SILVER SPLITS NEBRASKA DEMOCRATS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAPHIC LETTER.] WASHINGTON, D. C., April 14.

Of the Pennsylvania members of the Fifty-second Congress it is now pretty well decided that Bingham, of the First district; O'Neill, of the Second: McAleer, of the Third; Reyburn, of the Fourth; Harmer, of the Fifth; Robinson, of the Sixth; Mutchler, of the Eighth; Brunner, of the Ninth; Brosius, of the Tenth (already renominated); Reilly, of the Thirteenth; Rife, of the Fourteenth; Wright, of the Fifteenth; Hopkins, of the Sixteenth; Wolverton, of the Seventeenth; Atkinson, of the Eighteenth; Beltzhoover, of the Nineteenth; Huff, of the Twenty-first; Dalzell, of the Twenty-second: W. A. Stone, of the Twenty-third; Charles W. Stone, of the Twentyseventh, and Kribbs, of the Twenty-eighth, will be renominated and re-elected. Hailowell, Democrat, of the Bucks and Montgomery (Seventh) district, was elected by less than 200 votes, and may be defeated in this Presidental year by his antagonist of 1890, L. P. Wanger.

Ammerman, of the Scranton (Eleventh) district, is not a candidate, and it is prob-able that ex-Representative Joe Scranton, a Republican, may again have a seat in the

Not Lost to Sight Very Long.

Shouk, of the Luzerne (Twelfth) district. who bids fair to be unseated in the contest his Democratic opponent, Reynolds, is waging against him, will doubtless be reminsted and elected.

Scull, of the Twentieth district, has been ominated by Blair and Cambria counties, Hicks has been nominated in Blair, and a nomination of a Bedford man will be made in that county. The advantage is with Scull however, and his handsome face, the best preserved ever seen upon a man of 74 years, will doubtless not be lost to the

In the Twenty-third district, from which the Democratic House ousted the member cleeted Colonel Stewart, and seated Craig, Ernest Acheson, of Washington, a brother of Judge Acheson, will probably be nominated by the Republicans. Craig will try for the Democratic renomination, but will have strong Democratic opposition and the talented Washington editor will doubt-

The Outlook for Other Contests. In the Mercer-Lawrence-Butler-Beaver (Twenty-fifth) district, now represented by a Democrat through a Republican split, a a Democrat through a Republican split, a Republican will almost surely be elected this year. The sitting member, Eugene Gillespie, of Greenville, Mercer county, is a very talented young lawyer, who, in his first term, has won golden opinions from men of both parties in Congress, and will be much missed, but it is probable that he expects little more than the compliment of a renomination.

Hon. Matthew Griswold, of the Erie-Crawford, is another first term member and a most admirable character whose absence in the next Congress will be much missed. He was not a candidate for renomination, and will be succeeded by Dr. Flood, of Meadville, the choice of the Republican Thus it will be seen that few changes will take place in the present representation from Pennsylvania. The members now stand 17 Republicans to 11 Democrats. Changes will probably take place in favor of the Republicans in the Seventh, Eleventh, Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth districts, which, with two Republican Congressmen at large, will give the delegation in the Fifty-third Congrees 23 Republicans and 7

NO SHOW FOR REPUBLICANS

In Florida, Therefore No Candidates Are to Be Nominated.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., April 14.-The Republican State Convention was in session all night, and finally elected delegates at large to the Minneapolls convention. They are instructed to vote for Benjamin Harrison for President as long as his name appears before the convention. The McKinley bill is indorsed, and regret is expressed that the force bill was not passed.

The Democratic election law in Florida is spoken of in bitter terms as dishonest and tyrannical, and the platform closes by declaring that in view of the present ballot have law it is deemed useless to place any box law it is deemed useless to place any Republican ticket in the field this year, either National, Congressional or State. The convention then adjourned.

A HALT ON THE BIG WIGWAM. Chleago Democrats Must Put Up. More

Money Before It Is Completed. CHICAGO, April 14.-Another hitch has occurred in the work of building the Democratic National Convention wigwam, and several days' time will probably be lost in consequence. The property owners on the lake front to-day demanded a deposit of $50,000 cash before permitting the work to proceed, the required deposit being to make certain the wigwam would be torn down immediately after the convention, instead of being left indefinitely for miscellaneous This raises the amount of subscriptions necessary to $65,000, and thus far the arrangement committee has secured only

Young Logan on His Own Merits. Youngstown, O., April 14 .- [Special.]-John A. Logan, Jr., was interviewed to-day as to his candidacy for delegate to Minheapolis. He is out for the honor, is friendly to Alger, but thinks Harrison will be nominated on the first ballot. He says: "If I am selected as a delegate the Eighteenth Ohio district will know it is represented, with my acquaintance among public men."

