

KENNEDY PULLED OUT.

He is Now Free Fooled for the Allegheny Majority Fight.

PATTON HAS AN AUDITING SCHEME.

Councils Asked to Investigate Chief Ehlers' Conduct.

SCHAD IS CALLED DOWN BY MR. LINDSAY

Allegheny Councils held the initial meeting of the new Councilmanic year last night, and scarcely anything was done but receive new business.

The feature of the evening was the predicament in which Major William Kennedy was placed. He is to be elected Mayor on Tuesday, and if he did not sever his connection with Select Council his election would not be legal.

Insisted Upon Public Improvements. Another feature is Select branch was the way Mr. Schad stood up for the repaving of East Ohio street in the rural district.

Wants Chief Ehlers Investigated. The only resolution of the evening was one by Mr. Armstrong, asking for the investigation of Chief Ehlers, of the Department of Public Works. It reads:

Whereas, It is stated that John McFarland, a carpenter in the employ of the Department of Public Works, has been discharged on account of his refusal to yield his preference in a certain political contest now pending and support the candidate favored by his superior in office; and whereas, it is an attempt to coerce employees of the city, to be investigated by the Committee on Public Works, and if the facts developed justify, the said committee shall make a report to Councils concerning the same.

A somewhat similar resolution was presented by John Bothwell, cousin of the Mayor's clerk, to the effect that Officer Ben Clark be paid for 30 days between the time he was suspended and the time he was discharged by Superintendent Muth.

At the conclusion of the meeting Mr. Knox stirred up the remnants of the contingent fund by asking for money to repair the Council chambers, but he was refused the money, and Mr. Nesbit quietly remarked that he had asked them they were not allowing enough for the contingent fund.

As to the other papers filed in the two branches last night were the following: Common—Repealing ordinance for ringing locomotive bells in the park, petition for footwalks on Euclid, Ellis and Wilson avenues, opening Union avenue, sewer on East street, repaving and sewer on Hill street, petition for removing north and south Pleasant Valley tracks on Ohio street, sewer on East Diamond street and widening Hanover street.

Select—Petition for repaving Ohio street from Cedar avenue to Western avenue, repaving Federal street from North Diamond street to North Liberty street, or advertising for bids for erecting a stone wall on Troy Hill road, a resolution providing for securing the safety of property on California avenue, now in danger by reason of slipping earth and to compromise claims for damages growing out of the improvement of that avenue.

JUST LEFT TOWN, But Schawwecker's Creditors Wanted Him to Settle First. William Schawwecker, a wall paper dealer at No. 78 Southern avenue, Mt. Washington, is much wanted by several local merchants. He contracted many debts in stocking his store, and has left without liquidating them.

Several days ago he left his wife and family, saying he was going down to Pittsburgh to make an effort to borrow some money. That was the last seen of him. By his disappearance Julius Kaiser is out $200, Herman Cuhn $200 and several other people various amounts.

As soon as the creditors learned of Schawwecker's disappearance they swarmed into the store and ransacked it of its contents, leaving nothing of value. Schawwecker's relatives say he has the keys for the store for good, and they have no fear of his having absconded.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy SUPERIOR TO ANY OTHER Mr. W. J. Mowrey, of Jarvisville, W. Va., says: "Since we have been handling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we have sold it on a strict guarantee and found that every bottle did good service. We have used it ourselves and think it superior to any other preparation we know of." 25 and 50-cent bottles for sale by druggists.

TO DEFEND PULPUS.

Colored Men Meet and Raised a Fund for Necessary Expenses. A meeting of colored citizens was held in the Franklin Schoolhouse last night for the purpose of raising a fund to defend John Pulpus, colored, who is in jail on the charge of having murdered Sarah Joyce, the young girl who was found dead on Sylvan avenue some time ago.

The attendance at the meeting was small. John M. Clark presided. Several speeches were made, in which it was claimed that Pulpus was unjustly accused. The newspaper reports of the case were read, and the assertion made that the case should have been disposed of before this, there having been several sessions of the grand jury since the arrest of Pulpus.

Requests to Charities. The Will of the Late Alexander Fink Filed for Probate. In the will of the late Alexander Fink filed for probate yesterday $300 is given to the Guskus Orphanage, $100 to the Hebrew Benevolent Society, and $500 to the Tree of Life Congregation, of this city.

Officers of the Historical Society. The Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania met last evening and elected officers for the ensuing year. Those elected were: President, Rev. A. A. Lambing; Vice Presidents, Daniel T. Johnston, Thomas Harper, J. H. Eaton, John A. Sargeant and Dr. John Morrison; Treasurer, John Fullerton; Secretary, Miss Jennie Lambing.

Your Blood Needs a thorough cleansing this spring, in order to expel the impurities which have accumulated during the winter, or which may be hereditary and cause you much suffering. We confidently recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as the very best.
