Excursion Trains for the Opening of the Local Ball Season.

THE NEW YORK TRAN'S FIRST GAME

Patrons of the turf are beginning to take a livelier interest than ever in the big turf handicaps that are approaching, and as far as Pittsburg is concerned more money has been invested for the Brooklyn and Suburban so far this year than on any previous events of the kind. Many Western Pennsylvania citizens are backing Tenny, but that famous horse is gradually receding in the betting and has gone back a point or two during the last few days. An Eastern authority of prominence is inclined to think that Tenny and Longstreet may not see the post for the Brooklyn, and as a re-sult he says a 4-year-old will be the winner. He points out that the 4-year-olds entered are an exceptionally good class of horses and if fit and well will be hard to

Some Likely Runners.

The authority referred to says: "Just consider for a minute, Bermuda, Pes-sara, Strathmeath, Picknicker, Terriser, sara, Strathmeath, Picknicker, Terrifer, Russell, Rey del Rey, Portchester, Montana, Reckon, Ambulance, L'Intriguante, San Juan, Uno Grande and some eicht or nine others. Why, they all know how to use their feet, and what's more, on last year's running they're all on top of one another. One can have a preference, but he can't back it up by any line of argument. Take the J. A. & A. H. Morris lot. What can any one tell about them? They were run off their legs, and they had to run them-selves 'on' again. Reckon, Terrifier and Ambulance all three looked as if they were in training to go through a keyhole half the season, while Russell was run often enough to sour the best tempered horse in the world. season, while Russell was run often enough to sour the best tempered horse in the world. Considering the gruelling he's been given, both as a 2 and 3-year-old, he must not only have been a wonderful colt, but he must also have been made of cast iron.

Horses Doing Well.

"I hear a lot about L'Infriguante. She's "I hear a lot about L'Intriguante. She's certainly a hard, useful-looking sort, but she's never won over a mile, and seems better suited for seven furlongs. I may be wrong, but that's my opinion. As regards Terrifier, I know at the opening of the Brooklyn spring meeting he was tried better than Russell, but that stable's trying their horses most every day, so that one can't lay much store by that. Ambulance, who never looked herself, didn't show that she liked a distance: so what are you to think never looked hersel, didn't show that she liked a distance; so what are you to think about a stable like that? They were beaten by nearly every horse that they beat, and yet people are going crazy over Russell, Terrifier and L'Intriguante. As for the others of the same age, I shan't say any-thing until some of them have been put through their facings."

through their facings." Dispatches from the East state that the weather has not been favorable for training, and everybody agrees that Bey del Rey has a good chance, as he is the fancy of "Matt" Allen. The horse is big framed and has thickened considerably and looks now every inch a weight-carrier. He is expected to stand his training well. Uno Grande has also wintered well. Clarendon so far has not given satisfaction, and he will not likely be a starter.

THE NOISY PUGILISTS.

Latest Alleged Escapades of Mitchell and Slavin in the East.

ccording to dispatches from the East Mitchell and Slavin are having a high old time in New York. Mitchell is once more reported as wanting to fight Slavin and the latter is once reported as calling Mitchell a

The two pugilists are also reported as hav-to-day talking baseball with the local mag-nates. The ex-manager of the New York Giants attended the meeting of the directors of the Elmirs club to-night and made of the Elmira club to-night and made arrangements to act as manager of the team the coming season. He is very en-thusiastic over Elmira's prospects, and says he will cause considerable hustling among the other clubs. He expects to arrange ex-hibition games between the local club and the New York and Washington clubs before the season proper opens. The directors voted unanimously against admitting New Haven and Providence to the League and thus making a ten-club League.

STILL MORE WILD TALK.

Mr. Mitchell Alleged to Pay His Resp Pointedly to Mr. Sallivan.

