A HIT AT HARRISON.

Colorado Republicans Refuse to Even Indorse His Administration.

SILVER MEN DEMANDED.

New Jersey's State Central Committee Resigns in a Body.

BENJAMIN CAPTURES ONE STATE,

The Delegates From Nebraska Being the Only Ones Instructed

TO VOTE FOR THE PRESIDENT AGAIN

INPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. DENVER, COL., April 27 .- Notwithstanding the claims of his many admirers President Harrison is anything but a favorite among Colorado Republicans, as was evinced here to-day, when the State Republican Convention selected as delegates to the Minneapolis convention three of the President's bitterest enemies. For months past United States Senators Teller and Wolcott have done everything in their power to turn their constituents from the present administration. Letters have been written by the score and the nomination of Secretary Blaine advocated.

This fight against the President was caused through the appointment of N. P. Hall as a member of the International Monetary Commission. This gentleman is reported to have said that should President Harrison secure the Colorado delegation at Minneapolis he (Hall) would be made a member of the Harrison Cabinet in case of the President's re-election.

With the aid of his paper ex-Senator Hall has done everything in his power to capture to-day's convention. In this he was assisted by William H. Griffith, publisher of the Colorado Sun, who is opposed to Senator Wolcott to Senator Wolcott.

Harrison's Chief Enemies Honored.

The fight was a most bitter one. Wolcott's and Teller's interests were looked after by Issae N. Stevens, who in all probability will be Colorado's next member in the National House of Representatives. From the first it became apparent that Har rison could claim no recognition at the hands of Colorado Republicans, and as a result to-day's convention selected as delegates E. Wolcott, Henry M. Teller, H. Townsend and Jud L. Brush, all of whom will fight Harrison and push the nomina-tion of James G. Blaine.

In the resolutions adopted, after demanding of Congress a law providing the free and unlimited coinage of silver on an equal basis with gold, it says:

Resolved, That the consistent, fearless and able fight made by our Representatives in Congress on behalf of white metal fully and accurately reflects not only the sentiment of the Renublican party of this State, but also of the whole Rocky Mountain mining region, and that this convention regards it as a sacred dury, as well as an unqualified pleasure, to fully and unequivocally indorse their action.

None but Silver Men Need Apply. After the indorsement of Blaine the resolution concludes:

Resolved, That this convention does here-by instruct its delegates to the National Convention at Minneapolis to oppose, by every honorable means, the nomination of any man for the office of President or Vice President of the United States who is not known to be heavily in favor of the enertknown to be heartily in favor of the enact-ment of a law providing for the free and un-

A resolution indorsing Harrison's admin-istration was presented, and, with the ex-ception of one dissenting vote (624 to 1), unanimously laid on the table.

THE ADMINISTRATION INDORSED.

But New Hampshire Will Support Anyone Who is for its Platform.

CONCORD, N. H., April 27.-Hon, Hiram D. Upton in calling the Republican State Convention to order to-day, characterized President Harrison's administration as excentionally clean, able and just, and pointed out the benefits therefrom arising, McKinley and Blaine coming in for their share of praise. Frank Churchill, of Lebs-non; Benjamin A. Kimball, of Concord; Henry B. Quimby, of Lakeport, and Chas. T. Means, of Manchester, were chosen delegates-at-large.

The platform indorses the administration and the Republican course in Congress, and demands the nomination by the National Convention at Minneapolis of candidates whose character and record are such that they will be recognized without platform or pledges as able and unfaltering representatives of the party that stands for tariff pro-tection of home industry and enterprise upon the lines of the McKinley law, free trade in articles we cannot produce, reciprocity, an honest currency, a new navy and coast defenses, substantial support of the merchant marine and liberal appropriations

The Delegates of One State Instructed to Vote for the President.

KEARNEY, NEB., April 27 .- The Republican State Convention was held here today. United States Marshal Slaughter was temporary and permanent Chairman. There were no contesting delegations and the work of the convention went on without a hitch. Resolutions instructing the delegates to the National Convention to vote for the re-nomination of Benjamin Harrison were passed amid much enthusiastic cheering. Edward Rosewater, Editor of the Omaha Bee, was indersed by an almost unanimous vote of the convention as Committeeman from Nebraska

Charles Cobb, J. L. Webster and L. D. Richard were elected delegates at large.
The gentlemen selected each renewed, in short speeches, their pledges to support Benjamin Harrison.

No delegate, the Democrat asserts, is instructed to vote for Cleveland, nor is it in-timated that his nomination would be wise

A QUARREL IN NEW JERSEY.

The Entire State Committee Forced to Re sign-Too Many Defeats Under Its Leadership-The Committee Indorses, but Doesn't Instruct for Harrison

TRENTON, N. J., April 27 .- [Special.]-There was lively quarreling among the Re-publicans who held their State Convention in Taylor Opera House to-day to appoint delegates to the National Republican Convention. On the surface there was a brave and cheerful show of harmony and enthusiasm, but beneath it, and yet in plain view of everybody, was a scene of ill-feeling and disorder, and the feeling developed was so intensely bitter that instead of going into intensely bitter that instead of going into the campaign "shoulder to shoulder," to die in a gallant political fight, they are going to the battle, unless the ugly manifestations made to-day shall prove ephemeral, handicapped so greatly that even a vigorous campaign will be impossible.

Just as the theater was ringing with cheers for Peter F. Wanser, the members of the State Executive Committee tendered their resignation in a body—not because they wanted to, as it was made to appear,
but because they were forced to by the rank and file of the party who for years have but because they were forced to by the rank and file of the party who for years have been led to disaster by them. The whole-sale resignation of the committee was ac-cepted on the instant, and later, when ex-Senator Griggs and others spoke in their defense, it was made clear that they were terribly disgruntled, and intended to do less for the party than they were willing or able todo in the past.

or able to do in the past.

