

ON AN ANXIOUS SEAT.

Saloon Men Watch and Wait Impatiently for the License Judges

BUT NOT ONE RAY OF HOPE For the Restless, Nervous Crowd That Choked Up Ross Street.

VIGIL ABANDONED AT MIDNIGHT When the Judges Go Home Without Finishing Their Work.

THE HEARINGS TO BE RESUMED TO-DAY

The Pittsburgh saloon keepers and many who are aspiring to figure in that capacity for the coming year shifted restlessly on the anxious seat last night while they watched impatiently for the decisions of the license court judges.

Yesterday it was expected that the license list would be handed down early last night, and before 6 o'clock the saloon people began calling at THE DISPATCH office inquiring whether or not they had drawn a prize.

Then the anxiety of the saloon men increased and with nerves screwed to a high tension they hurried about to get an early glance at the list.

When the judges abandoned their vigil last night they said they had not finished the list, and that they had nothing to give out for publication.

A chance for the practical joker. The practical joker enjoyed himself to an unbounded extent last night at the expense of the nervous applicants.

To-day the hearings will be resumed and the retail applicants from Allegheny City, it is expected, will be finished with this week.

A question arising out of the new ballot law was submitted to court yesterday in behalf of the auditors and certain electors of McKee's Rocks, and ruled upon by Judge White.

In addition to two nomination papers, one for the "Citizens" party and one for the "Progressive Reform" party, the latter only placing candidates for part of the offices were filed.

Certain of the electors demanded that the names of the candidates of the "Citizens" party be printed in a separate column with the designation of the party at the head of the column.

Judge White made a brief order, stating that he was of opinion that the auditors were right and declining to interfere.

A Novel Suit Against a Tea Company That Gave Premiums. James Quinn brought suit before Alderman Donovan yesterday to recover $44.10 from the Union and Pacific Tea Company, Southside.

Some months ago the son became a ward, and the first thing his mother knew her boy was married. His wife was much his senior and not to his mother's liking.

For a number of years Mrs. August Stevenson and her only son Harry, a very young man, have lived together on Marshall avenue, Allegheny.

Mr. Spindler Elected Principal. The Third Ward School Board met last night in Allegheny. Prof. George A. Spindler was elected Principal of the North avenue school.

George Pollman and his wife were on the limited last evening going to Chicago. He has been freely reported in the East as being down on the practice of tipping porters and claiming that it was the fault of the public.

Agent McClure, of the Law and Order Society, has been working again this week, and 12 informants have been made good Sunday paper sellers.

The largest line of room mouldings ever brought to the city at John S. Roberts' new store, 719 and 721 Liberty st., head of Wood.

MUST PUT UP A FORFEIT.

Allegheny Natural Gas Consumers Will Have to Make a Deposit to Obtain Fuel

The Allegheny Heating Company, which virtually controls the business of supplying natural gas to the residents of the sister city, has issued an order that all persons taking gas must deposit from $5 up, according to the size of the house, and based on the probable consumption of fuel.

Manager Searight, of the Allegheny Heating, in giving the reasons for the issuance of the order, said:

We are now asking everyone to put up a forfeit. This is done to insure the payment of the gas bill each year. We have been losing anywhere from $15,000 to $20,000 in bad bills.

Superintendent McGuire, of the Heating Company, said:

The system has been in vogue for some time. It is the intention to only ask for forfeits from patrons whom we do not know.

The Philadelphia Company has been for the last three years asking its patrons to put up some assurance that they will pay their bills.

A TELL TALE FROM BOOK. Puts a Young Man From San Francisco Behind the Bars.

Superintendent of Police O'Mara received a telegram last night from Chief of Police Crowley, of San Francisco, telling him that an officer of that city had left there to get J. W. Huseman, who is at present in the workhouse here.

When the judges abandoned their vigil last night they said they had not finished the list, and that they had nothing to give out for publication.

A committee, consisting of Rev. J. T. McCrory and Rev. Dr. Robinson, called on the Senator yesterday.

The family of Sergeant George Headrick, of the Fourteenth ward police station, living on Homewood avenue, is sadly afflicted with typhoid fever.

The letter carriers will put on new suits May 1. A committee asked Postmaster McKean yesterday for permission to clean their present suits.

Martin Oliver, who says he has been in Allegheny for several days, announced last night that he was in Allegheny where Senator Ratan can find him to arrest in connection with the alleged election frauds.

Major Young, Superintendent of the Carriers, was a busy man yesterday. Any number of people called to give the change in their address after April 1.

The Erie Winger Manufacturing Company, of this city, has closed a contract for the removal of its plant to Canton, O.

