COLUMBUS, O., March 27.-[Special.]-The officers of Glasgow, Va., badly want Will S. Whitman, a wealthy young man of Ironton, O., and last evening made another effort to get requisition from Governor McKinley, but failed. In Glagow is loated a com-pany known as the Rock Bridge Company. Whitman entered into a Company. Whitman entered into a contract with the company, of which Gov-ernor Lee was at the time president, to build a foundry in the place, and the company's notes for $33.000, secured by bonds, were sent to him at Ironton, and now the company, claiming that the contract was not filled, is endeavoring to get possession of the notes, and made requisition for Mr. Whitman on a charge of larceny. The first attempt to fasten upon the Buck-eye capitalist was in December, when Gov-ernor Campbell, on the advice of Attorney General Watson, refused to honor a requisi-tion and allow the defendant to be carried of to Virginin. Last evening the applica-tion was renewed. Governor McKinley re-ferred the question to Attorney General Richards, whose opinion was adverse to granting the requisition, and the Governor decimed to deliver Mr. Whitman into the custody of the Virginia officials.

The Superintendent of the Groveton Oil Company was close at hand and soon extinguished the flames. No dam-aze was done. The well was owned by Sill, Odee & Co., but Mr. McKeown had some in-

Now that the city has a good street law there is a gen-eral demand for improvements, and during the coming summer there will be many mad roads converted into elegantly pavel and sewered avenues in all parts of the city. Chief Bigelow has mapped out a tremendous amount of reparing and other work which has been provided for at the city's expense, which, with the new work to be done, will keep the contractors busy all season.

Manager Finn, of the San Jose Club, has been watching Denny's work at third lately and so have other California managers. As a result a spirited competition took place for Jerry's services and a few days ago San Jose outbid all other clubs and secured the man. The fact of Denny being in such great demand in California proves that Fred Carroll sent a true report East re-cently, when he said Denny's great work was astounding everybody out in California. He is also a very useful batter and people must not underestimate his general abilities because he is really a good man." Charles H. Spurgeon's Will, at his old home, Streator, Ill. Alf Kennedy LONDON, March 27.-The will of the late at his old home, Streator, Ill. Aif Kennedy said yesterday that he paid no attention to Austin Gibbons' chatter. "It is not true," he said, "that the Olympic Club offered a purse of $5,000 for Myer and Gibbons. The club, as a matter of fact, refused to offer $500 and one of its officers said that Gibbons would not be allowed in the club's ring. When Gibbons means business he will post a forfeit. We pay no attention to such talk. All that he is after is a little free advertis-ing." Charles H. Spurgeon has been offered for probate. It is a simple document, and in it Mr. Spurgeon leaves everything he pos-sessed to his wife, who is made the sole excoutrix. The personal estate is declared to amount to £11,160.
