WOMEN WANT A VOTE.

Objection to a Rule Adopted by the Prohibition Convention.

MILLION-VOTE SCHEME INDORSED.

The Baker Ballot Law Strongly Denounced by the Delegates.

PROFESSOR DICKSON FILES A PROTEST

The convention of Allegheny County Prohibitionists, which met in the recital room of the University building yesterday, to nominate senatorial, legislative and State Convention delegates, was a rather lively meeting. At 2 o'clock, when Chairman H. E. Cole, of the county organization, called the meeting to order 120 delegates were present, seven of whom were ladies.

As soon as the Chairman announced that the meeting was ready for business a number of delegates jumped to their feet to offer motions or make suggestions, but there was so much confusion that no one obtained recognition. In the meantime Mr. Andrew Bryce and Rev. Mr. Turner got into an argument. Rev. Mr. Turner wanted order and the floor, and Mr. Bryce wanted the floor and order. Mr. Bryce said sareastically that he had heard of Mr. Turner, and the latter replied that Mr. Bryce would hear of him again.

Got Right Down to Business,

At this point County Organizer McClain announced that the professor of the University feared that the plaster would fall upon his pupils unless better order was kept in the convention. This hint brought the delegates to order, and L. L. Laughlin was elected Temporary Chairman, Mrs. A. F. Bryce Secretary and R. F. Alters Assistant Secretary by a unanimous vote and considerable noise. Mr. Laughlin made a little hit by addressing the convention as "fellow citizens and those who ought to be." A committee of five was appointed to examine the credentials of the delegates, and while these ones were out two hats were passed among the delegates for money to pay expenses. The Chair said $150 was needed and the delegates came forward and contributed $22 29.

After the collection had been taken up the Committee on Credentials came in and permanent officers were elected. G. H. Garber, Chairman; H. L. Castle, Vice Chairman; Mrs. A. F. Bryce, Secretary, and R. F. Altars, Assistant Secretary.

A Protest From Professor Dickson A motion was made seconded and carried to have the chair appoint committees on Resolutions, Finance and Organization, and then County Secretary Vickeman moved to adjourn for 30 minutes so the delegates could go into caucus.

This aroused Prof. Dickson, and he declared that the people of Findlay, of whom he was one, objected. "We are not satisfied," said he. "We are not being fairly treated. You want to drive us out of this convention. You know, and everybody else knows, we have to make a train in 45 else knows, we have to make a train in 45 minutes, and you want the time to be made so long that we cannot stay."

To meet Prof. Dickson's objection the time for the caucus was limited to 15 minutes. During the interim Editor Swoger suggested that all present sign the million-vote pledge, which is a declaration that the signer is one of a million who will vote for a prohibition government. The suggestion was received coldly and the matter dropped. matter dropped.

Lady Delegates Wanted a Vote.

The Committee on Organization recommended the adoption of the rules of the Al legheny County Executive Committee. The rules were generally satisfactory with the exception of the one which entities all persons to vote "who shall have voted at prior elections." As this rule prohibits women from voting it met with strong objections, but was finally sustained.

The Committee on Pinance ordered the convention to work diligently and raise funds by private contributions

The Committee on Resolutions announce their allegiance and promised support to the State and National platform of prohibition; denounced the Baker law because it cut off many people from voting who lived in the Thirty-seventh district; commended the efforts of Alleghenians who are trying to suppress vice; declared the million-vote scheme to be a good one, and urged every-body to work hard for the success of the prohibition movement.

Voted Down Sunday Resolutions. At the evening session the convention was opened with the report of the Committee on Resolutions. A resolution against the keeping of the World's Fair open on Sunday and protesting against the sale of intoxicating liquors on the grounds was opened on the ground that this was a natural question, and after a spirited dis-cussion, in which half a dozen delegates took part, was voted down. A resolution condemning trusts and combinations of all

The convention then set to work to nominate candidates for the Legislature and for members of Congress, with the following

Twenty-second Congressional district— Mr. L. T. Yoder. Twenty-third district—J. J. Porter. Twenty-fourth district—A. K. Williamson, of McKeesport, was recommended to the Second Legislative district—J. W. Vicker-man and A. R. Miller.

Fifth Legislative district—J. Moss, J. H. Connick, Rev. I. N. Peabody and J. G. Beam. Beam.
Sixth Legislative district—B. F. Stark and
H. E. Cole. Seventh Legislative district—David Reel and F. X. Meyers, Eighth Legislative district — Thomas

State and National Convention Delegates. The convention next selected delegates to the State Convention, which will meet in Scranton in June, after which Mrs. A. F. Bryce and George Connick were selected as delegates-at-large to the National Conven-tion. The next business was to select mem-bers of the County Central Committee, which was done without any great amount of trouble. A resolution was offered which read as follows: "It is the sense of the convention that it does not recognize any newspaper as the organ of the Prohibition party in Allegheny county, or as voicing its sentiments."

This was a direct attack on the National Issue, a paper owned by Daniel Swoger. He took the floor against it, but he had almost the entire convention to fight, and the west the entire convention to fight and the reso-lution was put through. The convention practically marked a new deal for the Prohibitionists. About a year deal for the Probibitionists. About a year ago the Kévstone Club was organized. Its tounders claimed there was a "ring" in the party in this county and their avowed object was to break it up. Their opportunity came yesterday. They controlled the hall, put policemen on the doors and admitted no one but delegates with credentials. When the test came, on the election of a Temporary Chairman, they had 72 votes to $2 for the old managers. Then they changed 32 for the old managers. Then they changed the rules for electing delegates, and now de-clare that they will hereafter conduct the affairs of the party on a business basis.

