GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

Old Dame Fortune is still bestowing he smiles on that child of her own rearing Jimmy Galvin The old sport wa again on deck yes terday and it was a question as to whether or not Mr. Jouette Meekin or Jeems should suffer a first defeat this season as a pitcher. Why, of course, the old man won, and won just known that Jee and his slugging colleagues are out to business with leaders as well as tail-ende The old man was never in more effective a deceptive form than he was yesterday as the Colonels soon discovered that fact.

The representatives of Bourbondom ca here as the prospective pennant winner They were at the top, and that veteran, Ja Chapman, who has them in charge, had litt idea that anything in Pittsburg could know them off their perch. But old "Pappy" did it; the hero of a thousand battles dragged them down a notch and placed his own pals a notch higher.

Lots of Good Features.

There were so many attractive features connected with the game that 3,800 people paid to see the contest. That is, indeed, great Monday's crowd, and they saw some great Monday's crowd, and they saw some great ball playing. For once the Louisville representatives found that they had fallen among some very tough people, and that there were no Chicago crowds to help them out. Mr. Meekin probably knew as much out. Mr. Meekin probably knew as much about it as anybody else, because, despite his reputation of terrorism, the local sluggers started in from the first and touched him was to the Organ's taste. Hell not for him up to the Queen's taste. He'll not for get Elmer Smith. The latter faced Jouette five times, and made two triples and two singles. That was enough to give any young

But, though besten, the Louisvilles are a good team. They played well, except Fred Pieffer, who was a little off. But he still has his old dash, and doubtless will let the local cranks know that he is in the arena be fore be leaves town. To be sure, there were hundreds glad to see Tom Brown, Billy Kuehne and Pete Browning again. Poor Pete didn't get a hit, but he tried awfully hard; so hard that if Miller hadn't made a thenomenal catch in the eighth inning Pete would have had a three-bagger. But he stated last evening that his lamps would be all right to-day.

Billy Knobne Wes There

Kuehne was the only one of the visitors who could to any material extent find Old Sport's measure, and when "Little Willy made his "driesocker" the good-nature crowd enjoyed it, because it pleased Will and didn't do very much harm.

Veteran Chapman has a good team, ar their only fault yesterday was they couldn hit Galvin safely. They banged the bal out, but fielders were almost always waiting for it. Jeems was well supported, and the didn't amount to much. The outfielding Meekin was well supported, with the ex-ception of two of Picifer's mistakes. Weaver caught well, and is apparently a good man. But the visitors were outplayed, and that is

But the visitors were outplayed, and that is why they were besten.

In the first inning, after Miller had knocked out a nice fly, which Brown caught, Bierbaner rapped out a hot one down the right roul line for three bases. Smith next loaned up with another three-bagger into right center, and finally scored on a wild throw by Pieffer. The run, however, turned out to be an earned one, as Beckley made a spicedid single hit which would have brought Smith home.

brought Smith home.

In the next inning Corkhill led off and struck out. Then Mack was thrown out at first, Pfeffer to Meekin. This booked gloomy, but Galvin got his base on balls and so did Miller, and Meekin was very weary looking, Indeed. Then Bierbauer langed the ball into center field for a base and Galvin scored. Smith followed suit and Miller secred and then Farrell struck out.

A Very Lively Inning.

The fourth inning came round and before it closed the visitors knew that yesterda; didn't amount to much for them. Bierbauer led off and got his base on balls. That wasn't a surprise, but when Elmer Smith came again with a three-bagger, everybody laughed loud or yelled. Bierbauer tallied. Farrell's fly was caught by Jennings and Backley knocked a long fly to Seery, Smith scoring on the throw in. Pfeffer fumbled Shagart's grounder and the latter got to first all right. Pop Corkvill made a capital two-bagger to right and Shagart scored. Pfeffer also fumbled Mack's grounder and Corkhill scored, making four runs for the inning. In the fifth the visitors got a run and were glad of it. Weaver renched first because smith muffed a fly that he knocked out, and got to second on a muffed throw by Bierbaner. Neckin and Brown each sent out flies that were caught by Sugart and Corkhill respectively. Pleaser brought is the run by a good two-baser to right. In the next inning Browning got to first on a muffed fly by Shugart and after the next two mean were out, Billy Knehne thumped the ball over Miller's bead for three bags. Everybody shouled, "Well done, Willy." The run scored, and that only made the visitors two, and hence the good nature of the crowd. The visitors scored no more. also fumbled Mack's grounder and Corkhill

The local singgers made one more in the seventh and it was arcistically done, even though it was not an earned run. Beckley got his base on balls and stele second beautifully. Singgart sacrificed him to third and Corkhill's long fly to Seery allowed him to score. It was good team work, indeed.

