Manifestly, by strengthening and fortifying the body by having the health and strength so secure that pneumonia will not attack, or if it should, can easily be warded off. This can be done by careful living, careful diet and a moderate use of a pure stimulant. To gently assist nature a stimulant is required, something that adds to the life and vigor. #### TRYING TO CHEAT EGYPT. Turkey Wanted a Slice of Her Territory, but

Salisbury Suspected Duplicity and Insisted on a Change in the Firman of Investiture of the Khedive.

LONDON, April 8.-Lord Salisbury has scored in the diplomatic contest with France and Russia over the firman of investiture of TWO BY THEIR OWN RED HANDS, the Khedive of Egypt. The position has for a week past harassed and perplexed the Foreign Office, perhaps more than even the Bering Sea question ever did.

The Sultan stole a march upon English diplomacy in sending a firman so phrased as to exclude from the Egyptian frontier the whole Siani peninsula and part of the Red Sea littoral, which were ceded to Ismail Pasha and have been held by Egypt for half a century. Before the firman was drafted the English Ambassador at Constantinople, alive to the possibility of some action of this sort, demanded that the document should not introduce any question concerning the frontier, and received assurance that the firman would not touch the Khedive's rights.

When the Sultan's Envoy, Euob Pasha, arrived at Cairo, the British Minister, Sir Evelyn Baring, suspecting some duplicity, asked for a copy of the document, and when Eyoub Pasha refused to communicate the ontents of the firman till after the investiture Minister Baring advised the Khedive not to proceed with the ceremony. Evoub Pasha then disclosed the substance of the firman, the nature of which had been known and approved by France and Russia before the missive left Constantinople. The Consuls General at Cairo at once ranged themselves on two sides, the Italian and Austrian representatives meeting at the English Embassy and the French and Russian diplomats at the residence of the plenipotentiary. The Italian which was about to leave Alex-Turkish andria, got orders to stay. Yesterday the British and Italian Ambassadors at Constantinople sent a joint note to the Grand Vizier, saying that the firman must be altered or Eyoub Pasha recalled. ### ULSTER HOTTER THAN EVER

An Orange Rebeilion Certain When Ire land Gets Her Parliament,

LONDON, April 8 .- A meeting in Belfast of the Ulster Defense Committee, the Mayor presiding, to arrange for a convention, went a degree beyond the recent Ulster Commoners' gathering in the violence of their tirades. The pretense of secrecy of the proceedings enabled the speakers to engage in warlike trumpetings, and the resolutions recorded Ulster's determination to have nothing to do with the Dublin Parliament, which is certain to be controlled by men who are responsible for the crimes of the League, and who are mere tools of clerical domination; and an attempt to set up such a Parliament will inevitably result in dis-order, violence and bloodshed to an extent that has been unknown in Ireland for century.

Major Saunderson denied that the British Parliament had any right to hand them over to another Legislature which they would never obey, and the sentiment was received with frantic cheering. T. W. CANTON, April 8 .- A most deplorable tragedy occurred here this afternoon by which L. T. Waltenbaugh and John Mc-Curdy lost their lives, and Mrs. McCurdy was seriously wounded. It occurred in McCurdy's house, where the killing was done by a revolver in the hands of McCurdy. There were no witnesses to the shooting, and the particulars can only be guessed at The first intimation of the occurrence was the hearing by H. J. Shorb, who was working on a building adjoining the McCurdy lot, of a pistol shot. He paid no attention to it until Mrs. McCurdy was seen standing at the fence. Her hands were upraised and she exclaimed, "I'm shot, and am dying." Mr. Shorb assisted her to the house in which he was working.

McCurdy came over and asked her to go back with him to the house. He had a revolver in his hand. Shorb demanded the revolver before she should return, which McCurdy handed over.

