

NOT EXACTLY A CRIME

To Be a Democrat, According to Secretary Noble's Way of Thinking.

NEGRO LYNCHINGS IN THE SOUTH

Cannot Be Prevented or Rebuked by President Harrison.

PINKERTON MEN AS LAW BREAKERS

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Joseph B. Greenwell, a clerk in the Board of Pension Appeals, and formerly a clerk in another bureau, testified in the Raun investigation to-day that his connection with the Pension office had been severed in 1890. The charge brought against him was that he was a Democrat, and he offered to furnish evidence that Democrats were not receiving their proper share of promotion. Commissioner Raun would not give him a hearing, but Secretary Noble did. The Secretary treated him very courteously and said he did not suppose it was a felony to be a Democrat. He said he would look into the matter. The result was that witness was reinstated.

L. D. Landon, an assistant chief of the record division when Major Barker was Chief, testified that Mrs. Caddie L. Wright had spoken to him of the conduct toward her of William L. Ford. She expressed fear that Ford might use his official position against her, as she was in office on probation. Witness had spoken to his superior about Mrs. Wright's complaint. It was witness' opinion that Mrs. Wright did not want to testify before the committee in relation to Ford's conduct. The published statement of Ford's conduct with respect to Mrs. Wright agreed substantially with what she had told him. Witness had loaned money to both Major Barker and Mr. Ford.

Representative Harter, of Ohio, took the stand voluntarily, and said he never had any arrangement or understanding with anybody by which, directly or indirectly, he was to receive one penny for his influence as a member of the House.

Captain C. C. Cole, United States District Attorney for the District of Columbia, testified that Assistant Secretary Chandler gave him the names of two or three persons who could give information as to others made by Green B. Raun, Jr., to secure positions for a money consideration.

The Civil Service Commission and the Department of Justice also called his attention to the names, but he had been unable to get tangible evidence to present to the grand jury.

THE PRESIDENT'S HANDS TIED.

He Cannot Interfere in State Matters, Even if They're Lynchings.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The New York delegation of colored men, sent to Washington to memorialize the President in regard to the outrages perpetrated upon the negroes of the South, arrived this morning and was entertained at breakfast by Frederick Douglass and William E. Matthews. The delegation was introduced to President Harrison by John R. Lynch, Fourth Auditor of the Treasury. Dr. William E. Matthews stated the purpose of the delegation to the President, and presented the resolutions which were adopted at a recent mass meeting at Cooper Union. In his reply, President Harrison explained to the gentlemen just how far he could exercise his authority under the Constitution, stating very clearly the difference between State and Federal authority in relation to crimes committed in any particular State. The New Orleans lynching matter was taken as an example. The Federal Government, he said, clearly had the right to provide for the protection of the Italian subjects, as that was a matter of treaty rights, but it has not been done; no legislation has been enacted; and neither the Federal courts nor the President could interfere, even in that case.

PINKERTONS AS LAW BREAKERS.

An Inquiry as to Their Violation of the Inter-State Commerce Act.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The House Judiciary Committee to-day discussed at some length the resolution offered by Representative Watson, of Georgia, for an inquiry as to the methods followed by the Pinkerton Detective Agency. The resolution was referred to the sub-committee, consisting of Messrs. Oates, Broderick and Wolrton, and although the committee took no definite action, it is understood that the recommendation was made with the understanding that the inquiry should be limited to an inquiry as to the interference of the Pinkerton detectives with inter-State commerce.

Valuable Western Land Not Gobbled.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—In the case of Anson G. Davis against John A. Foreman, Secretary Noble to-day denied the motion filed by Foreman for a review of the Departmental decision of February 6, 1892, rejecting his application to purchase, and canceling his entry. The land involved now forms a part of El Reno, Okla., and is said to be very valuable.

Montana's Urgent Deficiency Make-Or.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The urgent deficiency bill as reported from the Senate committee contains an appropriation of $7,231, to reimburse the State of Montana for the expenses of the Constitutional Convention.

No Wonder.

Nature tells us that we should get all possible enjoyment out of our food and experience tells us that by the use of Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts we can improve its flavor, and more than that, stir up the languid palate to gratefully receive that which is intended to keep our body and brain in a healthy condition. We do not wonder that Dr. Price's Extracts of Vanilla, Lemon, etc., should become the favorite flavorings when a small quantity to any table delicacy so improves its taste.

We Didn't Make This Pair.

For a good shoe you can say nothing too good; for a bad shoe, nothing too bad. With a shoe you can't do anything with it's a hopeless case, and the sooner you get rid of it the better you'll be off. We would just as soon think of trying to give a bad shoe a good character as we would of trying to give a good shoe a bad character. Our FOOT-FORM shoe speaks for itself the moment it is on the foot. It is unrelaxable in no respect. It's just what economical buyers are looking for—it gives economy a chance without sacrificing either quality or comfort. FOOT-FORM is the name.

THE GRAND RUSH

OF LAND SEEKERS

Which charged into the Cheyenne Reservation a day or so ago was almost equaled by the multitude of men which charged upon our Men's Clothing Department on last Saturday.

The rush will be repeated to-morrow, for when the people set out to buy clothing the name of Guskys's, as if by magic, is sure to loom up.

GENTLEMEN'S

Clothing, such as we offer this spring, ought to and does attract a crowd.

The English language is fairly good for general use, but it is utterly inadequate to express the beauty and attractiveness of such a stock of Men's Clothing as we present to the gentlemen of Pittsburg this season.

It would be much easier to tell you what we have not got than what we have. We have cheap and serviceable suits at $8 and $10 which you can't duplicate in the city for the price. And we have the world's choicest novelties, both foreign and domestic, in suits of a higher grade.

It is an assortment which is the envy of our competitors and the admiration of our customers. Come in and look at it; you will then see that we are still headquarters for CLOTHING.

Our Boys' Department

Is in great shape. Never before had we such an assortment; never so many styles of weave and make.

Simply impossible not to find a suit to please both yourself and the boy, and when you have found it the price will please you.

A walk through the department filled with the newest of spring suits for the little ones will be a revelation to you.

Here, again, not only is the stock the largest but the rarest, most varied, daintiest and most exclusive stock you ever cast eyes upon.

We are clothing half the boys in Pittsburg, and we ought to clothe the other half, because we can clothe them to better advantage than any other house in the city. A dainty and elegant assortment of

KILTS, REEFERS, JERSEYS,

Together with hundreds of styles of two and three-piece Short-Pant Suits, both single and double-breasted. The field for choice is wide enough to embrace everything that's in the market's that's new; the prices are narrow enough to come within the limit of anybody's pocketbook.

BEAR IN MIND OUR NEW DEPARTMENTS.....

They are now in full working order, and the amount of business done in them gains daily. You'll find our Cloak, Suit and Underwear stocks complete and replete with everything that's new and stylish. See announcement this afternoon of special bargains in Ladies' Costumes and Cloaks for Saturday. Some of the prices may surprise you, but you'll be more surprised still when you come to see the goods and the prices together.
