WILL END THE WORRY THIS WEEK

Holdover License Applications to Be Heard To-Morrow.

ALL THE NEWS OF THE COUNTY COURTS

The License Court did not make as rapid progress yesterday as it expected to. Me-Keesport was on the programme, but it had to go over until to-day, when the remainder of the wholesale list in the county will be completed.

To-morrow morning the cases of Thomas Delaney, George Weithaus, W. E. Currier, D. C. Neary and Mary Donly, the Pittsburg retail applicants who were held over, and Henry Mayer and A. L. Mur-phy, of the Hotel Albion, who sick when their names were called, will be heard previous to resuming the retail list. It is confidently expected that all the applicants may yet be heard this week, so that jury trials may be proceeded with next week. Judge Collier indicated last evening that the Allegheny list of those to whom retail licenses will be granted may not be given out until all the retailers are

The proceedings yesterday were about as dry as on the preceding day. The examinations consisted chiefly in inquiring into the extent of the applicant's business, and from the nature of this investigation it would seem that all who have done less than $15, 900 need not have very high hopes of get-

Listening to Southside Applicants, The Southside was taken up at the after-noon session. The first applicant was Victor Dosh, of 2214 Carson street. The majority of the applicants from that side of the river are small dealers, and there is considerable doubt that many of them will get a wholesale license.

John O'Connor and E. G. O'Connor, who have long been established at 1814 Car. who have long been established at 1814 Carson street, want to continue at the old stand. John M. Hammel and Edward J. Kirsch, of 1218 Carson street, represented that they do about the largest wholesale business on the southside. Besides supplying a great portion of the retail trade on that side of the river they furnish wines and liquors to quite a number of the city hotels.

Lewis W. Bender, of $17 Carson street, admitted that while he had had a wholesale license previously he had been prosecuted for selling at retail, but the suit was withdrawn.

Charles A. Weisberg, a former conductor on the Birmingham Traction road, said he had over $5,000, and he wants to try his luck in the business at 1002 Carson street. Joseph Greenewald was the only applicant from the Thirty-first ward. 'Squire Black and about six other witnesses appeared in his behalf.

his behalf.

August Newhausen, formerly of Steubenville, O., wants a license for 5 West Carson street to soil the product of the Schmulbach Brewing Company, of Wheeling.

The Windisch, Mulhauser Brewing Company, of Cinchinnati, with a capital of $2,500,000, wants to establish a resident agent at No. 3 West Carson street. Mr. Henry Mulhauser appeared for the company. The Court said it would be necessary for them to know something about the agent.

Night Got a Marriage License.

Might Get a Marriage License. Lee H. Weilor, the youngest applicant who has appeared before the present License Court, wants a wholesale license at No. 1 West Carson street, formerly occupied by A. A. Milligan. He is just 21 years of age, bandsome and single.

William C. Gundelfinger, of 158 Steuben street, Thirry-sixth ward, was the last ap-plicant in the city. He has had a license for three years and does a business ranging from $60,000 to $75,000 a year. He sells mostly from $60,000 to $75,000 a year. He sells mostly to the retail trade.

Frederick Andriessen, 40 and 42 Ohio street, Allegheny, was the first applicant from the Northside. He said he had a capital of $80,000, and did a business last year amounting to $40,000. He was asked no further questions.

G. Eisenbeis, the druggist, has a wholesale license now, and in addition he holds a United States retail license, which permits him to sell in quantities as great as 4½ gallons. The Court seemed to have some doubt as to the necessity of a wholesale license for a drug store, but Mr. Eisenbeis explained that he got but few prescriptions, and it was necessary for him to have the license. Mr. Christy had a remonstrance charging the applicant with permitting the sale of whisky in quarts at all bours of the night, but Mr. Eisenbeis denied this.

all bours of the night, but Mr. Eisenbeis de-nied this.

In the case of Martin Breitweiser, 131 and 133 Taggart street, Mr. Christy tried to show that the applicant was not a wholesale dealer, because he did not have a United States wholesale license. He also tried to show that Mr. Breitweiser sold beer in "Buffales," and after the Court got an ex-planation that this was a two-quart bottle the applicant denied it.

Langhorst Wants an Agency. Ex-County Detective William C. Langborst made his initial appearance before the License Court for the privilege of establishing an agency for the Fort Wayne beer on Brad-dock street, Second ward. He seemed to make a favorable impression.

A. Kochendoerfer, 249 Ohio street, said his place has been licensed constantly since 1857, and his business last year amounted to Peter Fassbinder, 159 and 160 South Canal street, did not answer when his name was called.

called.

Henry J. Gross, a eigar manufacturer, is a a new applicant at 59 Chestnut street. The Court wanted to know what his prospects were, and he said he expected to do a big business with the retail licensed houses.

When Max Kiein was called he was permitted to say that his sales last year amounted to $166,000, and Judge Collier said "call the next."

