

THE BUSINESS WORLD.

Jay Gould a Long Way From Being Turned Down Yesterday in THE UNION PACIFIC'S ELECTION.

What the Monthly Report of the Pennsylvania Company Shows.

FIRES, FAILURES AND RAILWAY NEWS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

BOSTON, April 27.—The result of the Union Pacific election today is that Jay Gould and his party are retained in the directorship. This is the first time for the Missouri Pacific, which the opposition people looked upon as a competing system. The following are the directors elected in the order of the size of their vote: Edwin F. Atkins, Boston; Samuel Carr, Boston; Henry H. Cook, New York; F. Gordon Dexter, Boston; Sidney Dillon, New York; G. M. Dodge, Council Bluffs; Marvin Houghtitt, Chicago; Henry E. Hyde, New York; Joseph A. Hillard, Omaha; Alexander E. Orr, New York; James Sharp, Salt Lake City; Gardiner M. Lane, Boston; Jay Gould, New York; Russell Sage, New York.

The board ticket was on blue paper, the Boissevain, or foreign ticket, on white paper. In the list of directors represented on the foreign ticket, the names of Gould, Sage and Clark do not appear. Sims Boissevain having been committed to the shareholders, whose vote is to be taken at a Board of Directors who would represent the Union Pacific shareholders and would have no interest in the Missouri Pacific.

S. H. H. Clark, of Omaha, General Manager of the Union Pacific Railroad, was on the directors' ticket, but was defeated by Gardiner M. Lane from the opposition ticket. He will probably be placed on the board by the other directors, and may possibly be elected President. The two other directors besides Mr. Lane on the opposition ticket were Charles W. Johnson, of St. Louis, and Marcus A. Hanna, of Cleveland. The foreign ticket appeared to have been defeated by 10,000 votes, as this is the amount Russell Sage received over Charles C. Jackson.

The election of the Board of Directors of the Commercial Bank at St. Paul, Minn., took place at 11 o'clock this morning. The Commercial Bank closed its doors at noon today, and a card was placed on the window announcing that the business is temporarily suspended, but that all depositors will be paid in full. This action was taken after a heavy run continuing during the entire forenoon. Mr. Middleton, one of the directors, was elected President, and Mr. Clark, of Omaha, was chosen to fill the vacancy. Sidney Dillon declined re-election to the Presidency, and Mr. Clark was elected in his place. Mr. Dillon being elected Chairman of the board, a position treated for him as a matter of course. Vice President to succeed Mr. Clark, and the latter was made a member of the Executive Committee in place of Mr. Clark.

The Cardinal then blessed the stone and the ceremonies ended. The building is 250 feet long, 100 feet in the center, the wings being 75 feet deep. It will be surmounted by a statue of Christ, "The Light of the World." It will not be opened until the fall of 1894.

A NEW HALL OF PHILOSOPHY

The Cornerstone of Which is Laid by Cardinal Gibbons.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—[Special.]—Appropriate ceremonies in the laying of the cornerstone of the McMahon Hall of Philosophy took place this afternoon on the grounds of the Catholic University. Cardinal Gibbons and Hon. Charles J. Bonaparte delivered appropriate addresses. The Cardinal said that the faculty of Philosophy, to accommodate the needs of the students, had for its object the profound study of all that concerns man and his multifarious relations with all below him, and above him, and about him, as seen in the light of the laws of the universe. The United States were proud to establish an institution like this in our national capital, under the eyes of our whole country and in most cordial relations with all the nations of the world of learning and social improvement.

The Cardinal then blessed the stone and the ceremonies ended. The building is 250 feet long, 100 feet in the center, the wings being 75 feet deep. It will be surmounted by a statue of Christ, "The Light of the World." It will not be opened until the fall of 1894.

Have you noticed the Lo Let Rooms contain word advertising columns of the Daily and Sunday Dispatch?

SHORT STORIES OF CITY LIFE.

The Twelfth Ward School Board, Allegheny, met last night and re-elected the old group of teachers. The members of the board yesterday offered their services to Chief Higdon to give a free concert in a few weeks at Highland Park.

