THE SCROLL OF FATE.

Judges Collier and Slagle Hand Down Their Decisions on

THE WHOLESALE LICENSE LIST.

A Number of Very Unpleasant Surprises for Applicants.

NAMES OF THE GRANTED AND REFUSED

Judges Collier and Slagle handed down another fateful scroll yesterday. It contained the names of those who had been granted wholesale, distillers', brewers' and bottlers' license. The list was a disappointment to those applicants who expected to find their names upon it, and was also a disappointment to many others who had hoped that the Allegheny retail list would be handed down at that time. The Court made no reference to this latter list, but as It adjourned to Saturday morning it will not be handed down until that time, if

The held-over list comprises all the large brewers and their agents. Some of them are undecided because of defective papers, others because applications were made for warehouses and storage depots located in

In the case of the Wainwright Brewing ompany, their papers are declared deentive.

Pier & Dannals meet with the same complaint. Of D. Lutz & Son, the Court says they can have but one license. No License for a Storage House. To the Bauerlein Brewing Company, the Court says it has no power to grant a license for a storage house. Michael Enz, of Millvale, was held over on account of a complaint against him re garding sales from his wagon. Wm. F. Werner, Jefferson township, is granted a rehearing on the question of storage.

In their application for a bottlers' license the Wainwright Brewing Company must state their interests in their brewery.

The papers of the Keystone Brewing Company were defective in the matter of location and naturalization.

The Court says D. Lutz & Son are entitled to a brewers' license and either a bottlers' or wholesale license, but not both.

Max Friedman, the wholesale applicant, is granted a rehearing on a remonstrance is granted a rehearing on a remonstrance ued since hearing.

J. L. Abell & Co., Second ward, is refused because the Court cannot license one person or firm as rectifier and wholesaler. They may be granted a wholesale license. Must Explain Their Agencies William C. Langhorst, Second ward, Alle gheny, must explain the question of agency in his case. The same is true of David Hardy, Jacob Nill, Jacob Weiskercher, of Hardy, Jacob Nill, Jacob Weiskercher, of McKeesport, agents for the Iron City Brewing Company, and Wm. J. Dorsey, of McKeesport, agent for the Bauerlein Brewing Company, James T. Dowling and Henry Vogel, Braddock, agents for Iron City Brewing Company.

Werner Kalkreuth, Chartiers, and William Weiss, Homestead, agents for the Keystone Brewing Company, must explain to the court their arrangements with the firm.

M. Winter & Bros., only entitled to one wholesale license. The same ruling is made in the case of Pier & Dannels and the Iron City Brewing Company in their applications for branch houses in surrounding towns.

The case of Charles & F. H. Breuning, of the Second ward, Pittsburg, is held over because the applicants are said to be interested in other business.

The P., V. & C. Tries to Block the Suburbar Rapid Transit Street Railway-The West End Road Wants an Injunction Upon the Point Bridge-Court News.

A bill in equity was filed yesterday by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and the Pittsburg, Virginia and Charleston Railro Company against the Suburban Rapid Transit Street Railway Company. The plaintiffs state that the defendant company is laying tracks and wires for an electric railway to cross the Pittsburg, Virginia and Charleston tracks at grade at the junction of Charleston tracks at grade at the junction of South Eighteenth street and the Birmingham and Brownsville Turnpike road, Twenty-sixth ward. They allege that the crossing will be dangerous and that the defendant company has no right to make it. The court is asked to restrain it from continuing work and also asks that, if the defendant is allowed to proceed, the Court direct the manner of crossing and precautions to be taken to protect life and property, and at whose expense.

An argument was heard before Judges White and Magee yesterday on the application of the Pittsburg and West End Passenger Railway Company for an injunction to restrain the Point Bridge Company from interfering with them in laying tracks and wires on the bridge for an electric railway. The bridge company claimed that the structure was too weak to stand the operation of electric cars. The railway company ontend to the contrary. D. T. Watson appeared for the railway company and A. M. Brown for the bridge company. A decision was reserved.

COST, of course, is one of the main things to be considered, but, let us assure you, you need not be a Gould or Vanderbilt to buy one of our suits.

10 dollars to start with will buy an excellent quality of sack or cutaway suit.

12 dollars will furnish one of those elegant home-made plain or fancy Cheviot or Tweed Suits, in 4-button cutaway frock, single or double-breasted sack.

15 dollars will give you choice of over 90 styles of fancy or plain worsted frock, sack or Chesterfield suits, such as are usually made to order for $25 or $28.

GIVE us a call; let us give GOOD INGRAIN CARPETS 33c. you an introduction to our suits; bring some one with you who is a judge of good clothing, well-made clothing, and we are sure of your trade. We are giving no presents—no bribes, no tricks.