Wyoming Democrats Favor Bill. CHEYENNE, WYO., April 14. - The

Wyoming Democratic State Convention, which met at Douglas, yesterday, adjourned at noon to-day. Six delegates and six al-ternates were elected to the Chicago Convention. The delegation was uninstructed but favors D. B. Hill for President.

Harrison Instructions Tabled, LEWISTON, PA., April 14.-The Republican conference, Eighteenth district, to-day elected C. F. Espenshade, of Juniata, and J. J. Cromer, of Fulton, delegates to Minne-apolis. S. Shock, of Snyder, was chosen Instructions for Harrison were Earles was re-elected Chairman of Farmers' Alliance was held here to-day. An attempt was made to organize a new party after the plan suggested at the National Convention at St. Louis, but it failed, and it is said the Alliance will not put a local ticket in the field this year.

ALGER STILL IN THE RING,

Although His Own State Delegates Are Not Instructed for Him-They Are All Harrison Men-The Administration Warmly Indorsed by the Convention at Detroit. DETROIT, April 14 .- [Special.] -Some eated contests and debates were expected at the Republican State Convention to-day. It was uneventful, though, and did not afford a tart remark. The convention came order about noon, Congress-to order about noon, Congress-man E. P. Allen presiding. D. M. Ferry, of Detroit, C. W. Wells, of Saginaw, D. A. Blodgett, of Grand Rapids, and J. M. nor selections were made. While no instructions were given them, it was clearly understood that the delegates and alternates were Harrison men, though the Alger men rely on them to vote for the Michigan candidate, The Alger men made no efforts to change the state of affairs. Senator McMullan was re-elected Chairman of the State Central Committee by acclama-

The Committee on Resolutions presented a report, the meat of which came in the following paragraph:

We heartily approve the forceful, fearless and dignified policy of the administration of President Harrison, who has been so ably assisted in all his sagacious and loyal endeavors by that noble patriot and statesman, James G. Blaine, in the promulgation of true and progressive American principles. While the Republicans of Michigan recognize the sterling worth and ability of our distinguished tellow citizen, General Russell A. Alger, whose claims to recognition as a Presidental standard-bearer have been familiar to the people of the nation since his name was first presented to the convention in Chicago, in 1888, we can safely leave to the collective judgment of the representatives of the party at Minne apolis in June next the selection of a leader who will head the triumphant march of our lowing paragraph: apoils in June next the selection of a leader who will head the triumphant march of our hosts to victory at the polls in November, pledging to the winner of that convention unqualified co-operation and unswerving devotion.

The report was adopted smid cheers and the convention adjourned.

SILVER LOSES IN NEBRASKA. The Boyd Faction on Top and Free Coin age Knocked Clear Out. OMAHA, NEB., April 14.—The Boyd faction came off victorious in to-day's Demoeratic Convention by a vote of 300 to 97. A resolution indorsing Cleveland and instructing the delegates to the National Convention to vote for him was presented. An amendment was made eliminating the instructions to the delegation, and the resolution was then passed. The convention ratified the nominations for delegates made by the Congressional districts, and then proceeded to the selection of delegates at large. Governor Boyd was selected to head the delegation by a practically unanimous vote. Cleveland and tariff reform were the main planks of the platform.

Congressman Bryan offered a resolution favoring the free coinage of silver. Immediately there was an uproar, and the convention broke out. Congressman Bryan spoke in favor of his resolution. He was supported by the delegates from the western part of the State, where the Independents are strongest, but the other prominent leaders of the party were against him. After a hot debate, lasting three hours, the roll was called. The silver men, believing they called. The silver men, believing they were victorious, raised a great shout. When Chairman Beatty announced the defeat of the resolution by 229 to 247, pandemonium broke loose. The silver men made a rush for the stage, and, mounting the reporters' table, they shrieked that they were beaten by transfer of the silver men. by fraud. Fifty men were struggling on the platform at one time, but finally quiet was restored, when the result of the vote as announced was verified. After the selection of alternates to the National tion the convention adjourned.

GORMAN NOT EXACTLY IDLE.

One of His Own Papers Says Cleveland Sentiment Is Waining.

