

Profound harmony reigned throughout the preliminary morning session. Chairman Watres called the convention to order, and, according to programme, General James N. Latta was promptly named as Temporary Chairman. He made the customary speech, the Committees on Resolutions and Organization were announced and then a recess was taken. Oh, What a Difference After Dinner!

But what a difference after dinner! For the first few minutes after the convention reassembled quiet reigned, but it was the proverbial calm before the storm. E.K. Martin, of Lancaster, was duly installed as permanent presiding officer, and after his brief remarks the Committee on Resolutions presented the platform. It was the document agreed upon last night, and as it was read the various planks were received with spirited applause. This was particularly the case with the approval of Secretary Blaine.

There were few substitutions, one being C.

L. Magee, in the Allegheny delegation, who took the place of W. A. Magee, and another, Major Everett Warren, of Lacka-wanna, who took the place of Henry A. Knapp. E. K. Martin was substituted for W. H. Brosius in the Lancaster delegation. James L. Mills, of Philadelphia, named ex-Adjutant General James W. Latta, of Philadelphia, for temporary chairman, and the convention promptly ratified the nomination. General Latta's speech of acceptance was brief and heartily applauded. John R. Gregg, C. L. Magee, H. E. Armstrong and J. A. Evans were given out as Allegheny's representatives on resolutions. James Holman, Vincent Stevens, Fred W. Edwards and C. E. Succok looked after the far in the rear. About this time Magee sent word to Chairman Martin that the figures as repermanent organization, while H. Z. Bolster, J. O. Brown, Van Kirk Scott and ported by Secretary Leach were incorrect, and when Henderson's vote on the seventh John F. Cox were honorary Vice Presidents

Dick Quay, in speaking of the campaign resolution introduced by Phillips, of Schuylkill, and championed by Secretary Leach, said: "Senator Quay did not pass upon or approve of any such resolution, and personally is entirely satisfied with the Miscounts by the Secretary. On the fourth ballot Ewing added seven more to his list, but the latter, through mis-take or design, was only credited with an addition of three by the Secretary. On the fifth ballot Ewing reached his limit, 47 votes being recorded in his favor, and Henderson forging ahead. Then the slump began. On the sixth ballot Philadelphia did not give Ewing a vote, and commenced to concentrate on Henderson, in accordanced to with the deal by which Andrews was to support Jastor for Congressment at Large. On this call the Crawford county candidate passed the 100 mark, and his friends loudly dows.

glass flew with great force across the rooms. and the occupants scampered wildly for safety. Nobody interfered with the man's escort should arrive here Friday. amusement until all the stones had been fired and the windows smashed to bits. Then a gendarme appeared and the man was train, for it is thought that if the rustlers do not interfere before they reach here they will certainly do so before the inhustled off to prison. Fortunately no one BANCROFT. was hit by the flying missiles and the only vading party gets out of the country. It is thought if even the prisoners are allowed to board the train, after they have damage done was to the windows and the furniture. done so and their cavalry escort is rendered less dangerous from the fact that they are He Was Filled With Anarchist Hatred. When questioned as to his motive the dismounted, then the train will be stopped man declared he was an Anarchist and was at some point a little way out of Douglas and the "rustlers" will have abundant oppor-tunity to avenge the death of Champion and animated by a violent hatred of the bourgeoise. The people in the restaurant are Ray. Evidence of the bitterness of the feeling ongratulating themselves that the man used stones instead of the Anarchist's usual between the two factions of cattlemen is ap-

Train Wrecking Possible. man walked along until he reached the DOUGLAS, WYO., April 20.-Late to-night a courier arrived from Buffalo, who swell Cafe Riche, which, as usual, was thronged with the ultra-fashionables of Paris. Here he stopped, and, diving into his pockets, he poured a volley of stones states that the invading band of cattlemen. who have been held as willing prisoners at Fort McKinney, are en route for Douglas, through the magnificent plate glass winand that they are not more than 75 miles north. If this report is correct-and the To say the people inside were startled is to put it very mildly. Stones and pieces of man who brought it is coasidered trustworthy-the cattlemen and their cavalry Citizens of Douglas are apprehensive of the result of bringing the cattlemen here for the purpose of sending them away by

Three companies of the Seventeenth In-

A PITTSBURG KIDNAPER.

in a Baltimore Court.

