

THE DR. KING SCANDAL

Still Causing a Great Deal of Talk Among Methodist Ministers.

THE RESULT OF AMBITIOUS MEN

Seeking to Throw discredit on a Gentleman of Their Own Cloth.

A FULL REPORT EXPECTED TO-MORROW

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, April 2.—The members of the New York Methodist conference attended strictly to routine business, to-day, and all reference to the scandal which has now become common property, was carefully avoided.

Yesterday afternoon he was before the committee for more than three hours, and it is said that he insisted upon having a full statement of all the evidence which three suspicion upon him as the promoter of the anonymous circular, and declared before the committee's report is brought in.

All Caused by Personal Ambition. "The whole scandal," said another minister, "is the result of inordinate personal ambition. Dr. King and Dr. J. P. Day, the pastor of Calvary Church, are each anxious to go to Ontario as delegates from the New York Conference, and for the past four years each has been doing his best to strengthen himself.

There was even talk to-day of criminal proceedings. There was a great deal of indignation expressed at the way Dr. King's grievance was entered. Dr. George H. McGrew, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church, said that if anyone entered his private study that way he would have him behind prison bars in short order.

Several Liberal Suits May Result. Some of the friends of the ministers who attended the Poughkeepsie meeting have consulted lawyers about the anonymous circular, and they say they have good legal advice that two of the ministers mentioned in the circular, Rev. M. D. C. Crawford and Prof. John Milroy, of Drew Theological Seminary, have grounds for libel suits against the author of the circular.

TOTTEN REBORN BY WATER

The Famous Astronomer Tells Why He Was Immersed—Proud of the Uniform He Has Put On—The Type of Burial and Resurrection.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., April 2.—[Special.]—Prof. Totten was asked to-day why he was immersed in Boston last Sunday by Rev. Dr. Gordon, and this was his reply:

The matter has been under long consideration, and after fully weighing it I have come to the conclusion that immersion is the only proper ceremony. It is a type of burial and of resurrection. It is putting on the uniform. I am proud of it. Every man must go through two deaths, the first and the second. The Saviour has provided a type for the first, which is immersion. The second or natural death for the Christian thus becomes the second over which the grave has no power.

A point worth noting about our Jersey Suits: No ripping, no giving of seams, no forming of holes. These objectionable features have been entirely overcome by a patented improvement applied to our Jersey Suits alone in Pittsburgh.

A FARMER'S FORGIVENESS

His Only Living Victim, a Mennonite, Refuses to Prosecute Him.

DOYLESTOWN, PA., April 2.—The transactions of Henry M. Kulp, of the Hilltop township farmer who fled Monday, leaving large liabilities and forged notes behind him, appear to be more serious than was at first thought. Several other notes, in addition to the forged one of $1,600 that Kulp negotiated, have come to light.

A VICTIM OF SUPERSTITION

Sends a Hair From His Head to a Physician and Gets Medicine That Kills Him—Fatal Folly of a Portuguese Who Was an Invalid.

TAUNTON, MASS., April 2.—[Special.]—Antoine Peters, 21 years old, a Portuguese, died last evening, but the manner of his taking off is what is puzzling the physicians, and there will probably be an inquest. He had been sick for some time, and a few months ago a compatriot, Manuel Mariz, living near New Bedford, told Antone that if he would give him a single hair from his head he would send it to a physician whom he knew in St. Michael's (Azores), and the doctor would return medicine to suit his case.

The hair was sent. The case was apparently diagnosed, and the medicine came yesterday. It was administered after being steeped, and the young man died shortly after, as though from poison. Medical Examiner Presbury was called and took what remained of the medicine and showed it this morning to District Attorney Knowlton. He believed it to be an herb called concium, or hemlock, and in appearance and smell it looks like sage, and when steeped one would readily mistake it for sage.