A Texas Steer Coming. "A Texas Steer," Charles H. Hoyt's latest effort, a satire on political life at Washington, will have its first hearing this season in Pittsburg at the Duquesne on Monday night. It is in its successful author's happiest style, and the eccentricities of a Texan Congressman and the adventures which befall him at the mation's capital are sketched in a most laughable manner. As Maverick Brander, the individual in question, Tim Murphy shows the rapid advance he has made as a legitimate comedian. His impersonation is one of tare merit. The author's wife, Florn Walsh, appears to excellent advantage, and the entire company has been engaged with a special reference to getting all that there is out of "A Texas Steer."

ANOTHER REFUGE GOING.

The New Extradition Treaty With Germany Will Make That Country an Unsafe Harbor for Embezziers-A Disagreement on the Question of Expense. BERLIN, April 7.-Minister Phelps is naking good progress with the new extradition treaty. The treaties now existing, made many years ago with the different governments of the then existing "German Bund," contain many imperfections which have led in several instances to failures of justice. Mr. Phelps, in conjunction with the Washington Government, has been planning for a new treaty ever since his ap-planning for a new treaty ever since his appointment as Minister, but the more urgent work on the pork ordinances delayed attention to this matter.

Last year, however, a case occurred that showed so glaringly the imperfections of the present treaties that Minister Phelps decided to go to work at once. A man named Hoit, who had embezzled the funds of a New York electric light company, fied to named Hoit, who had embezzled the funds of a New York electric light company, fled to Furope. He escaped the English police, who tried to arrest him on board of a Ham-burg steamer, and came on to Germany, where he was arrested at the request of the American legation. Strong efforts were made to secure his extradition, but, owing to the fact that the treaty recognized only the embezzlement of money from the to the fact that the treaty recognized only the embezzlement of money from the United States Government and not from private people, the fellow was released. He then had the impudence to apply to the legation for a passport, as he could not se-cure one at Washington owing to his sud-den departure from America. His modest den departure from America. His modest request was not granted.

The new treaty is almost finished. It will contain many important additions to the present category of extradifable crimes, such as embezzlement, obtaining money by false pretenses, perjury and crimes committed on the high sea, like mutiny, etc. The one point of difference between Minister Phelps and Baron Von Marschall, the German Secretary of Foreign Affairs, is on the payment of expenses. The American idea is that each country should pay its own expenses. This is unsatisfactory to Germany. penses. This is unsatisfactory to Germany. The Foreign Office says it has rarely recovered a criminal from America without pay-ing at least $300, and there have been cases where thousands have been paid in counsel fees. In Germany, on the other hand, the duty of securing the capture and retention of a fugitive from justice "wanted" by America devalves upon the prosecuting offi-America devolves upon the prosecuting offi-cers, and no charge is made for their serv-ices. Hence the Germans think the present arrangement very one-sided.

NO SHAMROCK FOR WOLSELEY.

Irish Commoners S'ill Badgering the Min istry on the St. Patrick Topic.

LONDON, April 7 .- In the House of Commons to-day, John MacNeill asked the Secretary of War whether he was aware that General Wolseley, Commander of the forces in Ireland, and his staft usually wear the shamrock on their regimentals on St. Patrick's Day, and whether General Wolseley had gained the consent of the Duke of Cambridge, Commander in Chief of the forces, to wear it. Mr. Stanhope replied that General Wolse-ley and his staff were at liberty to wear the shamrock at their own discretion. General Wolseley, as a matter of fact, did not wear the shamrock on St. Patrick's Day. Mr. MacNeill exclaimed, "The more shame for

of the Interior has prepared restrictions to be placed upon foreigners who settle in Russia. All such who acquire lands must adopt the Russian nationality within three years or quit the country.

The stipulations under which citizenship is granted are made more stringent. For-eigners must become conversant with the Russian language and with the fundamental laws of the Empire. The Ministry of the Interior has the power to refuse applications for natural isolation without stating reasons. Foreigners must qualify for naturalization by five years' residence

SOCIETY WILL ALL BE THERE.

Bill Nye, the Famous Humorist, and A. P. Burbank, the Brilliant Dramatic Enter tainer, to Be Greeted by a Splendid Audience at Old City Hall To-Morrow

Night,
Society appreciates a rare literary entertainment even though it may be given during the Lenten season. The refluement of humor and the subtlety of brilliant wit are always in order. Those who have heard these famous entertainers know that nothing that would not be enjoyed by the most refined and exacting taste is allowed a place in their programme.

It is for this reason that the majority of their audiences everywhere come from the better classes of society. It is the intellectual class that most appreciate the high-class entertainment given by these distinguished gentiemen. Among those to be seen in line at Mellor & Hoene's music store, 77 Fifth avenue, procuring tickets were leading business and professional men—lawyers and clergymen, merchants and bankers. The full dress costume will undoubtedly predominate in the audience. These eminent entertainers will have reason to remember the cordial reception that Pittsburg will give them.
