The State Board of Charities Finishes Taking Evidence in OSBOURN'S REFORMATORY CASE.

RECORDS OF PUNISHMENT DEFECTIVE

PHILADELPHIA, April 6.—At the Huntington Reformatory investigation this morning before the State Board of Charities, Deputy Superintendent Smith was recalled by his counsel to testify concerning the temperature of the chair factory, which an inmate yesterday declared was always cold.

Smith was then subjected to a rigid cross-examination on the subject of recording punishments, during which he declared that every conflict or altercation between himself and any prisoner was reported verbally to Superintendent Patton, and that every punishment was written in the record with the exception of the ball-and-chain method, which was used six times in all.

He had considered Johnson dangerous, and asked Patton two months before to have him removed elsewhere. In all cases, except those of Johnson and Maginnis, who was mentioned yesterday, the ball was detached from the chain. A 20-pound ball was placed on Johnson, because the prisoner himself said that nothing else would have any effect on him.

A BARONET LETTER CARRIER.

While Yet a Poor Carpenter He Passed a Civil Service Examination. CHICAGO, April 6.—Sir George Northedge, the baronet who fell heir to over $1,000,000 left by his grandfather, and who is now in Chicago, is wanted at the Chicago postoffice. Before the windfall Sir George was a poor carpenter living on State street. Tiring of manual labor, Northedge went to the post-office and took a civil service examination as a letter carrier. This was two months ago. To-day the postoffice officials looked over the list of those who had passed the examination, and the very first name at the top of the list was none other than that of Northedge. He passed a high average and stood near the top.

SAKE FOR CHICAGO PEOPLE

Japanese Capitalists Organize to Establish a Factory for Their Beverage. SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., April 6.—A letter from Yokohama states that leading Japanese capitalists of that city and a number of Japanese in Chicago are completing the necessary arrangements for the establishment in Chicago of a Japanese sake brewery, with a capital of $250,000. The brewery is to be called "Takamine Shuren Jojo Kaisha." The President of the company will probably be Takamine Jokichi, ex-chief of the analysis section in the agricultural and sufficient department of the Japanese government. He sailed March 27 from Yokohama, and will go direct to Chicago.

In Memoriam. It is deemed that some notice should be taken by the Managers of the Home for Colored Children of the loss which it has sustained in the death of Mrs. Julia Wilmarth Bellamy. Therefore, at a special meeting of the board, the following memorial minute was passed and ordered to be printed and a copy sent to the bereaved family.

Another of the oldest and most valued friends of our institution has passed away. Mrs. Bellamy had been a member of the Executive and Visiting Committees of the Home, having held this arduous position with unflinching interest and devotion for many years.

McWatt's Easter Spoon Is pronounced by all the most exquisite souvenir spoons yet produced.

Dr. Miller Gives Medical Testimony. Dr. Miller was questioned concerning his institution and of nine others who were discharged when their cases were regarded as incurable. Of these 18 cases 12 were consumptive, and concerning eight of them no information could be obtained as to any inherited taint. The witness did not consider this a large percentage, or that the institution was unhealthy. The doctor denied that John McGinnis was in a sickly condition when punished with the ball and chain, and also denied Harry Anderson's statement that he was chained in the solitary cell 19 days standing on his mat and floor.

The Evidence Now All In. Chairman Scott then pressed the attorneys to bring the investigation to a conclusion, but Mr. Ryan, a member of the board, declared himself dissatisfied with the flat contradiction by the management of Anderson's statement that he had been chained up 19 days. He desired to hear the evidence of Officer Blaine, who had charge of the prisoners. Mr. Scott argued, however, that the corroboration or contradiction of this witness would have but slight weight in proportion to the great mass of testimony already taken at the previous hearings in Huntington, and the Board thereupon declared the taking of evidence at an end.