Typhold Fever Breaks Up an Academy,

CHESTER, PA., April 20.-The Pennsyl-

ania Military Academy, a private school, has closed owing to the prevalence of ty-phoid fever. The students who are at home

Page.

County Court, and was fined $350.

BALTIMORE, April 20.-A. B. Donald-

More Clerks Imperatively Demanded. The underweighing frauds, it is charged, have been the direct result of Mr. Foster's the service.

have been the direct result of Mr. Foster's sweeping reduction of the force, especially in the entry division. There have not been enough clerks in that division to give proper attention to the entries. It is now proposed to appoint more clerks in the entry division. Then, it has been complained that there has not been sufficient supervision over the staff of weighers and gaugers. Eight assist-ant weighers have already been removed for complicity in the Cutajar underweighing frauds. Some of Surveyor Lyons' highest Some of Surv Trong' bighas subordinates have been mixed up in the undal. At the proper time they will all be brought up with a round turn. The commission will devote much of fistime to the appraiser's stores. New York and other merchants have complained bitterly of the conduct of certain assistant appraisers and examiners. The Secretary has also evidence that corruption and drunkenness exist to a startling extent. Indeed, the drink question has been a constant source of annoyance to those in authority.

As announced in THE DISPATCH, no reference was made to either of the Pennsylvania Senators. But just as the Chairman was putting the adoption of the platform to the convention Secretary Leach whispered, "Don't be in a hurry, Martin, and at the same time beckoned to Delegate Phillips, of Schuylkill county, who was promptly upon his feet and offered the following as an amendment:

A Hornets' Nest Opened Up.

Resolved, That we congratulate our junio United States Senator upon the spontaneous and overwhelming manifestations of an proval of his course recently exhibited throughout the Commonwealth, and as rep resentatives of the State at large in this Presidental year, recalling his magnificent services to the party in 1888, we cannot refrain from adding our testimony of appreciation and approval, and tendering our most earn-est felicitations to the Hon. M. S. Quay.

Instantly the convention was in an uproar, and shouts of "Quay !" "Quay !" mingled with cheers and hisses filled the sir.

"What that resolution has to do with the Republican platform in a Presidental year I cannot see," shouted C. L. Magee when he got the attention of the Chair. He got no further, for the howling was inaugurated again, and during the confusion the Chairman, under instruction from Leach, declared the resolution adopted as part of the platform.

Fuel Added to the Fiame.

This sling only increased the storm. Magee again secured the floor, and in vigorous tones protested against gag rule. He said "No man will more willingly vote for a commendation of Senator Quay's great services to the Republican party than I, but this convention must not take sides in a contest going on in the several legislative districts. We in Allegheny county believe in home rule, and this is a matter for the Republicans of their districts to decide for themselves. I protest against the indorsement of any candidate whose nomination is not dependent upon the action of this convention.'

Cries of "Right!" "Right!" "Sit down!" "Quay!" "Quay!" followed this appeal, and ex-Congressman Samuel Miller, of Mercer, claimed attention. He said:

"I yield to no man in friendship and allegiance for Senator Quay. I come from a county which has just given him a majority of 3,000 votes. [A voice-"Every one of them machine men."] Let us go slow. This resolution will handicap rather than help the Senator in the race. I hope he will win. Quay doesn't need this plank. Let the convention commet. his party services and he will do the rest."

One Way to Wipe Out a Majority.

Redsecker, of Lebanon, said that in 1890 the Republican State Convention had indorsed the Pennsylvania Senators, and as a result an 80,000 majority had disappeared. He protested against the repetition of such a policy.

These vigorous kicks alarmed and discon certed Leach, who, though not a delegate, made a speech, in which he said that the resolutions would be withdrawn and modified. The platform was then adopted as ed. The platform was then adopted as riginally read. After music, and consequent harmony, name of Judge John J. Henderson, of originally read.

Work of the Afternoon Session.

challenged the count. He said that a man not a delegate was trying to nominate can-didates, and moved the appointment of tellers in behalf of each candidate. After the recess the convention reasser

After the recess the convention reassem-bled promptly at 1:30, and, after going through the form of electing E. K. Martin as Permanent Chairman, the gathering lis-tened to an address from that gentleman. Mr. Martin said the Republican party proposed to remain in the front line of bat-tle. No similar organization had achieved as magnificent results in a given period of time. Democrats, he knew, did not like what they choose to call ancient history, and they also despised that other emblem of Republicanism-protection to American in Leach shouted to the reading clerk to continue with the roll, and to Martin to rule the motion out of order, but the Chair-Republicanism-protection to American instries.

