The First Half of 1892 Will Not Come Up to the Expectations. HEAVY ROADS STILL A FACTOR. Quite an Increase in the Number of Small Failures in New York.

WALL STREET BOOMS THE CLEARINGS

NEW YORK, April 1.—Special telegrams to the dispatch again make clear the fact that the period of practical stagnation in the industrial and commercial circles is being indefinitely prolonged—evidently far beyond what had been anticipated.

The Outlook on the Pacific Coast. On the Pacific coast trade continues quite dull, notably at San Francisco.

At Milwaukee business is improving, with money easy. At St. Paul the prospect of an early spring stimulates trade.

Speculation during the week has not been very active. Wheat has declined 3/8, corn 3/8, oil a fraction and pork 2 1/2 per barrel.

The following table, compiled by Bradstreet's, gives the monthly returns for the week ending March 31, and the percentage of increase or decrease as compared with the corresponding week last year.

Table with columns for City, Inc. Dec., and various statistics for major cities like New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, etc.

Business failures in the United States during the first three months of 1902, or less than in like portions of three preceding years.
