the "Southern Railway Company."

AGAINST GOVERNMENT BONDS.

Union Musicians Do Not Want to Play in Their Company.

New York, March 16.—At the session of the National League of Musicians this morning the chief discussion was relative to a resolution proposed by Henry Platte, of Denver, that the National League order its members to refuse to participate in all parades and demonstrations and the trial of the Knights Templar.

BULLDOZERS CALLED ON TO HALT.

They Run Against a Snag in Their Efforts to Drive Men Away.

New Orleans, March 16.—[Special.]—Some excitement has been created in Sillville, in St. Tammany Parish, La., by the efforts of certain men employed in the lumber mills of that town to force all non-resident laborers away from there.

THE FIRE RECORD.

At Louisville, Neb., the entire business section of the city was destroyed by fire.

At St. Louis, the car stables of the Missouri Electric Railroad Company were destroyed by fire.

TALKING FOR TIME.

Republican Senators to Try to Force a Vote on Judge Woods' Case.

SALISBURY MUST SOON SPEAK.

Uncle Sam Wants to Know What's to Be Done in Bering Sea.

A SUCCESSFUL TEST OF CELLULOSE

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Just before the Senate adjourned this afternoon, Senator Hoar, who has charge of the pending judicial nominations, gave notice to his Republican friends, in executive session, that he wanted them all to be on hand to-morrow, as he proposed to try and force a vote on the confirmation of Judge Woods.

Judge Woods' nomination will be confirmed, without doubt. That the allegation made against Judge Woods has been less sensational than was expected, although it is said Senator Voorhees and Turpie have held back many of their strongest statements, hoping that the doors of the Senate might be thrown open and their utterances given to the public.

NOT A STEERING CONCERN.

The Democratic Caucus Committee Organizing for Political Work Purely.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—[Special.]—Thus far only 13 names have been handed to the Chairman of the Democratic Caucus Committee for assignment to duty on the Congressional Campaign Committee.

GAS MEN KICKING.

Against World's Fair Discrimination in Favor of Electric Lighting.

COLUMBUS, March 16.—The Ohio Gaslight Association, in session here to-day with 150 members present, endorsed the action of Eastern gas associations in resolving to use their influence to prevent the $5,000,000 Government loan to the World's Fair unless the World's Fair Commission deals more fairly with the gas people.

SALISBURY MUST SPEAK OUT.

Uncle Sam Wants to Know What Is to Be Done About Bering Sea.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Acting Secretary Wharton was to-day instructed to inform Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British Minister, that the President desires to know, as early a date as possible, the intention of the British Government with respect to the proposed renewal of the modus vivendi of last year for the preservation of the seal fisheries pending the settlement by arbitration of the question of the jurisdictional rights of the United States in Bering Sea.

MADE FAMOUS IN A DAY.

A Young Congressman Wins His Spurs With One Tariff Speech.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—[Special.]—William Jennings Bryan, the young Democratic leader from Nebraska, who Speaker Crisp placed on the Ways and Means Committee against the protest of a large element of the House, distinguished himself to-day by making the "star" speech of the present session on the tariff question.

HALF A YEAR'S ADLETS.

Total for six months, ending February 29, 1922, 30,476. Same period for the year previous, 24,085. Increase, 6,391.

THE DISPATCH'S CENT-A-WORD COLUMNS.

CHOICE PROPERTIES.

RARE OPPORTUNITY. For Sale—One of the best hotel locations in the Eastern Ohio situated on river bank, at railroad terminals and steamboat landing in a town of 12,000 inhabitants and center for five railroads.

DON'T READ BARGAINS.

ARE IN THE REAL ESTATE MARKET TO-DAY AS ARE NOW OFFERED BY KELLY & ROGERS, 6226 PENN AVE., E. E.

500 FEET FRONTAGE.

On a 60-foot street. THREE MINUTES OF ELECTRIC ROAD, SURROUNDED BY FINE DWELLINGS. Price $37 50 Per Foot Front.

$8,750. SHADYSIDE LOT 12x130.

New brick house of 13 rooms, handsomely papered throughout. Parlor, dining room, reception hall and kitchen on first floor, four bedrooms and bath on second floor and four rooms on third floor; stable on rear of lot, and row of nice shade trees on front; is offered at this exceptionally low price of $8,750.

CHEAPEST PROPERTY ELEVENTH WARD.

98 feet on Center avenue and 92 feet on White avenue and 125 feet deep, near Duval street; modern house 16 rooms; can be subdivided and ten houses built on it.

DAVID SHAW & CO., PURCHASERS.

Corner lot, 50x120, and handsome modern house, 8 rooms; all conveniences and improvements; street is paved and sewerage; is offered at this exceptionally low price of $6,500.

LIGGETT BROS., FOR SALE.

The material in the 11 3-story houses now on property known as the Leonard estate, to be occupied by the Home & Co's new hotel, corner Fifth and Penn aves., is almost as good as new, and parties contemplating erecting a hotel or tenement would find it profitable in purchasing the materials as they stand, and rebuilding in some other locality.

BUSINESS SITE.