Mr. Lynch umpired a splendid game and was applauded when he appeared on the grounds. The score:

To-Day's Home Game,

The home team and the Louisvilles will again struggle for supremacy this afternoon at Exposition Park. The contest is sure to be of a very interesting kind as it will be a battle for position again. Baldwin and Mack will be the home battery and Stratton and Grim will officiate for Chapman's heroes. Manager Buckenberger has asked Manager Chapman to play off the Louisville postponed game here Thursday and each club to share equally the entire receipts. Manager Chapman will give a definite answer to-day.

CINCINNATI, April 25.-[Special.]-The Cleve-land dates at Cincinnati have been changed so as to enable them to play Sunday games, and are as follows: May I instead of June 22: July 10 instead of June 23; August 7 instead of September 26; August 14 instead of Sep of September 20; August 14 instead of September 27; August 21 instead of September 28. Five in all, and the only games they play here this season. The Cleveland and Cincinnati play an exhibition game at Ft. Wayne, Ind., Sunday, June 19. The above changes give the Cincinnatis a total of 13 home Sauday games and six away, 19 in all. If the attendance at the last two Sauday games. attendance at the last two Sunday games, nearly 39,000 in all, can be taken as a cri-terion, the Sunday games will alone land the Reds on easy street financially.

Amusing if Not Instructive. Washington, April 25.—[Special.]-The newspaper men and printers of this city defeated the clerks in a game of ball this afternoon by a score of 11 to 6. There was array crowd of spectators, and the game was a musing if not instructive all the way through. Kuntz and Decker, and Blair and Lee were the opposing batteries.

All Fixed Up.

There was a meeting of the County League ast evening, and everything was satisfac torily arranged regarding the objection of the Climax Club to the schedule. No changes will be made. Burt Edwards was appointed official scorer, a very good selection. The League season opens next Saturday.

THE Eastern League is playing fast and loos with the salary limit. SURSCRIBER-Louisville won the game, as the umpire's decision must stand. Tom Brown received a good 'send off' when he appeared at the plate yesterday. A READER-Meckin, of the Louisville club, has never played on the Pittsburg team. MEEKIN evidently became nervous once or twice esterday when facing the local sluggers. IF Brooklyn keeps playing good ball, both Had cock and Lovett will step down from their perch.

It is now known that Anson's enemies rushed on the grounds at Chicago, Saturday, and stopped the game. JIM MUTRIE was discharged from the manage-ment of the E-mira club yesterday for his old fail-ing. Poor Jim. PRESIDENT HART, of Chicago, has a lame excuse for Anson's poor showing. He declares: "Our club excels in batting, and owing to the wet conditions of the various grounds the balls have been wet and soft, while the fielding by the players could not improve under such unfavorable coulditions. At Louisville, I am informed, the outfield was so wet that the fly balls fell in water so deep as to splash the fielders."

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 WASHINGTON, PA., April 25 .- Washing ton proper, for another year at least, will go dry so far as retail licenses are concerned, the Court having refused the application of Charles A. Bailey for the European Hotel. The list as handed down this morning, instead of also refusing license to Charleroi as was expected, gives that town three retail licenses. They are L. W. H. Davis, C. F. Ham and J. W. Gribble. In Finleyville, Ham and J. W. Gribble. In Finleyville, J. W. Sheplar, and Gastouville, John Wykes, were grauted licenses.

The brewers and distillers licensed were: L. N. Burson, East Bethlehem township; Oliver Gregg, Union; J. Kammerer, Nottingham; James Emery, Millsboro; Jacob Zelt, Washington; William Booth, Carrol; Abram Sunstein, East Bethlehem: Joseph Harrison, Monongahela City; William Harrison, Monongahela City; Gilpin, Taylor & Co., East Bethlehem. It is believed Judge McIlvaine's personal convictions and the pressure brought by the college people, were the causes that knocked out Charles Greer and Charles Bailey, who were so strongly backed for license here.

A TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

George Moore, of Dennison, O., Shoots His Wife, a Boarder and Elmself. DENNISON, O., April 25 .- At 6:30 o'clock this morning George Moore shot his wife, killing her instantly, shot Edward McClelland, a saloonkeeper, badly wounding him, and then fatally shot himself. Moore and his wife had had a great deal of trouble lately, growing out of the suspicion on Moore's part that his wife was too intimate with Mo-Clelland.

