Negotiations Now on for the Best Con cerns Known to the Trade.

FIRES, FAILURES AND RAILWAY NEWS

NEW YORK, April 4 .- A meeting of the United States Rubber Company's newly elected directors was held to-day in this city and the following officers were elected: President, William L. Trenholm; Secretary, John I. Waterbury; Treasurer, John P. Townsend. The directors authorized the officers to complete the purchase of the property and good will of the New Jersey Rubber Shoe Company by a payment of $1,000,-000 down and the balance to be paid as determined on appraisement. This was agreed to by the stockholders of the United States Rubber Company. Committees were appointed to negotiate with the L. Candee Company, of New Haven, the Meyer Rubber Company, of Milbank, N. J., and other companies will be purchased when an opportunity is presented. The capital of the company is said to be large enough to absorb all the rubber manufacturing concerns in the country which is contemplated. A gentleman who is largely interested in crude rubber and generally in the rubber trade throughout the country

"The new company has bought the plant, etc., of the New Jersey Rubber Company, at New Brunswick, N. J., and those works will New Brunswick, N. J., and those works will be the headquarters of the company. Negotiations are also pending for the purchase of the Christopher Meyer Company's works at Milltown, near New Brunswick. The negotiations are practically closed. The same may be said of similar negotiations for the purchase of the business plant and good will of the Candee Company, of New Haven, Conn., which is the oldest and best known concern in the trade. The New Jersey Rubber Company will probably go into liquidation and give up its charter after distributing among its stockholders what it receives in payment for its property. No other factories or works have yet been purchased, although others may and no doubt will be from time to time."

A VERY POOR INVESTMENT.

James Henry Work Saed for $200,000 for Giving a Friend Poor Advice.

NEW YORK, April 4 .- A suit, which is a sequel to the failure of the banking firm of Grant & Ward, was brought to trial this afternoon in the Supreme Court before Justice Patterson and a jury. The action is brought by Colonel Edward C. James, a lawyer, against James Henry Work, a broker, to recover upward of $200,000. Colonel James alleges that Mr. Work induced him to invest money in the firm of Grant & Ward on representation that he would realize at least 8 per cent on the investment, the money to be placed in large Government contracts. What these contracts were, the plaintiff alleges, Mr. Work said to him, he was not at liberty to tell him but he assected it was short a true thing.

was not at liberty to tell him but he asserted it was almost a sure thing.

Mr. Coate, in his opening effort for the plaintiff, declared that there was never anything in these contracts at all, that they were all fletitious from beginning to end and that at the time the transactions began the firm of Grant & Ward was insolvent. He said that Work had induced large numbers of his friends to put their money in those schemes and that before the failure of the firm he had drawn out and put in his pocket $1,200,000 which was really the money that his friends had invested.

Republican Gains in Nearly Every Ohio Town Spring Election.

MARIETTA A GLITTERING EXCEPTION.

PAPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR I COLUMBUS, April 4.-The local election for city and ward officers to-day was a lay-down on the part of the Democrats. With a standing majority of about 500, the head of the Republican ticket received a majority of about 2,800. The Republican ticket was elected throughout by large majorities. The Democrats sacrificed their candidate for member of the Board of Public Works in order to make the board bi-partisan, as in order to make the board bi-partisan, as the board consists of four members, one of whom is a Republican. It is sought by this to defeat the reorganization bill pending in the Legislature for Columbua. The argu-ment is now to be used that the board is bi-partisan, such as prevails in the other cities of the State, and it is what the Republicans have been asking for in the line of legisla-

The Republicans, however, will not be satisfied with the result of to-day, as the offices are all now in the hands of the Democrats, and a selection of a member of the Board of Public Works will not aid in the direction of a reorganization.

Cleveland and Pattison Indorsed. PHILADELPHIA, April 4.—[Special.]—The Democratic City Committee organized for the ensuing year to-night, and adopted strong resolutions in favor of the nomination of Grover Cleveland by the Democratic National Convention for President of the United States. Contests had been entered for seats in the committee from seven wards out of the thirty-five in the city. The matter has not yet been mentioned to Mr. Bayard, as the suggestion was only broached among Wilmington Democrats to-day, and has not had time to take definite shape, but as Mr. Bayard unhestatingly accepted a delegate's place to the last State Convention, there is no doubt he would respond as readily to the call of his party to go to Chicago.

New Bloomfield, April 4—[Special.]—At the Perry County Republican Convention, held here to-day, ex-Sheriff J. B. Lahr, of Millerstown, and ex-Judge J. B. Garber, of Anderson burg, were elected delegates to the State Convention. Resolutions were adopted approving President Harrison's administration and declaring in favor of his renomination. STEUBENVILLE Republicans elect five out of six Councilmen, and five out of six members of the Board of Education. Democrats elect a Justice of the Peace by 200 majority. Council and Board of Education will stand the same as last year, ten Republicans and two Democrats.

THE election returns from Newark, O., indicate a Waterloo for the Democrata. Nichols, Republican, for Mayor, has about 357 majority. Three of the five members of the Board of Education are Republicans, the first time the party ever had a representa-tion on that board.