A woman, evidently demoralized, was attracting the attention of pedestrians on Liberty street yesterday and Officer Lee took her to Central station. She is well dressed and says she lives on Fifth street and that her name is Kate Mills.

COLLIDED WITH THE STATUTES.

RICHARD CONNELL has been held for court for the non-support of his wife. FREDERICK WALTZ, of Larimer avenue, is charged with the larceny of a suit of clothes from August Wilhelm. Held for court.

WESLEY MILLER, of Somerset county, will have a hearing to-morrow before United States Commissioner McCandless on a charge of illicit distilling.

EDWARD McCALL, brakeman on the Port Wayne road, is charged with felonious assault upon a child in Florence Matrice, of Lackock street, Allegheny.

Singing for a Hospital.

A belated seat for the grand production of "Belshazzar," at the Alvin next week, will open at the box office this morning. This is Butterfield's great cantata and is to be produced by local talent, with the exception of Miss Elise Warren, Chicago's popular oratorio singer. Among the soloists will be Mrs. J. Sharp McDonald, John Stross, Miss Edith Harris, Alexander Ross, W. S. Welden and others of equal ability as well known. The chorus numbers 225 voices and the costumes are furnished from New York. As the cantata is to be given for the benefit of the Allegheny General Hospital there will be no ticket houses nightly. The Alvin orchestra will accompany the singers and the event promises to be one of more than ordinary local interest.

Pittsburghers in New York.

NEW YORK, April 27.—[Special.]—The following Pittsburghers are registered at New York hotels: B. Flew, Fifth Avenue; J. P. O'Neill, Fifth Avenue; A. B. Bower, West 12th street; W. G. Childs, St. James; R. Davis, Astor; J. H. Dimick, Astor; G. A. Macbeth, Astor; J. Martin, Astor; O. J. Morrow, Indian; J. S. St. Branswick, J. J. Haley, Holland; Miss E. A. Darlington, West 12th street; D. F. Harrison, Sweeney's; J. Snyder, International; F. X. Wood, Coleman.

House Decoration in Wall Paper and Fork choice selection of wall paper, picture mouldings and relief decorations, house sign and fresco painting, Stoughton Street, 10th Avenue, near 10th street. For estimates call them by telephone 816.

Gold Watch Free to Some Lady.

Who can guess nearest to the gold watch will be wound up in Saller & Co.'s window between 2 and 3 p. m., corner Smithfield and Diamond streets, to-morrow, Friday.

Lady Guesses To-morrow, Friday.

Between 2 and 3 p. m., the lady's gold watch will be wound up in Saller & Co.'s window. Nearest guesser when it stops gets it.

JIMMY ANDSON are neat and pretty, at Manna & Son's, 529 Penn avenue. Then Morning Glories.

Come and see this new pattern of wall paper, 719 and 721 Liberty street, head of Wood. MTH

Don QUIXOTE fought wind mills. Dugthe fights roaches, bedbugs, etc., and kills them every time. 50 cents.

METHEUN ANDSON—Sage green, warranted not to run, at Manna & Son's, 529 Penn avenue. Then

Wild Geese.

A new and elegant pattern in wall paper at John S. Robinson's, 721 Liberty street, head of Wood. MTH

Mrs. WENZEL'S soothing Syrup is the best of all remedies for children teething. 25c.

WIDENBERG ANDSON, at Manna & Son's, 529 Penn avenue. Tel. 1972.

THE RAILWAY INTERESTS.

The Burlington has been selected by the parties and Corporation Societies of Eastern cities as the official route over which delegates will travel between Chicago and Denver to attend the National Convention in June.

Report of the New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad Company for March: Gross earnings, $5,474,477; increase, $1,151,160; working expenses, $2,922,552; increase, $120,712. Deduct operating cost to leased lines worked on a percentage, $2,010,650; increase, $65,868.

A railroad train left the Philadelphia and Reading station in Philadelphia Tuesday en route to Chicago, via the Washburn Railroad, composed of 20 new engines made by the Baldwin Locomotive Works and drawn by a double compound engine belonging to the works. The train was for the Southside Elevated Railroad, Chicago.

