

FORAKER NOT IN IT.

Sherman, Foster and the Administration Get Even With Fire Alarm

FOR HIS RECENT VICTORY. The Ex-Governor May Not Even Be Allowed to Be a Delegate

TO THE MINNEAPOLIS MEETING.

A New Ohio Big Four Rise: From the Winter's Tribulations.

POLITICAL NEWS OF SEVERAL STATES

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)

COLUMBUS, O., April 25.—The results of the Republican primaries in Ohio on Saturday and today show that the Sherman wing of the party has elected nearly all the delegates to the State Convention except in Cincinnati and Cleveland. This is a surprise for the Forakerites, who, flushed with capturing the organization of the convention by the State Central Committee in this city a few weeks ago, were loud in their talk of what they intended to do. All is changed now, and the more shall we see of the crowd as it is very doubtful if even one of the four delegates at large to be elected at Cleveland Thursday will be a Foraker man. It was originally intended that two of the four delegates at large would be Governor McKinley and ex-Governor Foraker, but that the power is in the hands of the Shermainites. Fire Alarm is to be punished for the unpardonable sin of having run against Sherman for United States Senator last winter.

A New Big Four for Ohio. The Foraker slate was the ex-Governor, Colonel A. L. Conger, member of the National Republican Committee from Ohio, Auditor of State Poe, and, if he behaved like a good little boy, McKinley. On the other hand, the friends of the Mansfield statesman insist that the following shall be the ticket: McKinley, of Canton; Hanna, of Cleveland, John Sherman and William M. Hahn, of Mansfield. Conger and Poe want to go from Ohio to the National Convention. Will they do so? Why, no! Lorri, no!

Secretary of the Treasury Foster is working like a beaver to have the delegates invited to vote for the re-nomination of President Harrison, but while the administration may be incensed, this may not be done. Governor McKinley will not go to Cleveland before Wednesday.

The War Ready on Toledo. The Republicans of the Ninth Ohio Congressional district (Toledo) today elected W. H. Tucker and J. B. Wilson as delegates to Minneapolis, and L. D. Sargent and G. B. Spencer as alternates. All are Harrison men, and were instructed for the President. The sentiment was decidedly for an anti-administration man, but the Federal officials so manipulated things as to carry the day. A bitter factional war will certainly result in Democratic votes, it is now on. During the County Convention Postmaster Brown was very angry, calling his opponents names. A meeting of the committee was made to-day calling the attention of the Civil Service Commission to his conduct, and a petition asking his removal was numerously signed.

The Republican County Convention held at Zanesville to nominate delegates to the State Convention was a very exciting one. A committee consisting of one from each voting precinct chose a slate. The fun commenced when C. U. Shroyok, editor of the Sunday News, submitted a minority report, denouncing the anti-Harrison ticket and charging certain members with having packed the same, and with having circulated tickets with the above names upon them. A red-hot time followed, the speakers on both sides being greeted with cheers and hisses. The report of the committee was, however, adopted by a vote of 3 to 1. The delegation is a solid Sherman one, but the anti-Harrison element made an effort to name R. D. Martin, of Noble county, as State Central Committeeman for the district.

What Foraker's Fight Means. A special to THE DISPATCH from Washington says: The big fight against Harrison at present is in Ohio. The opposition of Foraker means more than it appears to, and some of the biggest men in the Republican party are generally supposed to be friends of Harrison are backing Foraker in his fight against Secretary Foster for the possession of delegates. When the work in the Buckeye State is done, the anti-Harrison men will go to work in earnest. They do not intend to go to Minneapolis with a cut-and-dried candidate. That is not their politics. They mean to have a perfect understanding among themselves, however, and to work in harmony when the convention ground is reached. They were never so hopeful of defeating Harrison as they are today.

FARMER TAGGART ON CAMERON.

He Won't Excuse Him That the Senator Knocked Him Out. HARRISBURG, April 25.—[Special.]—Representative Taggart, of Montgomery, whose fight in the State Republican convention last week for Congressman at large won him many new admirers throughout the State, accepts his defeat with good grace. Mr. Taggart was in Harrisburg today, on his way to Mechanicsburg. Mr. Taggart is as certain as his political fate. He positively asserts that he will not be a candidate for Congress in the Berks-Montgomery district, and has not yet decided whether to ask of his constituents another term in the House. "If an satisfied with the result of the convention," said Mr. Taggart. "General Lilly is said to be a very fair man, and I have no doubt Major McDowell is equally as good. I shall certainly support the ticket. Is Senator Cameron responsible for my defeat? He is charged with it. But that's all right. He has good cause to be against me. I am generally supposed to be friendly to the United States Senate. I have no fault to find with anyone."