BALTIMORE, April 14 .- [Special.]-Under the caption of "Maryland Not for Cleveland," the American will say to-morrow, in

The Cleveland meeting at Ford's Opera House Wednesday night strengthens the conviction that Cleveland is losing rather than gaining ground as a possible Presi-dental candidate. The meeting was intended dental candidate. The meeting was intended to represent the unfettered Cleveland sentiment in Maryland and the officers and speakers were selected from all parts of the State. It was reasonable to expect a vast assemblage, but there was nothing of the kind. Why were so few persons present? It is conceded that Mr. Cleveland is a favorite with the Maryland Democracy, but the Democrats here, like their brethren in other States, are obviously more anxious for success than the privilege of bestowing empty honors upon individuals. Mr. Cleveland is in accord with the Democracy on but one issue—that of free trade—and there are palpable indications that the Democrats are weakening on that issue. It is not difficult to understand, therefore, why Maryland Democrats did not materialize in force at the Ford Opera House meeting. They would rather succeed than gratify the vanity of a particular candidate, and they evidently have a hope that one of their own numbers may get the nomination.

Georgia Republicans Having a Hard Time to Organize Their Convention ATLANTA, GA., April 14.-[Special.] The Republican State Convention met at the capital to-day. At 1 o'clock Colonel A. E. Buck called the convention to order and was greeted with applause, as he took the speaker's chair. There was a goodly sprinkling of negroes in the hall. Colonel Buck requested that the use of tobacco he dispensed with. He then addressed the convention and said the Democratic party was never in such a pre-carious condition as it is to-day, and there was never such unity in the Republican party as there is to-day. J. W. Lyons was nominated Temporary Chairman, and addressed the convention. In the course of his remarks he referred to Tom Reed, and wild, and three cheers and a tiger were given for Reed.

The white men present were small pota-toes and very few in a hill among the negroes, for the latter had everything their own way, and did all the talking and motion-making, while the white men were forced to saw wood and say nothing. At every motion there were scores of "Mr. Chairman" and scores of speeches from the delegates, for scores of speeches from the delegates, for every preacher present wanted to speak, and the preachers in the audience were as thick as the hairs on a dog's back—and a poodle dog at that. Every motion made during the day by a white man was promptly sat upon by the colored delegates. At midnight the tussle for permanent organization was still in progress, with no signs of settlement. Harrison will get the delegation when it is appointed.

A Lively Time Anticipated. DuBois, April 14.—[Special.]—The Re-publican national delegates and conferees of this district, consisting of Clearfield, Center, Forest, Elk and Clarion counties, are here to-night, and will meet in convention te-morrow. Each county has a candidate for national delegate, and a lively time is expected.

A Stark County Man for Congress. MASSILLON, O., April 14.-[Special]-At the Republican primary election, held in this city and township to-day, 13 delegates and 13 alternates were elected to the Convention, which meets in Salem, May 4. The delegation is uninstructed, but there is a conspicuously defined sentiment in favor of T. R. Morgan, Sr., of Alliance.

Moore, Robert Cunningham, U. R. Frisenberger, Lottie Mercer and Daniel Ritchie. Fennely is charged with embezzlement in connection with the purchase of a safe for the office of county clerk. A safe was offered Fennely for $250 which he refused to buy, but later he purchased from his nephew the same safe, paying him $522.

Messrs. Friesenberger, Moore and Cunningham were indicted for conspiracy to defraud the county. They had charge of letting contracts for building county roads, and, from the developments brought out, their manner of letting contracts and the prices showed a steal had been perpetrated.

street. The contracting parties were Peter Schindler, aged 71, and Miss Maria M.
Barbour, who lacks but a few years of the same age. The groom is probably as wellknown as anybody in the city, being a pieneer resident with an enviable amount of this world's goods.
For over a quarter of a century a leading undertaker, he is prominent in religious work, and now holds the position of Superintendent of the Second Lutheran Sunday school. The bride is equally as prominent, friends had put her down for life as a lovable old maid.

THE DOMINIE A PORGER.

Now in the Tolls. ELETON, MD., April 14.—[Special.]— Deputy Sheriff Hale, of Easton, came here

Deputy Sheriff Hale, of Easton, came here to-day with a warrant for the arrest of Rev. Theo. W. Thurston, pastor of the Bethel A. M. E. Church, who is charged with forgery. Thurston heard of the officer's mission and tried to escape. He borrowed a horse and buggy and started at breakneck speed up the pike toward Chesapeake City. Five minutes later the Sheriff was in hot pursuit. The officer's horse proved a better stayer, and he overhauled the dominie when 10 miles out.

Thurston had a charge in Easton, and was transferred here by the Conference. Before leaving he bought a horse from Sam W. Jones, a livery stable keeper, giving in payment a note for $100, indorsed by four members of his flock. When the note came due it was protested. All of the indorsers denied having signed their names, and proved this by swearing and bringing testimony that they could not write. The arrest of Preacher Thurston followed.
