AUCTION SALE,

AUCTION SALE 50 HEAD OF HORSES!

The undersigned will-offer at public auction, at the stables of William Long, No. 193
First avenue, Pittsburg, Pa., on THURS-DAY, March 24, commencing at 12:30 o'clock, 30 head of A No. 1 horses, comprising some good drivers, all-purpose, business and extra good draft horses; also a good high grade stallion, 5 years old, color black, a good individual and stock horse. The purchasers of these horses, Meesra. Cleaver and Dunkin, are practical men of long experience, close buyers, and residents of the section of country where the horses were bought. They are the same parties who made sale at the stable of William Charters, Ohio st., Aliegheny, about two weeks ago, and who gave universal satisfaction. A guarantee of two days is given with each horse, and all money, checks and notes will be held by Mr. Scully cashler of the Diamond National Bank, who is known to be an honorable gentleman, until guarantee expires.

to be an honorable gentleman, until guarantee expires.

This stock has been selected with great care and especially for this market, as we wish to prove to the people that they are as age in buying at auction as at private sale, and quick sales and small profits we think is the secret of success in the horse business, and we intend to try to build up a trade of that kind, and we hope the purchasers of horses in and around Pittsburg and Allegheny will continue the liberal patronage already extended us. No postponement on account of weather. CLEAVER DUNKIN & LONG. A. J. BONER, of Buffalo, N. Y.; A. W. CUMMINS, of Washington, Pa., auctioneers. Telephone No. 198.