In conclusion, he said there was to be fought the battle of protection on the one hand and the abominable heresy of free trade on the other. Chairman Magee, from the Committee on Resolutions, then presented the platform. [It will be found in full on the fourth lown on him." page.] The row upon the supplemental Quay resolution, in which Leach became so tangled up, followed, and astonished those who had anticipated a quiet convention.

Electors and Delegates Selected. When order had finally been restored the chair announced that nominations for chair announced that nominations for electors at large were in order. General Frank Reeder nominated B. F. Jones, of Allegheny; William Wood, of Philadelphia; J. Francis Dunlap, of Lancaster, and Will-iam H. Sayen, of Delaware. They were nominated by acclamation. Mr. Magee moved the election of the following as delegates at large: Hamilton Disston, of Philadelphia; William L. Elkins, of Philadelphia; William L. Elkins, of Philadelphia; William L. Allegheny: Henry W. Oliver, of Alle-gheny: Henry W. Oliver, of Alle-gheny; Frank Reeder, of Northampton; Samuel A. Davenport, of Erie; Henry C. McCormick, of Lycoming, and Lyman D. Gilbert, of Dauphin. The motion was agreed to, but not without cries of "Slate!" sentatives voted as follows:

The move, however, put Dean in the lead,

"Slate!" from the galleries. Mr. Miles moved the election of the following alternates at large: William B. Ahern, of Philadelphia; Samuel M. Clem-ents, of Philadelphia; James A. Dale, of York; John W. Young, of Wyoming; Joseph Bosler, of Montgomery; A. C. Hawkins, of McKean; Morgan B. Williams, of Luzerne; Lemual Gozoine, of Allerbanz Henderson-Gray and Armstrong. learned that Dean had an even half of the convention, and lacked one vote to win. Instantly two of the Allegheny county Ewing supporters were on their Instantly two of the Allegheny county Ewing supporters were on their feet trying to change their votes and wind up the contest, but Senator Flinn stopped the stampede by shouting, "If there is a vote changed I will turn to Henderson myself." The vote was then an Lemuel Googins, of Allegheny. At this point Delegate W. H. Layton, of Dauphin, in behalf of the 35,000 colored voters of the State, entered a protest against the small recognization accorded his He domanded a delegate at large and denounced : Dean, 135; Henderson, 127; Ewing, 7; Sadler, 1. Loud cheers for Dean and great confusion followed. claimed against slates and gag rule. He was allowed to proceed for some time, but was finally ruled out of order and forced to take his seat. District electors were then named as folows:

John L. Lawson, John Mundell, John Hun John L. Lawson, John Mundell, John Hun-ter, Alex Crowe, Jr., Charles B. Siner, Max-well Clawer, W. A. Grundy, Traill Green, James K. Mosser, J. F. M. Geist, Henry A. Knapp, W. A. Harvey, James Mulr, John H. Sheibley, Coe Duriand, Perry Stebbins, Lloyd T. Rohrhach, S. Shoch, J. Shallwil-helm, James B. Laux, Robert Pitcairn, I. F. Lincoln, S. D. Bell, M. H. Taylor, C. F. Bar-ciay, Jesse E. Dale. delphia, withdrew the Crawford county can-didate and moved the nomination of Dean by acclamation. Ex-Chairman Andrews seconded the motion and it went through the ballots: BALLOTS.

Actual Business at Last Begun.

The convention then settled down to actual business, and the nominations for Supreme Judge were called for. George B, Lindsay was first on the floor and presented Ewing..... Archbald,.... Clayton..... Lindsay was first on the floor and presented the name of Judge Clayton, of Delaware. Joseph H. Baldwin, of Chester, reviewed the career of Judge Dean, of Blair, and was loudly applauded as he named the favorite son of the Junista valley. Cyrus Elder, of Cambria, seconded Judge Dean's naming. D. S. Atkinson, of Westmore-land, named Judge Harry White, of Indi-ana, telling of his eminent services as soldier, statesman and jurist. General Fisher, of Philadelphia, seconded Judge White's naming in the best speech of the day. Thus one of the most remarkable political struggles witnessed in Pennsylvania for many years was brought to a close and the exhausted convention took a recess until 9 o'clock at night.