Spirited Contest at Pottsville.

POTTSVILLE, April 25.—The Republican County Committee assembled here today for the purpose of electing a County Chairman. The contest was a spirited one between Elias Davis, W. J. Whitehouse and J. T. Shoener. On the third ballot Davis was elected by a vote of 107 over Shoener, who received 63. Davis was a member of the last Legislature, and Shoener was a candidate for Congress at the last election.

Judge Dean to Have a Reception.

BEDFORD, Pa., April 25.—[Special.]—Hon. John Dean, Republican candidate for Supreme Judge, arrived here this morning. He will preside over the courts this week for Judge Longenecker, who is interested in several cases that will come up for trial. On Thursday evening a reception will be given in his honor, in which leading county Republicans will take part.

Harrison and Blaine Approved.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 25.—The Thirty-

third District Republican Congressional Convention, held at Tonawanda today, elected delegates to the National Convention. Resolutions were adopted approving President Harrison and Secretary Blaine. The delegates were not instructed.

ONE OF RUSS HARRISON'S FRIENDS

Selected as a Delegate to Minneapolis From Albany.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 25.—[Special.]—The Republicans of the Nineteenth Congressional district, embracing Albany county, met today to elect two delegates and two alternates to the National Convention at Minneapolis. It required two conventions to decide who should go. The regular convention was captured by the Harrison men, and despite the protests of 22 anti-administration delegates, John A. Sleicher, the present non-resident editor of the Mail and Express and ally of Prince Russell Harrison, and Thomas Austin were elected delegates to the Minneapolis Convention. The bolters, headed by James Wellington Bentley, a staunch Tom Platt man, held a second convention and nominated E. A. Duran, Jr., and James O. Woodward as anti-Harrison delegates.

The regular convention adopted a resolution which endorsed the Harrison administration as "pure and patriotic," but tacked a Blaine rider on it, which congratulated him on "his advancement of the well-established Republican policy of reciprocity and protection." No open instructions were given to the delegates, but both delegations are understood to be ready to join in an uproar for the Planned Knight should it come out that the Harrison letter of declination to be burned.

ILLINOIS DEMOCRATS GATHERING

In Readiness for the Convention at Springfield.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 25.—Delegates to Wednesday's Democratic State Convention are already assembling in this city in large numbers. It is generally conceded to-night that John P. Altgeld, of Chicago, will be nominated for Governor on the first ballot, as his only actual competitor, John C. Black, ex-Commissioner of Pensions, does not seem to have any appreciable headway. There is every indication of a lively contest over the Presidential question. United States Senator Palmer has an unquestioned majority of the State delegates uncommitted for his support, but there is a strong movement among certain Southern Illinois delegates against any instruction whatever of delegates to the National Convention. There seems to be little doubt of the spirit of the delegates to give Palmer cordial endorsement, the only question being whether the delegates will positively instruct to vote as a unit at the Chicago Convention. Palmer himself has distinctly stated he will be satisfied with a general endorsement, the delegates being merely instructed to vote as a unit at the Chicago Convention for whoever they may deem the most available candidate.

FRICITION OVER APPORTIONMENT.

New York Legislators Find It Hard to Agree on the Matter.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 25.—[Special.]—After some friction on the apportionment bill it was finally agreed on, late this evening, but not in time to present to the extraordinary session of the Legislature at its first meeting at 8:30. To get the support of the majority of both Houses, alterations in the original draft of the bill not strictly warranted by the arithmetical ratios of the enumeration had to be made. It was the New York Buffalo and Troy Democrats on one side, and the rural Democrats on the other.

In a caucus the city Democrats would have the rural Democrats vote to assent to the bill which was prepared in the last three days, and which gave the fraction ratios to New York, Brooklyn, Buffalo and Troy. The Democrats members of both houses were present. There were a number of Republican absentees.

TELLER HAS NO BEE IN HIS BONNET.