When Moore returned from work this morning he found his wife sitting at work at her sewing machine. Without saying a word he drew a revolver and shot her through the head, killing her instantly. He then ran into an adjoining room, where McClelland was sleeping, and fired two shots at him, one striking him in the forehead. Moore then ran to his mother-in-law, nearby, and shot himself through the head, and is now dying.

M'KEESPORT MATTERS.

The Wild Man Captured Again-Costly Church Edifices Under Way. McKezsront, April 25.-Stephen Febren bach, the wild man whose capture was re-ported in The Disparch from Homestead some time ago, has been living in the mountainsagain, and was yesterday brought mountains again, and was yesterday brought back from his wild life after having lived over a month without shelter in the woods back of the Occola coal mines, on the Youghlogheny. He was sent to the Clay farm, near Buenn Vista, where he wanted to go when discovered before. He was captured after a hard chase, and was found to be half clad and nearly starved, having lived of anything that he could find in the woods. Hecently when the St. Mary's German Catholic congregation concluded to build a new $00,000 church it was decided to front it on Olive street, midway between Locustand Jenny Lind streets. Now they have decided to locate it at the corner of Olive and Locust streets so as to have it front on both. They will also buy the ground adjoining, which will cost $25,000. The old building will be remodeled into a fine large school building. The Central Presbyterian congregation to day awarded the contract for building the $15,000 chapel, which is the first portion of a $50,000 stone church that will be built in South park, for which James Evans, the banker, donated $7,000 and a $10,000 ste.

ANOTHER MIRROR SUICIDE

An Ex-Contractor B ows Bis Brains Out Before a Looking Glass, Henry Scholle, a retired contractor, aged 67 years, suicided at his residence, No. 3332 Brereton avenue, Thirteenth ward. The same plan adopted by John Hoffman, his neighbor, a few days ago, was followed by Scholle, who stood before a mirror in his bedroom to fire the fatal shot from a bull dog revolver of large caliber. Despondency caused by bronchial and dyspeptic trouble caused by bronchial and dyspeptic trouble of three years'duration was the cause of the suicido, which had been premeditated for several days.

On Saturday Mr. Scholle sent his son James to Tarentum to summon his brother, James to Tarentum to summon his brother, with instructions not to return until yesterday morning. On Sunday he sent for Alderman McPike, of the Fifteenth ward, and had his will drawn up, dividing his estate equally among his children.

At 3 o'clock yesterday morning, Mrs. Scholle, the aged wife of the suicide, was awakened by a shot, and saw her husband sitting on the edge of the bed with a emoking revolver in his hand. While she ran to summon assistance he stepped to the mirror summon assistance he stepped to the mirror and fired the second shot back of his right ear. It passed through the brain and the top of the skull. Death was instantaneous. The first bullet had only caused a flesh wound.

Scholle was at one time a prosperous contractor, but became afflicted with disease and was forced to retire. He leaves his family comfortably situated. The Coroner's inquest was held yesterday afternoon and a verdict of suicide was rendered.

Fixing Tourist and Fishing Entes. The compilers and the rate clerks of the Central Traffic Association will meet at the Monongahela House to-day to prepare the schedule of tourist rates for the summer. Few changes, if any, will be made, and the rates of last year will prevail. The Southern tourist rates will be recalled about May 1, and the new ones will go into effect June 1. The Pittsburg Passenger Asso-ciation will also meet at the Baltimore and Ohio office to-day, to fix the hunting and fishing rates out of this city. The old rate or one-third off will be continued. The fact is, these meetings are a matter of formality.

Verdiets by the Coroner's Jury. A verdict of death from alcoholism was rendered by the Coroner's jury in the case of John Davis, of South avenue, Allegheny, who went home drunk Saturday night and was found dead on the floor Sun-day morning. In the case of Edward Brennen, who was run over by a Pleasant Valley car Saturday night, a verdict of accidental death was rendered.

Backed His Argument With a Hod. Gabriel Johnston, a colored resident of Allegheny, was arrested on that side of the river yesterday for assaulting a fellow citizen. The dispute grew out of an argument in regard to the "plumbness" of a wall, and Mr. Johnston settled the argument by banging his adversary a blow on the head with a hod. An information will be lodged against the prisoner.