NEW YORK, March 22.-A morning paper affirms that these words were used by Charles Mitchell in talk with its reporter resterday: "Sullivan's a nice chap, isn't he? He can't "Sullivan's a nice chap, isn't he? He can's fight a little bit. He is a big, fat, stiff lusher. John L. Sullivan is a good for nothing drunkard. He is afraid of me, that's all there is to it. Why didn't he accept my proposi-tion to fight me before the Olympic Club, of New Grieans, for a $25,000 pursé and a side bet of $2,5007 Isn't $30,000 enough to make bet of $2,5007 Isn't $30,000 enough to make when you know you've got a sure thing? If Sullivan thought he had a walkover why in the binwsted world didu't he give me a fight? Oh! I know the reason why he funked from me," said the wily Englishman, winking significantly. "It's because he is afraid of me; that's all. He knows very well that I couldn't bet $10,000 on the outside, and he knows posi-tively that the odds would be 2 to I against me. It's a lie if they say that I didn't want to fight him when we met on two occasions. He, the big, fat stiff, also knows that he can't lick me. He took up Corbett, another fake, to have an excuse not' to meet me. They will never meet, mind you. It's all a piece of advertising."

MEMPHIS SPRING MEETING.

Big Crowds Arriving for the Baces, and Good Racing Expected.

MEMPHIS, TENN., March 23 .- As the ope ing day of the spring meeting of the New Memphis Jockey Club approaches, throngs of people can be seen wending their way in the early morning to Montgomery Park. Owing to the recent bad weather and the condition of the track for the past two weeks, the "going" has been off for this time of the year, thus the majority of the trainers say they have not had the chance trainers say they have not had the chance to give their colts the training they should have had this late in the season. Notwith-standing all that, the majority of the horses have wintered well. Among the most promising 3-year-olds so far are G. W. Johnson, a full brother to Huron, Harvest Time, Humming Bird, St. Croix, King Lee, Shadow, Fort Worth and C. H, Gillock. The trainers are keeping as inum as Egyptian mummles about their Derby candidates. Phil Dwyer and Wight-man are the best thought of so far, but the knowing ones think that the Scruggins have a high class one in Tom Harding. There are now at the track 319 horses. Captain S. S. Brown's string is expected soon. The majority of the jockeys have arrived, and bookmakers and followers of the races are arriving daily.

A NARROW POLICY.

Rules of Limitations That Cause Troub

Among flomestead Ball Players. HOMESTEAD, March 22 .- [Special] .- At ecent meeting of the newly organized base ball clab of Homestead, a resolution was passed the sense of which was that no players but those who were bona fide resiplayers but those who were bona fide resi-dents of Homestead should be eligible to membership in said club. This action on the part of the new club merits the severest criticism and those who were friendly toward the new organization and contributed liberally from their purses say they will withdraw their patronage if the objectionable resolution is allowed to stand. Bennett and Rothrunff, two of the best players in the new team, will leave if the objectionable feature is not withdrawn at once. In fact, this narrow policy adopted at the outstart has been condemned on all hands. It is without precedent, too, for there is not a good ball team in the country without at least one or two outside players in it; and this is as it should be for reasons apparent to any one with but the slightest experience on the diamod. It is to be hoped the Homestead club will soften its bigotry toward outsiders and permit one or two of them at least to join their ranks.

The Turf.

THE track at Sheepshead is now in such good condition that the horses stabled there are canter-ing over it in preference to the boulerard, and if the weather continues fine fast work will soon be Commenced. GUTTENBURG will lose for the present its star jockey, as Hughey Penny goes to Mobile, Ala., on Saturday next to join the Western string of Cap-tain S. S. Brown's horses, which are in charge of Peter Winmer.

Monroe Salisbury, of Pleasanton, Cal., owner of the champion pacer, Direct, record 2:06, and other famous horses, said regarding Direct, that the little fellow would be taken up about June 15 and trained for a faster record.

THE Nashville correspondent of the Spiril of the Times writes: "A friend who has just returned from Memphis tells me that the brother to Huron is a scorcher. He says while out at the track the other day he saw him work with Little Billie, and at the finish was pulling to the Great Tom colt in a way that amazed all who saw it."

