

IRON

A Ray of Hope to Be Seen in Sales Made This Week.

SLABS AND BILLETS ADVANCED.

Why Furnaces Are Not Favoring a General Shutdown.

REPORTS FROM ALL TRADE CENTERS

PHOTO OF THE DISPATCH, PITTSBURGH, FRIDAY, MARCH 18. RAW IRON AND STEEL.—The past week has shown no improvement in values, but the fact that there was no further decline is certainly a good sign.

Southern Iron Selling Low Here. The Southern furnaces report says: "Made some large sales at extremely low prices, for present and future deliveries."

STILL DULL AT BIRMINGHAM.

Not a Bit of Improvement as Yet in Prices of Iron and Steel. The iron market has not improved, the following quotations in c. b. at the furnace...

Furnaces Will Not Be Banked.

Notwithstanding that overproduction is credited with all the ills growing out of the low price of iron and steel a careful examination shows that the market is firm with a liberal demand; sales large.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

CATTLE.—Receipts, 1,008 head; shipments, 788 head; market slow; all through consignments; no cattle shipped to New York to-day.

PRETTY BLUE AT CHICAGO.

Chicago, March 18.—(Special.)—Rogers, Brown & Merwin say: The general situation here is even less encouraging than was the case a week ago, and so great care must be taken to hold at any price.

CITY REAL ESTATE.

LOSE THEIR LAMP POWER TO BULL. Ten Hillside Lots Change Hands for Immediate Improvement.

WHAT THE BUILDERS ARE DOING.

A Spanish Gentleman Purchases a Home in the East End District.

SEVERAL LARGE DEALS ON THE STRING.

A number of investors are showing their faith in hillside property by their work. One of these, Mr. Thomas Shannon, yesterday practically concluded negotiations for a block of ten hillside lots in the Soho district.

Special Features Touched Up.

Block & Baird sold yesterday a stone house in Boulevard Place to G. Duque Estrada, a Spanish gentleman of some distinction, who is building a home in this city.
