How the American Refining Company is to Control the Market.

BROAD TERMS OF THE CAPITULATION

Contrary to the reports from the East that the Sugar Trust is weakening, absolute proof was found in Pittsburgh yesterday that all the wholesale and importing grocers of the county are bowing their heads to the great corporation and are asking to be taken care of.

Wholesalers Bow in Submission to the Trust.

THEY REALLY AIDED THE COMBINE.

Wholesale Grocers of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, do not intend to appeal to you for such change on your terms of sale as shall secure to the wholesaler trade a profit on sugar at least sufficient to cover the cost of distribution and collection.

This petition is signed by all the wholesale grocers in the two cities, with two exceptions, and they will affix their names to the petition, with the signatures of the petition from each of the wholesale grocers' associations of the country, praying that the American Sugar Refining Company establish a fixed price for this article of food, and allow every 30 days or three months a rebate to the wholesale dealers which will give them at least a fair margin of profit.

NEWS OF THE WORLD OF LABOR

To-day the strike committee of the Builders' Exchange and the committee from the Union Bricklayers will have another conference.

It is not at all probable that the strikers' committee had a meeting. The whole ground was gone over. It was decided to vest the committee with the entire power of settling the difficulty, and the union gave the committee its ultimatum.

The Master Bricklayers also held a meeting yesterday. It, too, decided to give the committee which is to go into the conference full power to act.

Insist Upon a $4 Daily.

Last night it was learned from the strikers that they did not expect the conference to-day would result in a settlement.
