

AN END TO THE AGONY

Expected to Be Reached in the License Court by To-Morrow.

ALLEGHENY LIST STILL HUNG UP.

The Boroughs Completed and Work Begun on the Townships.

APPLICANTS GROUND IN THE MILL

Two more days will end the License Court agony, so far as hearings are concerned, but there will be no announcements made before the latter part of the week and probably not then.

The townships that will be heard to-day are Harrison, Indiana, Jefferson, Lower St. Clair, Marshall, Midlin, McCandless and North Versailles. The remainder of the list will be heard to-morrow.

Judge Slagle said last evening that he could not tell when they would be ready to hand down the Allegheny list.

The Sharsburg hearings opened the day's work. Henry Stein, in whose saloon the trouble originated that resulted in the killing of a man, was closely questioned on the matter. The murder really grew out of the Moorhead strike.

John M. Young had Constable Wallace for one of his witnesses. The constable said there were six speak-easies on the street Young's house is on. He had not returned any of them. John Zurek had to face a remonstrance charging him with illegal liquor selling at Ross' Grove. He denied having broken the law.

Serious Charges Against Applicants.

In Spring Garden borough Henry Bueher was charged with keeping a house in which disturbances had occurred during the past year. Fred Doepke admitted that he had been charged with illegal selling. Amelia Fisher did not answer.

West Liberty borough had three applicants, who went through rapidly. In Wilkesburg Joseph Knuff is an applicant. There is a remonstrance against him. Constable Sturgeon and ex-Constable Freeman were witnesses against him and claimed that when Knuff had a wholesale license he did not keep the house properly.

The applicants hearing the morning other than those noted above were: Sharsburg—John Altmyer, J. N. Brazz, F. Braun, Y. Bevard, J. E. James, Escherran, George Hahn, John Joyce, T. J. Murphy, Patrick McBride, Andrew Noo, Charles O'Donnell, F. C. Filburn, Anna M. Raun, S. Ritter, J. W. Reddinger and W. J. Sullivan.

Spring Garden—Mary Neuber, George Oesterle and D. M. Smith. West Liberty—John C. Bandt, Adolph Bohme and John Frost.

Wilkesburg—M. McKenna, Thomas McCann, Joseph Redfern, Mrs. Kate Sullivan and S. Whalen.

The first case heard after the noon recess was that of William A. Diamond, of Oakmont. There were several remonstrances against him, and a large number of witnesses testified that his place was neither necessary nor desired.

Commencing on the Townships.

John Hays, of Baldwin township, did not appear when his name was called. The townships were reached about 3 o'clock, and an effort will be made to complete the entire list on Thursday.

When Christian Schmidt was called Mr. Brennan called three character witnesses for his client. Christian in answering the question bearing on Mr. Schmidt's habits, said: "Well, he gets a little tipsy once in a while."

"Well," said Mr. Brennan, "is he a temperate drinker?"

"Not very," replied the witness, and Judge Slagle smilingly said: "Call the next."

Peter Schuetz, of Middle street, said his name appeared about six a day, but on special occasions he had served as many as 75. A number of witnesses, including Mr. Schaub, the Knuffville tunnel director, testified that a place was necessary at this point for the accommodation of the people attending funerals. Drivers eat their meals and feed their horses.

Peter Frost, proprietor of the "Buck Tavern," said he had had a license for seven years, and was asked no questions.

William Young was the last applicant in Baldwin township.

Samuel H. McCartney was the only applicant from Chartiers township. The application of Frederick Goldstrom, of Forward township, was withdrawn.

There was a remonstrance against Michael Diven, of Forward township, in which is located "Hell's Half Acre," within seven miles of Arcene McClure's home. Mr. McClure tried to give the court an unfavorable impression of the applicant, but Mr. Diven got through without much difficulty.

Keeping the Townships Dry.

Mr. Christy had a remonstrance against all applicants in Hampton township. There has been no license in the township under the Brooks law, and a number of witnesses were called to testify that there was no necessity.