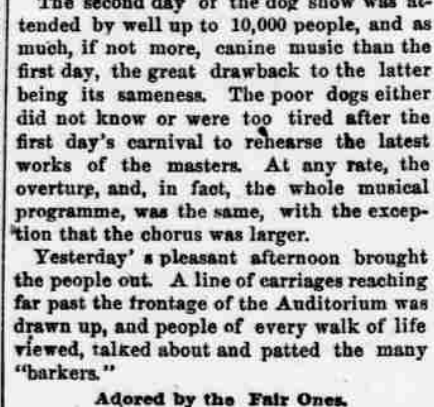

With railroad switch, situated in best part of Allegheny City; will be withdrawn if not sold before April 1.

THE IRVINGTON.

On the beach. Improved by the addition of new electric billiard parlors, sun parlors, filtered water. Service first-class.

HOTEL WELLINGTON.

Ocean End of Kentucky avenue, Atlantic City, N. J. New beach. Heated throughout with steam. Home-like. J. W. CALLAWAY.

One of the Aristocrats.

Bell's Fascination won a box of cigars donated by Alexander Wilson & Co. for the best dog shown.

Beagles, Terriers, Pups.

Beagles—W. E. Sherns, fine thermometer for best dog to be shown.

Fox terriers—Kannel prize to John E. Thayer, of Boston, for best four shown.

Irish terriers—Dunmurry won $5 prize by Sir Dunmurry, of W. J. Constock.

Whittos—Campbell & Blake's Tip, silk umbrella by James H. Alken for best dog.

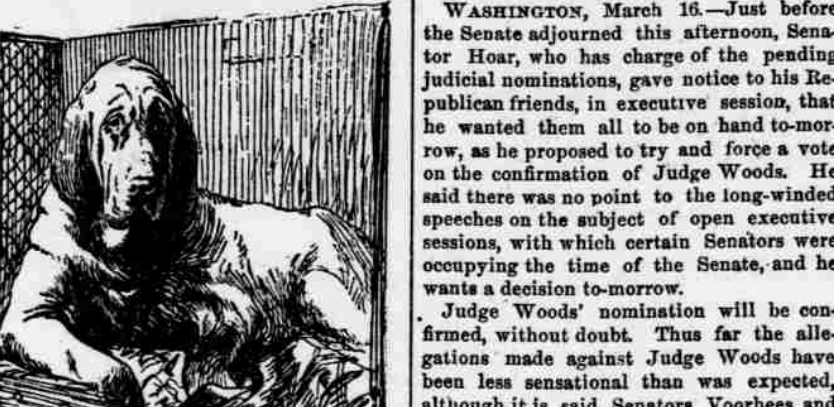

The Great Big Pets. St. Bernards—The Duchess kennel, owned by Colonel Jacob Ruppert, of New York, was awarded the kennel prize of $300 offered by the Duquesne Club for the best four or more rough-coated St. Bernards.

English setters—The Stroup challenge trophy, valued at $100 to Albert's Kelly, trophy, valued at $100 to Albert's Kelly, trophy, valued at $100 to Albert's Kelly.

A Favorite Expression.

must be won three years consecutively at the Duquesne Club show to be held by an individual at property. The Rockingham kennels won the kennel prize of $300 by the Duquesne Club for the best kennel of four or more. Harry Northwood's Wordley Dade won the $100 offered by Frank Denny for best dog never shown before.

One of the Aristocrats.

Bull terriers—John Moorhead, Jr., won kennel prize, $10 for best five dogs shown.

Black and tan terriers—Broomfield Sultans, owned by Rochelle kennel, thermometer for best dog shown.

Blacks—The Illinois kennels won kennel prize of $100 for best four dogs shown, offered by the Duquesne Club.

Boxers—The Illinois kennels won kennel prize of $100 for best four dogs shown, offered by the Duquesne Club.

Boxers—The Illinois kennels won kennel prize of $100 for best four dogs shown, offered by the Duquesne Club.

Boxers—The Illinois kennels won kennel prize of $100 for best four dogs shown, offered by the Duquesne Club.

Boxers—The Illinois kennels won kennel prize of $100 for best four dogs shown, offered by the Duquesne Club.

Boxers—The Illinois kennels won kennel prize of $100 for best four dogs shown, offered by the Duquesne Club.

Boxers—The Illinois kennels won kennel prize of $100 for best four dogs shown, offered by the Duquesne Club.

Boxers—The Illinois kennels won kennel prize of $100 for best four dogs shown, offered by the Duquesne Club.

Boxers—The Illinois kennels won kennel prize of $100 for best four dogs shown, offered by the Duquesne Club.

Boxers—The Illinois kennels won kennel prize of $100 for best four dogs shown, offered by the Duquesne Club.

Boxers—The Illinois kennels won kennel prize of $100 for best four dogs shown, offered by the Duquesne Club.

Boxers—The Illinois kennels won kennel prize of $100 for best four dogs shown, offered by the Duquesne Club.

Boxers—The Illinois kennels won kennel prize of $100 for best four dogs shown, offered by the Duquesne Club.

Boxers—The Illinois kennels won kennel prize of $100 for best four dogs shown, offered by the Duquesne Club.

Boxers—The Illinois kennels won kennel prize of $100 for best four dogs shown, offered by the Duquesne Club.

Boxers—The Illinois kennels won kennel prize of $100 for best four dogs shown, offered by the Duquesne Club.