Mr. W. J. Mowrey, of Jarvisville, W. Va., says: "Since we have been handling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we have sold it in a city, guaranteed and found that every little bottle did service. We have used it ourselves and think it superior to any other preparation we know of."

There is no wholesale liquor house in the city that has made greater preparations for the spring trade than the Wm. H. Holmes Co.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Superior to Any Other. Mr. W. J. Mowrey, of Jarvisville, W. Va., says: "Since we have been handling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we have sold it in a city, guaranteed and found that every little bottle did service."

QUAY'S LITTLE JOKE.

He Remarks Pleasantly, but Not Too Emphatically, That He Is

NOT A CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION And Refers Facastically to the Contest in Armstrong County.

AN APPLICANT FOR JARRETT'S PLACE United States Senator M. S. Quay came to Pittsburgh from Washington yesterday morning and he spent the day in his rooms at the Duquesne Hotel in conference with his political helpers, who swarmed about him like honey bees about a fresh-bloomed clover.

The Senator arrived at the hotel at 7 o'clock. He was the first guest of the day. He registered, was assigned to parlors A and B, and before his breakfast had been served callers began arriving and the bell boys began carrying cards to the apartment of the Beaver statesman.

A Long List of Notable Callers. Ex-Collector of Internal Revenue Warramsted was one of the early callers. Then came Emanuel Wertheimer, who is a candidate for the Legislature in the First District, Allegheny.

An Invitation Committee of the American Club yesterday received from Governor McKinley a letter in which he expresses regrets at his inability to attend the American Club banquet on April 27, because, he says, he is unable to get away from the date of the Republican State Convention in Ohio.

Typographical Union No. 7 and Pressmen's No. 13 Elect Officers and Delegates. The annual election of Typographical Union No. 7 was held yesterday. The election was close and consequently very exciting.

A Sad Afflicted Family. The family of Sergeant George Headrick, of the Fourteenth ward police station, living on Homewood avenue, is sadly afflicted with typhoid fever.

Carriers Must Get New Suits. The letter carriers will put on new suits May 1. A committee asked Postmaster McKean yesterday for permission to clean their present suits.

Oliver Makes a Challenge. Martin Oliver, who says he has been in Allegheny for several days, announced last night that he was in Allegheny where Senator Ratan can find him to arrest in connection with the alleged election frauds.

Moving Makes Work for Carriers. Major Young, Superintendent of the Carriers, was a busy man yesterday. Any number of people called to give the change in their address after April 1.

Will Go to Canton. The Erie Winger Manufacturing Company, of this city, has closed a contract for the removal of its plant to Canton, O.

AMERICAN-CITIZEN WOULD DO UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES.

Chairman Hahn indorsed what his chief said. He thinks the Republican party was never in better condition, and he claims the prospects for success were never brighter.

TO EXTEND REFORM Allegheny Councils Propose to Elect New Men to the City's Offices.

The reform members composing a majority of Allegheny county held an informal meeting yesterday and agreed among themselves to continue their work of reform to all the offices to be filled by the new Councils at their organization next Thursday night.

An unusual amount of interest is manifested in the action of Councils as it is said the fight for the city offices will determine whether or not the reformers hold the balance of power, and whether they will be able to sustain the reform Mayor in the work he contemplates after his inauguration.

The Mayor will at once assert his authority over the police force, and will make an effort to reorganize the Department of Public Safety. It is expected that Chief Murphy will be appointed as chief of the effort and the election of city officers on Thursday night will determine whether there are enough reform Councilmen to sustain the Mayor, even to the removal of Chief Murphy.

Governor McKinley Declines. The Invitation Committee of the American Club yesterday received from Governor McKinley a letter in which he expresses regrets at his inability to attend the American Club banquet on April 27, because, he says, he is unable to get away from the date of the Republican State Convention in Ohio.

THE CORPSE LAUGHED.

L. H. Guthrie Thought It Was a Great Joke to Be Buried Without Being Present at the Funeral—Peculiar Case of Mistaken Identity.

The mangled body of a man was found on the railroad near Johnstown last Thursday. On his person were a Catholic prayer book and a time book with the name of Luth H. Guthrie, Pottsville, Pa., entered.

On Monday Mrs. Guthrie was very much surprised to receive a letter from her son dated Pittsburgh, March 26. It started with "My Darling Mother," inquired lovingly after the other members of the family, why she had not heard from them, and was written on a letter head of the Keystone Hotel.

A telegram was sent asking the young man to come home and explaining that he had been buried. The young man, who was young Guthrie, paid no attention whatever to treating the whole thing as a joke.

Guthrie had explained that he had lost his prayer and time books, and that they had probably been found by the unfortunate man who had been buried for him. The question now is, who is the unknown who was buried last Sunday under the name of Luth H. Guthrie.