While the convention was taking the evening recess it was a common remark that the only thing necessary to complete the discomfiture of the Leach-Andrews combine was the defeat of Castor, of Philadelphia, for Congressman at Large. This event was soon to follow:

the Lake Erie and Ohio river ship cana passed the 100 mark, and his friends loudly claimed that victory was in sight. Sadler, Archibald and White by this time were all met with vigorous approval upon every

Miscounts by the Secretary

Leach Fails to Down Mr. Magee.

Beginning of the Final Brenk.

The Story as Told by the Ballots

87 1

The Lively Night's Windup

A TERRIBLE STORM COMING. coording to a Weather Prophet Who Has Never Yet Failed.

ballot was announced as 114 he openly NEW HAVEN, CONN., April 20.-[Special.] Weather Prophet Vaughn, of Norwalk, who predicted the great blizzard and various other wild storms since with great success is out with a startling meteorological procla mation for May. Early on May 5, he says, veapon-dynamite. a terrible storm will. appear in the Pacific Ocean, in latitude 25° and 30' north, longigitude 71º west of Washington, and swoop rule the motion out of order, but the Chair-man was finally obliged to put the question, and though it was plainly carried, under instruction from the Secretary he declared it lost. This created another uproar, and Walter Logan slipped to Chairman Martin's side and told him that it would not do to eastward with frightful impetuosity. It will strike the Pacific coast, with its center in Lower California, with a whoop and a crash and cross the continent at terrific try and deny the delegates such manifest rights; therefore the motion was put again, speed. The whole country between St. Paul and St. Louis is in its line of march, aud "it is goodby to everything movable," says Prophet Vaughn, "that happens to be and this time announced as carried. This aroused the ire of Leach, who rushed to Martin's side, and in a stage whisper said, "Don't let Magee bulldoze you. Sit in its way."

in its way." The great storm, he adds, will strike New York and the Jersey coast on or before May 12, and there will be a wild time of it all along shore. Mr. Vaughn affirms that the storm is a sure thing, and "if sailors and others get caught out in it the blame can-not rightly be laid at my door." Since the prophet has never made a meteorological blunder as yet his prediction has alarmed a great many people in all parts of the State. The eighth ballot proceeded with tellers, and at its close Henderson only lacked if votes of the 136 necessary for a victory. Ewing only had one supporter outside of the Allegheny delegation, which up to this time had stood solidly by him. On the call, time had stood solidly by him. On the call, however, Magee turned to Dean to defeat Henderson, followed by several members. Holman, however, voted for Henderson and many still remained with Ewing.

BOGUS INSURANCE POLICIES.

An Alleged Company Has a Hearing and L Held for Trial.

The move, however, put Dean in the lead, and when the roll was completed he only lacked a few votes of the required number. Then the remaining Allegheny delegates commenced to change from Ewing to Dean, and the matter might have ended there had not the tellers got mixed in their count, when the ninth ballot was declared off and taken over arein. PHILADELPHIA, April 20.-Joseph A Dennison, alias S. S. Lindsay & Co., was arrested in Camden to-day charged with fraudulently using the mails for sending out bogus insurance policies. The prisoner taken over again. On the last ballot the Allegheny repre admitted having sent a policy to Gay Broth ers, Eton Rapids, Mich. Papers were Ewing — McCandless, Brown, Succop, Flinn, Cox, Harbison and Williams. Dean-Bolster, Shaeffer, Holman, Stevens, Magee, McCleary, Robertson, Weaver, Bell, Evans, Hamilton, Weir and Edwards. found in his room representing him to be an agent of the Australian Fire Insurance Company, of New South Walcs. This company is one of several investi-gated by Insurance Commissioner Foster gated by Insurance Commissioner Foster some time ago, and he, it is said, found that there was no such company in existence. To establish this fact Assistant District At-torney Raiston asked that the prisoner be held over for a further hearing, and Com-missioner Bell fixed the bail at $300. Before the result was announced it was McKinley Prefers His Old Job.

CANTON, O., April 20.-[Special]-The friends of Governor McKinley are making an effort to nominate him for Congress i the Stark-Columbiana-Mahoning distric

Just as preparations were being made for another ballot the Henderson hustlers threw up the sponge. David Martin, of Phila-delphia, withdrew the Crawford county can-May 6. It is said that the Governor prefer the halls of Congress to the Gubernatorial office, but that he would not allow the use of his name if there is any opposition pouch containing $50,000 in checks, draft 1 2 8 4 5 6 7 8 notes, and other valuable papers, was stolen here to-day. The loss was soon discovered and after a thorough search the pouch was found, but the loss gave business men a big scare. A stranger found near the place was arrested.

