TARIFF DEBATE OVER.

That Is to Say, the House General Discussion Closed Yesterday.

THE MILL GRINDS ON FOREVER.

Blaine Seated at His Desk for the First Time in Three Weeks.

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, April 2.-The general discussion on tariff bills closed to-day. If the present programme as agreed upon by the leaders is carried out, the consideration of the free wool bill under the five-minute rule will begin Monday and the measure be passed by the House early in the week. It is generally desired by the Democrats to pass Mr. Springer's bill before the Rhode Island election of Wednesday, for the political effect that it may have in that State: and unless the Republicans make a vigorous opposition and insist upon the consideration of the various amendments under the five-minute rule, the final vote on the passage of the measure will probably be taken not later than Tuesday. The first speaker to-day was Mr. McKin-ney, of New Hampshire, who favored the bill, and attacked the protective tariff system. Mr. Wilson, of Missouri, had a few minutes accorded to him, and in these few minutes he made an earnest speech in favor of the bill. Mr. Cummings, of New York, advocated the bill.

Burrows in a Great Speech.

Mr. Burrows, of Michigan, a member of the Committee on Ways and Means, followed in opposition to the bill. He said that the party of free trade, encour-aged by the temporary success of 1890, and mistaking the significance of the verdict, renews its assault upon American indus-tries with a boldness and vigor worthy a better cause. It is most unfortunate that this agitation should occur. It disturbs business, alarms capital, preventing it from embarking in new enterprises to which it was invited by the tariff of 1890, deters the employment of labor, destroys confidence and prevents the full realization of that industrial prosperity which the act of 1890 was intended to promote, and which, if un-disturbed it would surely secure. But it seems the contest, regardless of public in-terests, is to be renewed, and the issue again submitted to the judgment of the American people. In conclusion, Mr. Bur-

Rates Against the Industries.

The adherents of the free trade Democracy ose sight of the greater needs to be attained through the instrumentality of a protective tariff. You seem to be chiefly concerned about rates; we are more solicitous about industries. You are contentending for lower duties; we are battling for higher development. You question the propriety of increasing rates of taxation, we answer you increasing rates of taxation, we answer you with new born industries throbbing with industrial life. You would narrow the fold of labor's occupation; we would enlarge it to embrace every source of profitable employment. And while you are standing in the open way to every new industry, warning the people not to go therein, crying "The tariff is a tax." "The people are being robbed," your senseless cries are drowned in the excitant shours of labor returning with rich trophics secured from new fields of industrial triumph. We believe in diversifying and defending industries by a protective tariff, and so availing ourselves of silying and defending industries by a pro-tective tariff, and so avaiting ourselves of every instrumentality which a bountful Providence has put within our reach, we will attain the fullest possible development of all our resources, secure thegreatest hap-piness and prosperity to the citizen and to the nation its highest destiny. [Applause.] Mr. Brickner, of Wisconsin, and Mr. Dear-mond, of Missouri, favored the bill The House then adjourned.

THE SEAL POACHERS AT WORK.

Bering Sea Fairly Alive With Herds of th

WASHINGTON, April 2.-The Department of State has received detailed inrmation of the operations of the sealing versels now engaged in killing and taking seals along the American coast. At latest advices the fleet was off Cape Flattery keeping company with the herd as it moves up the coast on the way to its breeding grounds on the Pribyloff Island. On the 21st ultimo the American steamer Michigan passed them, and reports the water fairly alive with seals, and the vessels had their boats out, busily shooting them, Between March 14 and 24 reports from 14 vessels fix their catch at 2,252 seals.

The steamer Mystery had been en-gaged at Victoria by the poaching fleet to meet them at Cloquot Sound, March 24, take off their skins and furnish them with a new stock of supplies, thus enabling them to prosecute their work without the loss of time necessary to put into the port of Victoria for that purpose. The same steamer is engaged to meet the fleet again later in the season, at Sand Point, on Kadiak Island, and receive their skins and turnish them with fresh supplies preparatory to the entrance of the fleet into Bering Sea. On March 13, the Brenda arrived at Victoria, from Nova Scotia, being the first of the 13 nealing schooners on the way from there, and she is not being fitted out for sea.

Seven more British vessels are in Victoria and five in process of construction destined for this year's sealing operations, making the total British fleet about 70 as against

PENSION LAWYERS' PERQUISITES.

Some of Them, Mr. Raum Says, Get Their Relatives Positions.

WASHINGTON, April 2.-In the Pension Office investigation to-day Commissioner Raum said he knew of one case, and there wight be several others, in which relatives of pension attorneys were employed in the Pension Office. Wherever he knew of such relationship he would keep the claims of the attorney from his relative, though this kinship might perhaps cause inside information to reach an attorney. The Commissioner said the record showed that he had been absent from the office 137 days in the last two years and four months.

Mr. Enloe baving asked a question implying that the Pension Office had at one time last year "slowed up" on account of the condition of the public treasury, the Com-missioner replied that he had never felt any embarrassment as to the state of the treas-ury; that Secretary Foster had never made him any suggestion on the subject, and that he had never held back a single pension case, and did not intend to do so. While he was Commissioner he intended to allow just as many certificates as could be properly adjudicated with the force of the office.

BLAINE BACK AT HIS DESK.

For the First Time in Three Weeks He Is Able to Work. WASHINGTON, April 2 - Secretary Blaine has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be back at his desk at the State Department to-day. This is the first time in nearly three weeks that he has been at the department. Within that period the crisis in the Bering Sea matter was reached and past, but he was kept informed of the progress of the negotiations, and it is understood is now devoting a portion of his time to assisting the President in his correspondence and conferences with the British Minister looking to an early renewal of the modus vivendi. It is probable there will be no formal reply to Lord Salisbury's note of the 26th of March. It is the general understand. Murch. It is the general understanding that this Government will accept the proposition in that note which provides for a suspension of pelagic scaling, with provisions for indemnities. Beyond this there is nothing new in the situation to-day, especially as it is understood that the Cabinet took no definite action in the matter at its meeting yesterday.

TOADYING TO SHOULDER STRAPS. Private Dalzell Kicks on the Proposed G.

A. R. Appropriation WASHINGTON, April 2.—[Special.]—Considerable opposition has developed both inside and out of Congress to the proposed appropriation of $100,000 recommended in a special message by President Harrison at the instance of the citizens' committee of Washington, for the expenses incident to the reception and entertainment of the Grand Army of the Republic at their twenty-sixth annual encampment in this city next September. Private Dalzell sends from Caldwell, O., a pertinent letter on the subject to the House Appropriations Committee.

"Do you know that every one of us has already been taxed 10 cents per capita to pay this bill, and that we have paid it and the money is now in the hands of the Quartermaster General of the G. A. R. It amounts to $15,000 or more and is quite sufficient, and, in my opinion, far too much. If we, the rank and file, had a dollar, a cent even of this $15,000 or of your $100,000 to even, of this $15,000 or of your $109,000 to be spent for our benefit, this letter would not be written. It all goes, as yor know, for the officers, big chipmunks and nonsonse of the privileged few—every cent. Let them pay their own bills, as we always have to do. We are sick of this everlasting toadying to shoulder-strappers."