The Wealthy Senator Wouldn't Consider a Third Party Nomination.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Senator Teller was kept busy today denying the statement that he is interested in a third party movement, the basis of which will be the Farmers' Alliance, and asserting that he has no Presidential aspirations. The article which he is denying is a sensational one, and appeared in a number of papers, and reported that he favored a party which would adopt free coinage of silver as its platform, and would seek to bring the Democratic and Republican parties alike. "There is absolutely no truth in the statement," said Senator Teller. "It is true that Senators and members of the House in this city have held a conference here, but it had no object other than the formation of a bi-metallic order to secure a wider interest in silver. It had no political bearing in any way, and I am sure that those persons who were concerned in the conference would not countenance the severing of party ties."

CAN'T LIVE WITHOUT HIS BRIDE.

A Young Hebrew Married to a Catholic Girl Tries to Commit Suicide.

JACKSON, MISS., April 25.—[Special.]—M. J. Hart, the young Hebrew who clandestinely married a Catholic girl here two weeks since, attempted suicide this morning by jabbing himself in the breast three times with a pocket knife. The mother of the girl has kept her away from her husband ever since the marriage was announced, a week ago, and the young man is half crazy, but sternly refuses remarriage by a priest. He called at the house of his bride this evening, demanded possession, and being refused by the implacable mother, stabbed himself before her eyes. Physicians pronounce the wounds not fatal.

Change of Return Day in Beaver.

PHILADELPHIA, April 25.—In the Supreme Court today, in the case of Brown versus Carey, from Jefferson county, judgment was reversed. It was ordered that hereafter the return day for Beaver county shall be the second instead of the first Monday of October, and in all pending cases from that county the return day of appeals, writs of certiorari, etc., is changed accordingly. This order shall be certified to the judges of the circuit and middle districts and the present Judge of Beaver county.

Killed by a Fall Over a Precipice.

MARCH CHURCH, PA., April 25.—L. Edward Klotz, son of ex-Congressman Klotz of this place fell over an embankment near the Wahneta Hotel, at Glen Ouzko, last evening and broke his neck. Death was instantaneous. He was 42 years old and leaves a wife and several children.

Ohio Saloonists Soaked.

MARSHALL, O., April 25.—Saloonists Albricht Kessler, Simon F. Welser, Gust Markin, Dick Powell, Jacob Calverton and Frank Dinkler were each fined $30 and costs for keeping their places open yesterday.

CIVIL SERVICE LAW

And Violations of It by Some Baltimore Postoffice People.

MR. WANAMAKER ON THE STAND

Admits His Ignorance of the Statutes on the Subject, and Is

INCLINED TO BE RATHER SARCASTIC

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The House Committee on Reform in the Civil Service today began its investigation into the allegations that the civil service law has been violated by the Federal officials at Baltimore. The committee is proceeding under the committee is proceeding recites in the preamble that Theodore Roosevelt, Civil Service Commissioner, in May, 1891, reported to the Civil Service Commission a number of Federal office holders in Baltimore took an active part in the primary election there, raised and spent money for political expenses, and, as they admitted, violated the United States civil service statutes, the punishment for which is dismissal from office and imprisonment; that the commission, upon Roosevelt's findings, recommended to the President the dismissal of the guilty officials, and that the Civil Service Reform Association, of Baltimore, called attention to the fact that no official action has been taken in consequence. Therefore the committee is directed to ascertain whether any or all of the guilty officials are still in office, and whether they have been indicted or prosecuted. Postmaster General Wanamaker was the first witness.

Purpose of the Investigation. Chairman Andrews briefly reviewed the purpose of the investigation, stating that 21 of the employees found to have violated the law were in the Baltimore postoffice. He asked whether any of these persons were still in office, and he admitted that the Postmaster General replied that the persons were all in the employ of the Government, and none had been indicted. The witness said the committee had ascertained that the Postmaster General had asserted that justices had been done the employees in Mr. Roosevelt's report, and witness thereupon ordered an investigation of the Postmaster General, who reported: "It is our opinion that the facts do not justify the dismissal of the 21 employees, or any of them, for violating the civil service laws, as charged."

The employees in the case, said the witness, were poor men, soldiers, and sons of soldiers, and the amount of their contributions was not much larger than the sum that would be required to pay for printing the report of the Civil Service Commission. Mr. Boatner, a member of the committee, asked if there was any law authorizing the investigation by the inspectors.

Mr. Wanamaker's Ignorance of Laws. The Postmaster General was unable to point to any such law, but explained the precedents and the functions of the inspectors. In this case, Postmaster Johnson had been reprimanded.