Another Northwestern Blizzard.

LAREFIELD, MINN., April 20.-Snov began falling this morning. A blinding blizzard is now raging and there is four inches of snow on the ground. The storm is growing worse. Seeding is two-thirds

An International Silver Conference

WASHINGTON, April 20.-[Special.]-It is stated that the President has issued invitations for an international silver con When the gathering reassembled Miller, and that England is to collaborate.

parent on every hand, and public sentiment The Gaulois publishes the text of a violent about evenly divided. A private dispatch received here to-day from Omaha says that whenever Acting nanifesto of the revolutionary wing of the Socialist party, which will finally be dis-cussed at a meeting to be held to-night. If the manifesto is adopted 100,000 copies will be distributed throughout France on the Governor Barber sees fit to call for military assistance it will be furnished from Fort Robinson. The soldiers at that post are held under marching orders, and if it is true, as has been reported to-night, that the cattlemen and cavalry are on the way to Douglass it eve of May Day. The police at St. Etieenne and Lyons have made raids on the lodgings of a num-ber of Anarchists in those places and have seized a quantity of manifestoes setting forth the alleged wrongs under which working-men suffer and calling upon them to raise is likely that the six companies from Robin-son will reach here first. The town of Glen Rock is in a very much excited state. It is 30 miles west of here, men suffer, and calling upon them to raise in their might and break the shackles which enthral them. One Spanish Anarchist was arrested, and he was subsequently expelled and the inhabitants are warm sympathizers with the rustlers. Reports from there to-night say that every man in the town is a walking arsenal, and that they have from France. sworn to kill the first one of the big cattle owners or their friends that comes to town.

Berlin Socialists Are Not Idie.

A cable dispatch from Berlin says: The They have established a patrol, and strang Vorwaerts, organ of the Socialists, announces that 16 halls have been secured for the purers either coming or going are closely questhat 10 nails have obeen secured for the pur-pose of holding May Day manifestations. The paper appeals to all workingmen to ob-serve May Day, as freedom from the bonds of capitalists can only be obtained through the efforts of workingmen themselves. A cable dispatch from London says: The tioned. fantry will leave Cheyenne to-morrow for Douglas to meet the captured stockmen at that point and escort them to this city. The troops will be moved over the Cheyenne Commonweal, the Anarchist paper seized by the police yesterday, is a four-page paper measuring 15x10 inches. It describes itself as a revolutionary journal of Anarch-ism and Communism. It abounds in violent and Northern Railroad. What disposition will be made of them when they arrive at Denver is unknown. Dr. Penrose, of Philadelphia, will have a hearing before the District Court to-morrow. articles.

Commenting upon the recent trial and conviction of the Walsall Anarchists, it Donaldson, the Insurance Man, Convicted calls the Hon. Henry Matthews, Home Secretary, a Jesuitical monster who murders men because of a few head of game-refer-ring to the execution of two poachers who killed a game keeper. Justice Hawkins, who presided at the trial of the Walsall son, the Pittsburg insurance manager, who was charged with kidnaping Albert A. Anarchists, is termed a hyena preying upon the bodies of hanged men, and whose love Marshall, one of his agents, with the purpose of getting him within the jurisdictio of the gallows a few years ago won for him the title of "Hangman Hawkins." More of the Paper's Babid Utterances. of the Pennsylvania courts, was found guilty of the offense to-day in the Baltimore