THE present race meeting at New Orieans has been such a success that the executive has decided to hold one next winter on a far more pretenticus scale. The management will give five races a day, the purses to be double the value of those offered now. The meeting will commence almost im-mediately after the fall meeting at Nashville.

mediately after the fail meeting at Nashville. WALCOTE & CAMPRELL, who were so uffor-tunate last year with their thoroughbreds, which were nearly all taken sick, do not seem to have es-asped from their ill inck yet. Two of the colls that they purchased at W. L. Scott's sale last year have died. One was a brother to Tenny and the other a brother to Leighton. Their death is more unfor-tunate from the fact that they were both entered for the St. Leger in England.

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH, WEDNESDAY MARCH 23, 1892

Eble-That is correct.

Eble—That is correct. Collier—Call the next. Patrick Fallon had a license last year at 606 Grant street, and is all right. John Finnerty, of 183 and 185 Fifth avenue, fol-lowed. He has a lease for ten years and will build a new house there if granted a license. His intention is to have a $1 50 a day house and about 38 rooms. in 1890, and 228 Fifth avenue in 1889. Finnerty-I was. Here Finnerty's counsel, R. S. Fraser, objected, but Mr. Christy said he was through. Mr. Fraser, however, agreed to have his client build the house first, pro-vided a license was promised at the time it was completed. He did not want to have the license issued until the building was completed. completed.

Did Not Press the Remonstrance.

John J. Gallaher, of 21 Bedford avenue has a five-year lease on the property, and expects to get custom from "transom trade." The Judge seemed satisfied, and called John M. Green and Edward McCaffrey, both young men, who are after a license at 5 Wylie avenue, B. C. Christy had a re-monstrance against them, but said he would let them stand on their faces. Cornelius Horgan, better known as "Con" Horgan, of 17 Wylie avenue, was only asked a few questions.

Peter Hoarty is a new applicant for the house at 243 Fifth avenue. 'Squire Reilly and others were called to prove necessity and character. Christy had a remonstrance, stating the house was not a fit place but this was denied.

Christy called the attention of the Court to the fact that the house was refused to Thomas McDermitt last year. Dennis McGlinchey, of Wylie avenue and Washington street, has been licensed for 12 years and is good for another. Peter McGee, of 99 Webster avenue, had license before and was not questioned. Frank Mc-Laughlin has had license for 13 years at 58 Wylie avenue and just to take off the un-lucky number he is to have another. D. C. Neary, of 227 and 229 Fifth avenue, was told Neary, of 227 and 229 Fifth avenue, was told there was a complaint from the police and that his case would be held over for a fur-ther hearing. Edward J. Shem, of 86 and 88 Washington street, is a new man, but he went through easy. Philip Tress, of 508 Grant street, was refused last year for not having a restaurant, and there was a remonstrance against him ou this ground by Christy, but his chances are good this year.

If Mitchell and Slavin acted as stated their conduct is to be severely condemned, but it must not be forgotten that almost every Eastern paper has for a long time been cen-suring and slandering the pair in an extrav-agant manner. While Mitchell may be talk-ing foolishly, the wild vaporing of Sullivan about everybody else, and the tall talk of Corbett cannot be overlooked. This all shows that the entire business is one of bluff and bluster, and all parties are striv-ing to get the public ear. It is also apparent that not one person in a hundred is disposed to give Mitchell and Slavin a fair show.

"So he did," returned Corbett. "That is not the case," was Slavin's re-joinder. "We received a telegram in Chijoinder. "We received a telegram in Chi-carco saying that you were sick and could not go on with the show. It was signed by Brady." "Well, Brady never sent it," said Corbett. "Tm as game a man as you or any other puglist on top of earth." "But you haven't treated Mitchell right," insisted Slavin, "and that's all there is to it, I've got a record and so has Charley," he went on, "and you've got one, too." "Yes, and it's as good as yours or Charley's," said Corbett.

"Well, Charley is a game man, and you made a mistake in saying he was afraid. He isn't afraid of anything that breathes, Mr. Corbett, and you can bet pounds to pennies on that."