Mr. Andrews wished to know why the Postmaster had been reprimanded. The witness replied: "For allowing his men to be in the employ of the Government that could be excepted to. If these men gave an impression to the Civil Service Commissioners that could not be verified under oath, that makes trouble for the commissioners."

To Mr. Boatner, the Postmaster General said that if the men were engaged in assessing each other, or in coercing votes, these acts were certainly violations of the law, but the men denied that they had done so. Mr. Boatner asked of what use was the Civil Service Commission if the heads of the Civil Service Commission or any other head of the departments, independent of its head, and could step in and order dismissals of its own sweet will.

Mr. Andrews asked the Postmaster General if any employee who made one statement in April and another at a subsequent time, contradicting absolutely his former statements, ought to be retained in office.

Mr. Wanamaker said he did not think that any untruthful persons ought to be employed, but he called attention to the fact that 49 of the men contended that they had not seen the report, and that they would not keep any dishonest person in his employ, but he referred to the fact that a man might say that he had done something and hold another person, through fear, that he had not. There were two men of the 21 he had not forgiven, but none of the men were held for a violation of the civil service law.

YELLOW FEVER VICTIMS

By the Score Reported Every Day at Rio Janeiro—Sometimes 100 in a Day—Other Diseases Swell the Total—The Epidemic in Other Cities.

RIO DE JANEIRO, April 25.—The questions which apparently give the Government most concern at present are those of public health and the increased cost of living. The mortality caused by yellow fever, the growth of which had been checked by heavy rains, is again increasing, and as is usually the case when yellow fever prevails here, there are at the same time many deaths from other fevers. On the 13th there were in this city, according to official statistics, 145 deaths, the largest number that has been reported for one day this year. Of these 26 were caused by yellow fever, 26 by other fevers, and a number by a violent disease, the action of which was exceedingly rapid, sometimes causing those attacked by it to drop dead in the streets.

BOARDS OF TRADE

To Be Organized in Russia to Assist in Preventing Famines.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 25.—The American Consul here says that the Russian Government intends to establish boards of trade in every province of the country under the direction of paid officials. These boards are to be constituted on a system similar to that which has been adopted in the United States. The organizations will gather and disseminate all available information regarding crops, approaches of storms, atmospheric phenomena, etc.

Cold Comfort for Murderer Keok.

PHILADELPHIA, April 25.—The Supreme Court today affirmed the decision of the Lehigh County Court in the case of the murderer, William F. Keok, and ordered the record remitted for execution. The decision says the admission of testimony given by William Nipsch at the preliminary hearing at the trial was in order, although Nipsch had died meanwhile.

An Army of Young Druggists.

HARRISBURG, April 25.—About 280 applicants for certificates as registered pharmacists or qualified assistants appeared before the State Examining Board in the hall of the House of Representatives this afternoon.

Sir James Joseph Allport Dead.

LONDON, April 25.—Sir James Joseph Allport, Chairman of the Midland Railway Company, of England, died, aged 81 years. He served for 27 years as a director of the company.

A FUND FOR COLONEL OLCOTT

Raised by the Theosophists Yesterday at Chicago—The Committee Elected for the Evening Year—Ella Wheeler Wilcox Executives a Committee.

CHICAGO, April 25.—About 100 members of the American section of the Theosophical Society were present at today's session of the annual convention. The general secretary was instructed to devise means of consolidating the work of the Oriental department, and the services of Prof. Drivedi were dispensed with. It was decided to request every member of the order to contribute $10 toward a fund for Colonel Olcott, the retiring president. The following committee was appointed for the coming year: E. A. Heresheimer, New York; Alexander Fullerton, New York; A. H. Spencer, New York; E. B. Page, St. Louis; E. R. Rambo, San Francisco; Dr. A. P. Buchanan, Fort Wayne, Ind.; William Q. Judge, New York. Mr. Heresheimer was elected Treasurer, and William Q. Judge was re-elected General Secretary. Among the 24 councillors elected was Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Secretary Judge explained why Mahatmas were usually found in the Himalayas. As there is no inaccessible place in America where Mahatmas might exist, every newspaper man in the United States would find them out and interview them and choke out of them the secrets they have. Do you think Mahatmas could live in Chicago, in New York? No; they would be asked to advertise. There is no reverence for Mahatmas in America, and they could not exist here. This is why they are found in the utmost fastnesses of the Himalayas. The remainder of the day and evening were devoted to the reading and discussion of papers on theosophical subjects.

STEAL BLAINE'S THUNDER.

