JOURNALISTIC ENTERPRISE. FARMER—That was a stavin' paper you got out last week. COUNTRY EDITOR—The glad to hear that you were pleased with it. FARMER—Them stories you had in about them fellers bein' cured of long-standin' dis-eases were the entertainingist bit of news I've read for a long time.—Puck. You'd believe in patent medicines if they didn't profess to cure everything. And, you can't always tell the prescription that cures by what you read in the papers. So, perhaps, there's no better way to sell a remedy, than to tell the truth about it, and take the risk of its doing just what it pro-fesses to do. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not fesses to do. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a "cure-all," but is only adapted to those diseases peculiar to women. It fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a perfect spe-cific in all chronic weaknesses, functional and painful disorders peculiar to the sex. It's a powerful, invigorating tonic, and a scothing and strengthening nervine-purely vegetable, perfectly harmless. For ulcera-tions, displacements, bearing-down reasa-tions, unnatural discharges — everything that's known as a "female complaint"-it's a positive remedy.