Michael Mackin is an applicant at 52 Anderson street. He was retused at the same place in 1890 and 1891 and in August of the latter year he went to Youngstown and started up there. He owns the property at 52 Anderson street and wants to come back. August Schlegel, 25 California avenue, got into a difficulty by stating that he had $32,000 invested and had done a business of $25,000 invested and had done a business of $25,000 invested and had done a business of $25,000 into a difficulty by stating that he had $32,000 invested and had done a business of $25,000 invested and had done a business of $25,000 into a difficulty by stating that he had $3,000 of his capital is in his property. Mr. Christy brought out an admission that the applicant had had his license revoked once for illegal liquor selling.

Remarkable Accusation Against Promi nent Oil Operators-Want a Receive Appointed for the Property-The De-fendants Struck a Good Well on the Disputed Property.

Charles Wessel and H. Lehman yesterday filed a petition for a writ of estrepment against J. M. Guffey, J. H. Gailey, M. Murphy, J. C. Fisher, A. McFarland, Murphy, J. C. Fisher, A. McFarland, William McFarland, Robert McFarland, the Fisher Oil Company and the Oakdale Oil Company. They state that on September 13, 1891, they leased from James Gormley a tract of land in North Fayette township for oil and gas purposes. They took possession at once, and contracted with A. D. Fenton for rigs, etc., to bore a well, and located a well. Material was delivered but on September 18, when they went to the place, timber and all was gone. Lehman went to look for the material, and Fenton and an employe started to grade for a derrick. When Lehman came back he found Fenton and the man had been arrested.

back he found Fenton and the man had been arrested.

The defendants, it is charged, had entered the land, taken possession of everything and started to bore a well. February 24, 1892, they struck on and the well for a time produced 75 barrels an hour. It is now doing 29 barrels an hour. Up to date from 20,000 to 25,000 barrels have been obtained. The petitioners have entered a suit in ejectment and until it is determined ask the court to grant the writ and appoint someone to take charge of the well with the same powers as a receiver.

Natural Gas Companies Have the Power to Cut Off Preferred Customers Judge Ewing yesterday handed down an opinion in the case of Shoenberger & Co. against the Equitable Gas Company. The plaintiffs were preferred customers and had contract with the company to give them a permanent supply of gas. The contract, however, was to be void should there be however, was to be void should there be a shortage in the supply. At the time of making the contract the supply was 50,000,000 feet of gas per day. When the notice was sent that the plaintiff's supply would be stopped the production was only 25,000,000 feet per day.

The plaintiffs wanted the Court to restrain the defendant company from shutting off their supply, but the Court decided that under the contract it would rule in favor of the defendant.

Rose Coghlan in Dorothy's Dilemma.

This afternoon and evening a new comedy, said to be full of laughter from beginning to end, will be given at the Duquesne Theater. It is "Dorothy's Dilemma," from the German of Von Moser, this adaptation being Captain Alfred Thompson's. In it Miss Coghlan plays a delightful role, embodying something of the charm of Rosalind with that of Lady Gay Spanker, both favorite parts with this talented actress. The company which supports Miss Coghlan is undoubtedly the best seen here since the Pitou stock company, and Thomas Whiffen, who is one of the most artistic character actors on the stage, has, it is said, a large opportunity in "Dorothy's Dilemma." Rose Coghlan in Dorothy's Dilemma,

It Gets Foul and Poisonous Unless It Is Rept Constantly Flowing.

At this season of the year people feel more or less weak, run down, wearied and de pressed. It has been commonly supposed that it is due to impurities of the blood, an. that only by purifying the blood can goohealth be secured. Is this true? Let us see The blood gets impure because it is sing gish. How does a stream get impure, with green scum and poisons on the top? Simply because it doesn't run. A running stream is not impure, but a stagnant or sluggish stream always is. If, therefore, you would keep your blood pure, keep it moving, keep it thirobbing. The moment it begins to be sluggish, it will begin to be impure, and you will feel the effects in tired, weak feelings, depressed emotions, and a thousand and one troubles which always follow. The proper way to keep the blood stirring is by the use of a pure stimulant, in moderation. Stimulante it gently, and it will keep in constant, healthy motion, and good health will follow. There is but one way in which this can be done, and that is by the use of the purest and beat stimulant you can find, preferably whiskey, and there is but one absolutely pure, medicinal whiskey known to the world, and that is Duffy's Pure Malt. Scientists admit this, the doctors all confirm it. It is more generally used to-day than any other whiskey which the world has ever seen, and it is popular only through its merit. Do not let any druggistor grocer decive you by saving they have something "just as good," "something they can recommend," etc. When any dealer says this he has an interested motive, which usually is to sell you something cheap and inferior, on which he can make more money. Do not be so deceived. pressed. It has been commonly supposed that it is due to impurities of the blood, an