This was not the only feature of the conother things occurred to give the lie to the placid appearance of the proceedings, and which must stir up strife among the Republicans in every part of the State. A new State Committee was formed, and Essex and Indian counties was given to the state. Hudson counties were given two members each, while the other counties were accorded nly one member each.

The delegates at large to the Minneapolis Convention were fixed upon by the bosses months ago, and although half a dozen attempts were made to break the slate it was not even scratched, and the failure to smash or darriage it in any way added to the general disgust of the convention. The delegates at large are General William J. Sewell, John I. Blair, G. A. Hobart and

Sewell, John I. Blair, G. A. Hobart and George A. Halsey.

The platform was adopted without trouble. It indorses the Harrison administration, reaffirms the Republican policy touching national issues, and "pitches into" the Democracy of New Jersey on general principles. The convention came to a close with a humorous speech by Congressman Horr, of Michigan.

NO INSTRUCTIONS FOR HARRISON,

Though Maine Republicans Think He Is Mighty Good President. BANGOR, ME, April 27.-The Republican State Convention to-day adopted the following platform:

can State Convention to-day adopted the following platform:

The Republicans of Maine assembled in State convention look with gratification upon the many evidences in all parts of the country that the popular strength of the party at the approach of the impending campaign is increasing. They pledge anew their faith in the great principles to which the party is committed; the protection of American labor, joined with its ally and handmaiden, reciprocity; a sound currency for the people; the political rights of all citizens; the purity of the ballot, and a wise and prudent administration of general government. They look with pride upon the record of the distinguished representatives of the party in Congress, and are glad to here express their continued loyalty and devotion to that great statesman and leader, the Secretary of State, Hon. James G. Blaine. They congratulate the country and the Republican party on a vindication by the highest court in the land of the principles of the majority rule so well enunciated and so ably and courageously maintained by Maine's honored son, the Speaker of the last House of Representatives, Hon. Thomas R. Reed. They recognize the marked success of the presentation; its wise conduct of affairs in all the departments at home, and its marked triumphs in the diplomatic complications which have arisen between the United States and other nations, the record of which establishes their confidence in President Harrison, and they believe that the best interests of the party and of the country will be served by his renomination and re-election.

General Thomas W. Hyde, of Bath, and Hon. W. M. Nash, of Cherryville, were chosen Presidental electors, and delegates at large were chosen in the order named below: Edmund B. Mallet, Charles E. Little-field, Edmund J. Webb and John L. Cutter. Immediately after the resolutio adopted Delegate Cutter asked if the last resolution was intended for instructions to delegates, and ex-Governor Davis replied that it was not, and upon this under ing they were unanimously adopted.

Judge Single's Decision to Be Appealed

Judge Slagle's decision on the question of brewers and distillers being entitled to only one additional license has caused a great deal of surprise and a greater amount of objection. The decision means a loss of about $75,000 to the various brewers, as their cold storage houses must remain una reduction of from 20 to 40 per cent of the appropriations for their respective States, as recommended in the bill. Such propositions are not meeting with favor, for those members who have succeeded in getting a good big slice of the appropriations are not disposed to yield any portion of it.

The arguments offered in support of the proposed reductions are that if the bill is too large it may fail altogether. In other words, Senators insist on having their share of the "pork," and they fear that if they add their amendments to the already large bill, it will go way beyond the river and harbor bill of the "billion-dollar" Congress. Balfour for the Bill, and Liberals Are on Record Against It.

NEWS FROM THE EUROPEAN CAPITALS

LONDON, April 27 .- In the House of Commons to-day Sir Albert Kaye Rollit moved the second reading of his women's suffrage bill. He declared that, although much had been said derogstory to women exercising the franchise in Wyoming, where they had the right to vote, he had official documents showing that such exercise of the franchise was beneficial in that State.

Samuel Smith (Liberal) moved the reection of the bill. He urged that female suffrage was introduced in Wyoming by accident. Educated Americans, he said, were opposed to giving the franchise to women. The only forces that would benefit by the passage of the bill would be elericalism and socialism.

Mr. Balfour favored the bill. He said he did not agree with those who held that it would be degrading for women to take part in politics. There were other women's associations, including the Women's Liberal Federation.

Here Walter S. McLaren (Radical) in-terrupted Mr. Balfour, saying, "Of which Mr. Gladstone is President."

Mr. Balfour said he did not wish to enter into a personal question, but, at any rate, every section of the House is only too glad to avail themselves of women. It did not lie in any of their mouths to say that taking an active part in framing the policy of the Empire would be degrading to women.

A most surprising feature of the debate was the attitude of the Liberals, whose programme includes a great extension of the franchise. Mr. Gladstone did not speak at all, though from his recent letter it is all, though from his recent letter it is known that he is opposed to granting the franchise to women. A division was taken on Sir Albert Rollit's motion, and it was defeated, the vote standing 175 to 152.

The ladies' gallery of the House of Commons was packed, among the occupants being Mrs. Gladstone, Lady Harcourt, Lady Henry Somerset and Mrs. Fawcett. The smallness of the majority against the motion caused surprise, as many had expected that it would be rejected by a vote of two to one.

Paris, April 27. - The conciliatory tone f Judge Gues, who presided at the trial of the Anarchists, is severely condemned. It s suggested that the jury took their cue from the Judge. As some of the jurymen passed the excited groups, they were greeted with angry cries of "cowards."
