

THE WIT OF CHRIST.

It Puts to Shame Preachers Who Allow Their Hearers to Sleep.

BIG THEFTS WORSE THAN SMALL.

The Moral Gnats You Strain Out and the Camels You Swallow.

A PREFACE OF THE NEW TABERNACLE.

Special Telegram to the Dispatch: Brooklyn, March 27. The manager of the Brooklyn Tabernacle this morning by making the following announcement:

I am happy to say that as a church, after the exhausting work of building three immense churches, two of them having been erected in the Brooklyn Tabernacle this morning by making the following announcement:

Such persons are also described in the text who are very much alarmed about the small thefts of many churches, but who are not their own great transgressions. There are in every community and in every church, watch-dogs who feel called upon to keep their eyes on others and guard their own.

My text shows you the principle of investigation. A man who has been observed to have formed the suspicion that in a cup of water he is about to drink, there is a grave and a deadly disease, he will strain out the gnat and swallow the camel.

FEATURES OF TRADE.

Fresh Garden Products From the Far South in Large Supply.

AND OLD STUFF FORCED OUT.

Smoked Meats Are Relatively Much Lower Than Green Meats.

A BOSTON VIEW OF FOOTWEAR TRADE.

Office of the Dispatch, Pittsburgh, Saturday, March 25. In lines of general products the week past has developed few features worthy of note.

Fresh garden stuff from the Gulf of Mexico begins to come in freely, and last season's produce is being forced out. Cabbage and cauliflower are the most abundant. Potatoes are in liberal supply and markets are slow at the year old prices as have prevailed since the summer.

In lines of tropical fruit the movement has been steadily upward for the week past. Choice select is scarce and higher. All the winter produce is being forced out. Cabbage and cauliflower are the most abundant.
