

FORAKER'S FIGHTERS.

Sherman Men Trap Them Into Making a Questionable Record by VOTING DOWN A POPULAR BILL.

The Kilkenny Contest Among Ohio Republicans Still Goes On.

PARDON FOR THE BEAVER EDITORS.

Special Telegram to the Dispatch.

COLUMBUS, March 22.—The time in both branches of the Legislature was taken up today in consideration of measures for the reorganization of Columbus. The point of interest was that the Senatorial lines were closely drawn in the House and a bill defeated which proposed a division of the city into five districts for the election of a Board of Control. The measure would have given four Republican members and one Democrat, but this was not satisfactory to the Foraker faction in the city and State, and they defeated the bill, voting against it with two exceptions. The Sherman men have placed a man in the position which they desired, and that is the responsibility of having defeated the measure. The Foraker men had an arrangement by which the Probate Judge, who is a Foraker man, could appoint a board which would as once give them the control of the city and its public works. They had gone so far as to have picked out the members of the new board, three of whom have scarcely gained a residence in the city and who came here from Cleveland, Akron and Columbus. They are men whom the people do not know and who would have no chance at a popular election, such as that proposed in the bill, which they defeated in the House. The defeat of the bill was accomplished by having a bill introduced in the Senate earlier in the day, giving the Probate Judge power to appoint. When the measure came up in the House the Foraker men, including some of the Senate members, rushed into the House and announced to members that a measure had been agreed upon by the two factions, and if they would kill the House bill, that in the Senate would be passed at once. By this means several votes were secured against the House bill, which otherwise would not have gone that way. The result of the day's work is that the city, which was gerrymandered and reorganized by the Foraker men, will remain in their control, and the Foraker and Sherman factions will go on with their fight which promises to be long and bitter to the Democrats of the State in the coming election, both State and national.

PARDON FOR THE BEAVER EDITORS.

COUNSEL FOR MELLON AND PORTER PLEAD BEFORE THE PARDON BOARD.

HARRISBURG, March 22.—The first case heard by the Board of Pardon to-day was that of Editors Mellon and Porter, of the Beaver Star, serving a one-month term in jail for libelling Senator Quay. E. R. Dougherty, Louis W. Reed and Robert Ritchie appeared for the prisoners and pleaded adequately for their release. They claimed that the ends of justice had been satisfied, the prisoners did not intend any malice, and if they are compelled to serve out their sentence their health will be seriously affected and their business ruined. It is stated that the Court itself had said that had there been a retraction the sentence would have been lighter, and that was told one of the counsel for the convicted men, who did not tell it to his fellow counsel, and, consequently, Mellon and Porter did not hear it. The letter of Judge Wickham asking clemency was read, and the Board took the papers. The Board of Pardon had an executive session to-night and announced decisions in several cases. Only one pardon was recommended—in the case of John A. Mellon and William H. Porter, the Beaver Star publishers.

A Beer Seller's County Mistake.

NEW CASTLE, March 22.—[Special.]—Conrad Reicht was convicted of selling liquor without a license in this county. Reicht is a teamster, and Jacob Cline, a brewer in Beaver county, hired him to drive a brewery wagon. Reicht drove into Lawrence county without knowing he had crossed the Beaver line, and sold two kegs in this county. The court, in sentencing him to-day, stated that the circumstances of the case were to be deplored, but that there was no other way than for the court to pass sentence. Reicht was sentenced to pay the costs of his prosecution, a fine of $500 and undergo imprisonment in the county jail for three months.

Why Mansfield, O., Is in Darkness.

MANSFIELD, O., March 22.—[Special.]—This city is in darkness to-night, and the prospects are that it will be until the City Council and the Aro Electric Light Company arrive at some agreement relative to lighting the streets. The contract expired on the 20th, and to-day the Council notified the light company that they will not be responsible for street lighting until a contract is signed. The company has asked for an advance of $100 per month over the old contract, and Council refused to pay it.

Allegheny Wins at Checkers.

WASHINGTON, Pa., March 22.—[Special.]—A great checker match took place here this evening at the room of the Young Men's Christian Association, between a representative team from Allegheny and the local players—Messrs. Benny, Barr, Otterson, Johnson and G. A. for Allegheny, and Messrs. Gibson, Leslie, Hull, Straub and John Hill for Washington. The following is the result: Allegheny, 31 wins; Washington, 12 wins; drawn, 7.

A Colored Virago Fenned Up.

GREENSBORO, March 22.—[Special.]—Blanche Russell, a comely colored girl from Sutersville, was committed to jail here this morning. The people in the house had been drinking hard last night, and during a quarrel Blanche struck a sharp case knife into an old Polish woman's back, inflicting a probably fatal wound. The would-be murderer, when her hand was fixed in the bloody state of intoxication and completely terrorized the jail-keepers for a short time.

A Street Car Muddle at McKeesport.

McKESSPORT, March 22.—[Special.]—This city has a street railway fight on hand. The McKeesport and Reynoldston Electric line wants the right of way over different streets to make extensions. The Union Passenger Railway Company wants the right of way over the same streets to build a new line. Both have ordinances that have passed the Railroad Committee and are ready for the action of Common Council.

A Possible Arm of the Third Party.