In Daniel Hart's case it was shown that the applicant had been convicted and imprisoned once for illegal liquor selling. When Samuel McCutcheon was called, Mr. Christy said: "Mr. McCutcheon, was it not brought out at the hearing last year that you had furnished liquor on election day?"

"No, sir," replied the applicant quickly, "you tried to prove it, but you had no evidence."

Mr. DeHaven, one of Mr. Christy's witnesses, said when Morris Stein was called that there was no objection for a public house in that neighborhood, and added that any time any of the judges or county officials were out his way he would entertain them for nothing.

William Wahl, the last applicant, had had a license from the Butler county courts for 11 years, but the same objection was made to him.

The other applicants heard in the afternoon were: Baldwin Township—Charles Adamintz, A. Alborn, Peter Bernarding, John A. Engert, William Frayer, Frederick Fisher, Ezekiel Gordon, John Hays, William Hold, David Moore, August Mr. Ed. Sarnberger, E. F. Othausen, Joseph P. Hamilton, John Plappert, Charles Reiche, Patrick Rodgers, Valentine Rindaus, William A. Schnab, Peter Trenhauser, Gottlieb Voelckel and Robert C. Wolf.

Collier Township—Abram Frank Patrick, Feeney, S. W. Friedman, James McGrogan, James Orris, Jacob Teyssier, Edward Webster and Louis Wiseman.

Forward Township—Henry Householder and A. J. Kelly.

You would not suspect it from the taste; there is cod-liver oil in Scott's Emulsion.

It looks like cream; it is like cream. Cream is bits of butter covered with something else—you do not taste the butter. Scott's Emulsion is drops of cod-liver oil covered with glycerine.

Cream is an easier food than butter, because it is in bits. Scott's Emulsion is cod-liver oil made easy; the drops are invisibly fine; they do not resist digestion.

Will you read a book on it? Free.

There's a Striking Contrast

Between our Home-Made $10 Suits and some of the overpraised, but half-made-up material with which purchasers are frequently deluded. You can easily pay more for a suit that is not worth mentioning in the same breath with them. Buyers have a remedy in their own hands. The dealer that can't be relied upon is the dealer to be avoided. You can't give him too wide a berth. Do you know what sort of a wearer our suits are made for? They were made for the wearer who is fastidious, critical and hard to please; the wearer who buys with his eyes open. Examine our line of Spring Suits; it will certainly pay you. Do we make clothing to order? Well, we should say we do; hundreds of suits made every week, Mr. I. Jackson, with 2 expert cutters, working as hard as they can.

| SALE APRIL 14. | A BIG Steel Plant. | ALIQUIPPA ON THE P. & L. E. R. R. | A BIG Shovel Works | SALE APRIL 14. |

FIRST PUBLIC SALE OF LOTS AT ALIQUIPPA

Will Take Place on Thursday, April 14, 1892.

The interest manifested by people generally who have savings to invest in a town so solidly started as ALIQUIPPA, and by those who are trying to make an investment, expecting to realize by the sale of their purchase on an increased value, which the low prices set by the company have made doubly sure, is a guarantee that the first sale will be wonderfully successful. For the past three weeks the office of the Aliquippa Steel Co., Room 30, Westinghouse Building, has had a steady flow of people, who call to see the plans and assure themselves that the new town is a straight deal, and not a land speculation, the only object of the owners being to dispose of their property at a big profit, and let the purchasers make the town at Aliquippa. The three big factories, and others asking for factory sites, intend to stay and build the town. Thousands of dollars are, and will be, invested in them, assuring work to a large population and continued prosperity. All the improvements have been made at the expense of the companies, for which the lot purchasers will not be held responsible, although receiving full benefit. They have their railroad switches in, their works up, gas wells drilled, boardwalks down and other permanent improvements made. No lots will be sold until April 14, although over one-fifth of the lots have been picked out already, many of whom offered to build immediately if given a deed, and will be allotted to those selecting them only on condition that they be at the sale to secure them. It is not the intention to sell the cream lots in the plan before the sale. All will have equal chances. Attend the sale if possible. In the meantime see the plans, and if not able to be at the sale, get a friend to secure a lot for you, and make money by so doing.

SALES EVERY SATURDAY AFTER APRIL 14.