"This barbarous brute," the Commonweal adds, "while prating of his humanity, sends adds, "while prating of his humanity, sends our comrades to ten years' confinement in a prison cell." Continuing, the paper asks, "what of the spy Melville, who sets agents concocting plots which he discovers? Are these men fit to live?" Melville, whom the Commonweal terms a spy, is Chief Inspector Melville, of Scot-land Yard. Through the arrest in London of the Walsall conspirators, Inspector Mel-ville learned of the existence of a club in Walsall, the principal members of which Walsall, the principal members of a chub in Walsall, the principal members of which were engaged in making hombs, it was said for use in Russia. Acting in conjunction with the Walsall police, Inspector Melville arrested six of the conspirators and pro-cured the evidence on which they were con-victed victed. Nichol, the editor, and Mowbray, th publisher, of the Commonweal, were arraigned to day on the charge of inciting to a breach of the peace. The prosecution is based on the article already mentioned. The Judge remanded the prisoners, refusing to accept bail. Mowbray declared that he had disapbail. Mowbray declared that he had disap-proved of the article at the time it was pub-lished, but his objections were overruled and the matter was printed. In consequence of this he severed his connection with the paper. He appealed to the magistrate to allow his release on bail in order that he might attend the funeral of his wife, who The Baseball Opening News From Nearby Towns Sentimental Breach of Promise... The Business World's Budget..... died yesterday. The magistrate refused to accept bail even under these circomstances but he said he would permit Mowbray to accept bail even under these diroumstances, but he said he would permit Mowbray to attend his wife's funeral in the company of a policeman. Nichol admitted that he wrote the article in question. A dispatch from Madrid says: Several dynamite outrages attributed to Anarchists

Drunkenness an Open Vice.

Several removals have been made recently, on the ground that the incumbents had been seen frequently in public places under the influence of liquor. Some of the delinquents are men high up in the ap-praiser's counsel. The interest in the situation at the appraiser's stores was keener to-day than at any time before, because of the talk that any time before, because of the talk that before Secretary Foster left Washington for Ohio, he and Secretary Tracy had sharp words in the presence of the Presi-dent, over the proposed appointment of William Leaycraft, of Brooklyn, as an assistant appraiser. General Tracy had re-quested the President to appoint Leaycraft. While the office is a Presidental appoint mert it is not contempt to appoint any ment, it is not customary to appoint any incumbent who fails to receive the recommendation of the Secretary of the Treasury. Secretary Foster was willing to oblige General Tracy until he was informed of Leaveraft's record. He then declined to give his sanction.

A CONGRESSMAN'S CUP FULL.

Mr. Cobb Made to Drink Something Much Stronger Than Coffee,

WASHINGTON, April 20.-[Special.]-An amusing, but rather mortifying practical joke was played to-day upon Congressman Cobb by some of his mirth-loving colleagues. When he commenced his speech in the Rockwell case, as is the custom of most of the Southern men in Congress, he had a teacup filled with coffee brought in and placed upon his desk, instead of the usual lass of ice water. When Mr. Cobb was not looking the cup was removed and the liquid in it changed before it was returned. Mr. Cobb drank the contents of the realled cup without giving any outward in-dications that he observed the change that had been made in the con-tents. He continued to talk until his hour was exhausted, when a motion was made to give him unlimited time. The contents of the tencup evidently had a demoralizing effect upon him, and also upon his speech, for after he had consumed neary three hours his remarks became so incoherent that several of his Alabama associates prevailed upon him to conclude. The interruptions and some of the re-plies of Mr. Cobb, during the latter part of on their Easter vacation have been notified not to return to the academy at present. A Government expert has been secured, who will make a thorough examination of the sewerage and plumbing. his speech, created considerable laughter on the floor and in the galleries. To-night he is hunting for the fellow who "loaded that cup" when he was not looking. Some of Mr. Cobb's friends attribute his funny behavior to the high pressure of excitement under which he was laboring, but others blame the contents of the teacup foon to Be Finally Determined by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court.

THE FATE OF THE BALLOT LAW

PHILADELPHIA, April 20,-The pro ceedings to test the constitutionality of the ballot reform bill reached the Supreme Court this morning for the second time. Chief Justice Paxson remarked during the course of the argument that to discuss the wisdom of the act would open a wide field, but that in deciding the case the Court would confine itself strictly to the question of constitutionality. Decision was reserved

An Epidemic of Trichinosis.

BOSTON, April 20.-Eleven cases of trichinosis, with one death, are reported from eating raw ham.

THIS MORNING'S NEWS. Topic. The Republican State Convent Europe's Cranks Are Active Sensational Custom House Trade..... Suicide of a Well-Known Iron Worker. How the City Loses by Delay...... Effect of License Court Decisions....... The Fox Bunting Season Opens....... itorial and Miscellaneous..... The Republican Platform Delamater as a Lobbyist Cleveland Captures Indians..... The Rothschilds Robbed..... Eight Miners Drowned.....

The Oil Scout's Field News Live Block and Commercial Markets.....

A $50,000 Mail Pouch Stolen. ST. CLOUD, MINN., April 20 .- A mail convention, which will be held at Salem.O.