TOLDO, March 22.—[Special.]—The Executive Committee of the Patrons of Industry of America assembled here to-day, prior to the annual convention, which commences here to-morrow. Their session was secret. Delegates will be here to-morrow from every State in the Union. It is expected that political action of some kind will be taken.

Boarded a Train to Suicide.

ALTOONA, March 22.—[Special.]—At Spruce Creek, near here, this evening a young man boarded the Altoona accommodation train. Suddenly he drew a revolver from his pocket, and placing the muzzle at his forehead, fired. He was only able to give his name as Graham, and his residence as Middleburg, this State, before he died.

He Saved His Wife and Will Die.

PONTSNECK, O., March 22.—Joseph Simcox, a prominent citizen, was fatally burned this evening in endeavoring to save his wife, who had attempted to kindle fire with kerosene. He tore her burning clothes away, inhaled the fire, and now physicians expect his death at any moment. The wife was not seriously burned.

The Coach Rolled Into a Ditch.

DELLAHE, March 22.—[Special.]—A passenger coach on the Dellahe, Zanesville and Cincinnati Railroad, jumped the track a few miles south of here last night and rolled into a ditch. The car was filled with people returning from the city. The train was not running very fast at the time, and no one was seriously hurt.

Forged His Way Everywhere.

NEWARK, O., March 22.—[Special.]—Chief Inspector Byrnes, of New York, telegraphs what William Walters, in jail here for forgery, has been passing forged checks all over the United States, and wires Marshal Griffith if he can have him.

Four $1,000 bonds of Bridgeport, O., have been stolen. Miss Lowry, a New Castle paralytic, has spent 20 years in bed.

Blair county Republicans instructed their delegates for Harrison. L. B. Crisply, a Beaver Falls real estate agent, has been taken to Dixmont. Two children of Prof. Johnson, of Geneva College, Beaver, have died of scarlet fever.

George Bowers, a McKeesport telegraph operator, was stricken dumb and powerless while at his instrument Sunday. He is lying at the point of death. Herbert H. Conrad, of Pittsburg, and Miss Lettie C. Reinecke, of Allegheny, were married at Canton, O., Monday night. They left for Pittsburg at 5 o'clock.

L. T. Allen, of Portsmouth, O., who claims to be a farmer, on his way to Pittsburg, was nabbed and robbed of $20 in Steubenville Monday night by two strangers.

FIRE IN THE CAPITOL.

Fifteen Thousand Dollars' Worth of Public Documents Destroyed.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—A fire occurred in the folding room of the House of Representatives about 7 o'clock this evening and destroyed a large number of public documents, mostly agricultural reports and memorial addresses, which had been prepared for mailing to different parts of the country. The fire department was promptly on hand, and soon had the fire under control. In accomplishing this the office and corridors, which were closely packed with documents, were flooded with water to the depth of several inches and the dense smoke permeated the entire building, including the House of Representatives. It took some time to clear the hall of smoke sufficiently to allow the proceedings of the evening session of the House to begin. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to have resulted from the carelessness of an employee in neglecting to extinguish a candle, or from a lighted cigar dropped on the floor among some loose papers by a visitor. The fire was discovered soon after it started, otherwise the result might have been more serious. As it was considerable damage was done. The loss is estimated at $15,000, confined almost exclusively to public documents. The folding room is located in the east sub-basement of the House wing of the Capitol, and the stone floors and heavy brick walls only prevented the fire from spreading to the richly furnished committee rooms on the floor above.

The Weakness

And prostration, like that tired feeling, so sure to follow the grip, is really the most dangerous stage of the disease and can only be overcome by taking a good tonic medicine like

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Which builds up the whole system, purifies the blood and prevents relapse and attacks of ostid diseases. Be sure to get Hood's.

Severe Struggle with the Grip—Postmaster Foster,

Of Lubec, Me., says regarding Hood's Sarsaparilla: "Last spring I had a severe attack of the Grip which left me in a very feeble condition. I had no appetite, was nervous, and was in a poor way generally. I was advised to take

Hood's Sarsaparilla

And in a few days I began to improve. My appetite increased and it seemed that I could not get enough to eat. When I had taken three bottles I felt as well as ever, and I can say better than ever. I heartily recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla."

HOOD'S PILLS are purely vegetable and are the best family cathartic.

ON FIRE WITH ECZEMA.

Terrible Sufferings of Little Baby. Seven Doctors and Two Hospitals Fail. Cured by Cuticura.

My baby boy, 5 months old, broke out with eczema about 7 months ago. He was very restless, and when he awoke he screamed. He was very irritable, and would not eat until he was nearly covered; his torturing agonies were pitiable to behold. He had no peace at all during the rest of his life. He was under treatment at different times at two hospitals and by seven doctors in this city without the least benefit. Every prescription of doctors was faithfully tried, but he grew worse all the time. For months I expended about $3 per week for medical treatment, and I was entirely discouraged. I purchased CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and followed the directions to the letter. Relief was immediate, his suffering was eased, and rest and sleep permitted. He steadily improved, and in six weeks was in perfect health, and has not returned. I can fairly say as my mother could wish to see. I recommend every mother to use it for every Baby Sufferer.