Canadians Propose Reciprocity With England—No Hope for a Treaty With the United States—America Said to Have an Unfriendly Spirit.

OTTAWA, April 25.—In the House of Commons today, Senator McNeill moved a resolution to the effect that if the Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland admits Canadian products to markets of the United Kingdom upon more favorable terms than it accords to the products of foreign countries, the Parliament of Canada be prepared to accord corresponding advantages by a reduction in the duties it imposes on British manufactured goods. He spoke at great length in support of his motion, producing voluminous arguments in support of the success of the English policy of free trade.

Member Hazen followed, advocating the motion, saying that Canada would reap great benefit from preferential duties at a ten per cent advantage into Great Britain and admit British goods at a similar advantage. Statements of free trade tendencies in Great Britain were also presented. At present it seemed useless to hope for a reciprocity treaty with the United States as it was evident that such a treaty could only be obtained by giving American products an advantage over British manufactures and products of Great Britain.

CHEMISTRY OF GRASSHOPPER

The Insect Furnishes Good Formic Acid and Considerable Copper.

Some very important uses for grasshoppers have recently been discovered. There would seem to be no reason why they should not be applied to commercial advantage in the event of a plague this year. Not long ago four quarts of liquid, expressed from half a bushel of "hoppers" under a cheese-press, were shipped in a glass jar from Spirit Lake, Ia., to the William E. Kellogg of the Kansas State Agricultural College. He made a complete analysis, and by distilling the juice with sulphuric acid, obtained a colorless, limpid solution of formic acid. Now, this acid is very valuable, having great uses in the arts, and is also a valuable medicine to a considerable extent, but is also utilized in the laboratory to reduce gold, silver, platinum, etc., to their metallic state. Hitherto it has always been extracted from red ants, but the possibility of getting it in large quantities from grasshoppers suggests a method for employing those insects to our advantage.

An interesting feature of the analysis was the discovery of a certain amount of copper in the liquid. This metal has been used in the arts, and is also a valuable medicine to a considerable extent, but is also utilized in the laboratory to reduce gold, silver, platinum, etc., to their metallic state. Hitherto it has always been extracted from red ants, but the possibility of getting it in large quantities from grasshoppers suggests a method for employing those insects to our advantage.

CUT HER THROAT WITH A RAZOR.

A Mother Suicides in the Presence of Her 10-Year-Old Son.

READING, April 25.—Mrs. John Meterko died at St. Joseph's Hospital today, the result of having slashed her throat with a razor yesterday afternoon. The woman had been a great sufferer during the past ten weeks, as a result of a strain received from lifting too heavily, and was confined to her bed. Yesterday afternoon she attempted to cut her throat, but as the knife was dull, only succeeded in scratching the skin. Her 10-year-old son, who had been very violent, tearing the bandages from her throat, and it was with great difficulty that she was quieted. She grew weaker until she expired.

CHARGED WITH VAGRANCY.

Holmes Anderson Picked Up by the South-side Police—Fitzsimmons' Friend Defends Himself, and Declares He Is Not a Loner—He Lives With His Sister.

Recollections of the famous Fitzsimmons case were revived on the South-side last night. Holmes Anderson, through whose correspondence with Fitzsimmons, the latter was captured, was arrested at the Lake Erie depot, and looked up in the Twenty-eighth ward station house, on a charge of vagrancy. He is charged with loitering around the depot at various times and begging nickels and dimes.

Anderson was interviewed in the station house last night. He said he had not been doing anything out of the way. He said that one night last week he came in from West Liberty borough, where he is living with a sister, and in company with Alderman King, had a few drinks of whisky. He admitted that while he was under the influence of liquor he might have begged some money, but he was sober last night and came down the incline from Belthoover borough to meet his brother-in-law, and as soon as he arrived at the Lake Erie depot he was arrested.

His connection with the Gussalls murder and subsequent connection with the Fitzsimmons affair, are still fresh in the minds of the people. He was indicted for the murder of young Gussalls, an Alleghenian, whose body was found near West Liberty borough one morning, but there was no evidence against him and the case was nolle prossed. It was while he and Fitzsimmons were in jail together that they became fast friends, and after the latter escaped he wrote letters to Anderson asking him to meet him in New Orleans. Anderson tried to conceal the correspondence, but he was not sharp enough for Warden McAleese, who discovered two letters the morning Anderson was released.

Anderson is a riverman, but he says he has not been working lately. He still manages to dress well, and has a rather intelligent appearance.