A window opening upon the yard was broken, it would seem, from the outside, and the curtain looks as if a shot had been fired through the opening. It is sup-posed that McCurdy, looking through the window, saw them together, and fired into the room where Waltenbaugh was found. There was a mark on the plastering which indicates that after firing the first shot Mc-Curdy waited on the outside at the door Waltenbaugh came out, and fired again. Waltenbaugh is an aged plasterer with a wife and several children. His family is highly esteemed. McCurdy is somewhat younger, and also a plasterer. He has been married for several years and has a child. It is said he had previously warned Waltenbaugh not to interfere in his domestic affairs.

She was 18 years old last November, a beautiful and lovable giri, always enjoyed excellent health up to her last illness, and the only health up to her last illness, and the only mystery surrounding her untimely death is who killed her. Four other physicians assisted me in holding a post mortem, and I am willing to make affidavit in any court at any time that the girl was poisoned, and I know those who assisted will corroborate me. His murderers, it is thought, first compelled him to open his saie and give them what money he had—about $8,000—and then, fearing that he had recognized them, killed him after getting outside.

Detectives were unable to find the murderers. But Edward Gordon, editor of the

The two troops of cavalry are camped near the main road to the reservation, and the guard noticing the unusual amount of travel in that lirection, troops were immediately ordered to follow and bring them back. Some of the teams were overhauled about two miles out and have returned, but a few of them must be 15 miles out by this time, and if the cavalry is seen in time they may lead them a long chase. The town is filling up rapidly with prospectors and homesteaders, and the rush is well com-menced. Hundreds arrive on every train.

They find the red-skins have captured the most valuable lands, and feel that what is left is not worth contending for. But others will come to fill the places of the dissatis-fied ones, and the day of opening, now pre-dicted to be April 22d, will find people enough here to take all the valuable homes.

RAVACHOL CLEARS THE COURT.

He Frightens Judges, Jury and Spectar With a Piece of Banana.

IBY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH, J PARIS, April & .- The trial of Ravachol has been fixed for April 25. At the examination to-day Ravachol played a joke on the large crowd in the court room which caused great excitement for a time. which caused great excitement for a time. The prisoner suddenly produced an article of a cylindrical shape, of which a good view could not be obtained owing to it being partly covered by the Anarchist's hand. It had the appearance of a dynamite cartridge, and the prisoner pretended that it was an infernal machine. Instantly there was a stampede, and the Judge and the Clerk of the Court fled from the room in terror and sought a place of safety. The frightened officials would not return until they were assured that there was no danger, and were shown the article which Ravachol had had in his possession. It proved to be, not a dynamite cartridge,

SEVERITY FOR SPANISH ANARCHISTS.

The Government Will Shut Down on All

MADRID, April 8.—The Minister of Justice has sent a circular letter to the pro-vincial authorities, stating that all fomentors of disturbance and all persons who advocate Anarchist principles, whether by sgitation in the streets or in the newspapers, must be treated with the greatest severity. The possessors of bombs or other explosives who are convicted of the intention to use them will be punished with penal servitude for life.

The circular further says that the authorities must endeaver to break up all secret societies. The Socialist party has issued an appeal to its colleagues to confine themselves to quiet demonstrations on May Day. Several of the opposition papers declare that the discovery of the bombs in Madrid was due to a plot of the police. SOUTHERN VETERANS MEET.

Good Wife Suggests Cuticura Remedies Uses Them Seven Months, and is Entirely Cured.

I was in the war during 1863-64, and took a heavy cold at Gettysburg, from which I never fully recovered. In 1875-1 broke out in sores all over my chest and shoulder, which seemed impossible to cure. I tried all the famed doctors I could find and to no await. I expended some five thousand dollars trying to find a cure, but could not, and finally giving myself up to die, my good wife suggested to me, one day, to try the CUTICUTA REMEDIES, which were so extensively advertised and used. I followed her suggestion, and am happy to say by diligent application of your CUTICUTA REMEDIES for seven months I was entirely cured, after spending five years of time and money without avail, and am a sound and well man to-day, you may refer to me if you wish, as I will tell any one who may call on me my experience.