A BIG HOUSE SINKING

Senators Afraid to Make Use of a Building Bought for Them.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—[Special.]—By means of a little item in the sundry civil appropriation bill of last year, the billion Congress expended the sum of $188,000 for the purchase of the Malby House, a large brick structure on the edge of the capitol grounds. It was built a few years ago by the late Malby G. Lane, of New York. Congress purchased it for the use of special committees of the Senate, private rooms for Democratic Senators who are not chairmen of committees and also a storehouse for certain bureaus.

Several of the Senators who were delighted at the prospect of having a private room so near the capitol are afraid to move in. The building was put up a few years ago in made ground, through which an immense sewer passes. Many years ago an open stream known as the "Blue creek," or "Tiber creek," flowed over the course of what is now a brick-laid-in sewer.

THE... WORLD'S GREATEST TAILOR!

Why So Called:

FIRST—Because, as you know, he has built up large and busy tailor stores in every city of any importance in the Union. SECOND—Because he buys shrewdly for cash in the best home and foreign markets of the best high-grade materials, and an unusual variety to supply his many branches. THIRD—Because his prices are regulated by the lowest possible cost, and based upon a large business and a moderate profit. FOURTH—Because there isn't an idea in the tailoring of his garments from spoiling to finishing process that he hasn't adopted that improves the quality and cheapens the cost.

These are some of the reasons; there are others, when you are considering your Easter Outfit, why it is best to leave your order with

IT'S A PUZZLE

HOW KAUFMANN'S CAN AFFORD TO SELL These Fine $2 and $2.50 Spring Hats

Yes, it is a puzzle, not only to the public, but to the dealers, how we can do it. Well, we DO it—did it last Monday—will do it to-morrow—and, if you're shrewd, you won't ask useless questions, but buy hats. The styles, as you may see from the above illustrations, are the latest shapes of Stiff and Soft Hats out, while the qualities are such as, we believe, any hatter in town would himself gladly pay $1.50 for. They come in black and brown. Remember, this special $1 sale is for to-morrow, Monday, only.

KAUFMANN'S HEADQUARTERS FOR BOYS' CLOTHING.

HEADQUARTERS FOR BOYS' CLOTHING We claim this proud title by the almost unanimous voice and vote of the mothers of Pittsburgh and Allegheny. Our Boys' Clothing is preferred to that of other moderate cost. Then, too, our variety affords so wide a field for choice. Every whim and wit of a boy—every taste and fancy of a parent can here be suited. This season leads all its predecessors in this respect. Our light, airy, spacious and handsome Boys' Department is now fairly bristling with new spring styles, contributed by the best manufacturers, not only of America, but Europe as well—among them Maison de Couture, Paris, Havensham Bros., London, Best & Co., New York, etc. And, then, our own reliable make. It is the peer of them all, and is guaranteed by us to outlast any other make in the market. No seams ripping, no pockets tearing down, no buttons coming off. Three well-known characteristics, these, of KAUFMANN'S own make of Boys' Clothing.

JERSEY SUITS.

A point worth noting about our Jersey Suits: No ripping, no giving of seams, no forming of holes. These objectionable features have been entirely overcome by a patented improvement applied to our Jersey Suits alone in Pittsburgh. Among our ultra fashionable styles are the combination Jersey Suits (never before seen in Pittsburgh), in dark shades of blue, brown and green, with collar and cuffs of contrasting material—also Jersey. Add to this some rich silk embroidery and you have a truly beautiful effect.

But for big, matchless bargains see our SPECIAL $3 LINE of All-Wool English Jersey Suits and Ours $4 LINE of heavy English Jersey Reefers Style Suits, with gilt buttons. Either of these two styles would cost you 50 per cent more elsewhere.

OUR BOYS' WAIST DEPT

We have a quite extensive assortment of these Man O' War Suits, but would call your special attention to this particular lot: 300 fine Navy Yacht Cloth Suits, elaborately embroidered in white silk in Anchor and Star designs; with cute embellishments that'll delight the boys, such as heavy silk cord with whistle attached; AT ONLY $8.