The new railroad of Coxes Bros. Co. is connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad as well as with all the roads in the combine.

For a long time they have been shipping coal from the West, and are expected to Chicago and Milwaukee, where the firm owns large open pits. This coal has been and is being shipped over the Pennsylvania lines.

This annual report of the Union Pacific Railway Company shows for the year 1891 gross earnings $10,857,735, as against $9,240,345 in 1890. The surplus earnings were $7,846,431 against $7,274,770 the previous year. Proceeds from other sources make the total income $10,443,323. Deducting the working expenses, a balance of $1,910,280 is shown, which is an increase of $25,000 over last year.

It transpires that the world's Fair management had quite as much to do in bringing about the present movement in Chicago against the ticket scalpers as did the railroads. The officials of the Exposition were very understanding that the existence of scalpers in Chicago was so demoralizing that the roads would not dare to make as low rates for the Fair as they otherwise might.

THE FIRE RECORD.

Linwood O.—The Linwood Hames Company's factory. Loss, $23,000; insurance, $10,000. Bay City, Mich.—Merrill, Fifield & Co.'s elevator. Loss, $75,000. Adjacent lumber yards, etc., were in imminent peril for a time.

Bloomington, Ill.—The mule stables in the mouth of the McLean mine. A mine horror with the loss of hundreds of lives was narrowly averted.

Pleasant Unity, Westmoreland county.—The room owned by James Footman and occupied by Levinson Brothers. Levinson Brothers' loss, $1,000; insurance small. Footman's loss $1,000, partly insured.

Near Millersburg, O.—The home of John H. Heyd, of Knox township, including all his outbuildings, with contents. Loss, $5,500; insurance for $500 in the Washington Fire Insurance Company. Cause, defective flue.

Thirty-third street.—An oil shed in the Pennsylvania Railroad yards about Thirty-third street was burned last evening. A large quantity of kerosene was in the shed, and the entire shed and 65 barrels of oil were burned. The loss is estimated at $500.

Chicago.—The Atheneum building damaged by fire on the seventh floor. The fire was confined, were the paintings of the local society artists, valued at $25,000, and the contents of the building, valued at $10,000, and the building itself, valued at $10,000, and other damages being the total up to the sum stated. The building was insured, but the paintings were not.

Washington, April 27.—[Special.]—Appropriate ceremonies in the laying of the cornerstone of the McMahon Hall of Philosophy took place this afternoon on the grounds of the Catholic University. Cardinal Gibbons and Hon. Charles J. Bonaparte delivered appropriate addresses.

The Cardinal said that the faculty of Philosophy, to accommodate the needs of the students, had for its object the profound study of all that concerns man and his multifarious relations with all below him, and above him, and about him, as seen in the light of the laws of the universe. The United States were proud to establish an institution like this in our national capital, under the eyes of our whole country and in most cordial relations with all the nations of the world of learning and social improvement.

The Cardinal then blessed the stone and the ceremonies ended. The building is 250 feet long, 100 feet in the center, the wings being 75 feet deep. It will be surmounted by a statue of Christ, "The Light of the World." It will not be opened until the fall of 1894.

Have you noticed the Lo Let Rooms contain word advertising columns of the Daily and Sunday Dispatch?

SHORT STORIES OF CITY LIFE.

The Twelfth Ward School Board, Allegheny, met last night and re-elected the old group of teachers. The members of the board yesterday offered their services to Chief Higdon to give a free concert in a few weeks at Highland Park.

A woman, evidently demoralized, was attracting the attention of pedestrians on Liberty street yesterday and Officer Lee took her to Central station. She is well dressed and says she lives on Fifth street and that her name is Kate Mills.

COLLIDED WITH THE STATUTES.

RICHARD CONNELL has been held for court for the non-support of his wife. FREDERICK WALTZ, of Larimer avenue, is charged with the larceny of a suit of clothes from August Wilhelm. Held for court.

WESLEY MILLER, of Somerset county, will have a hearing to-morrow before United States Commissioner McCandless on a charge of illicit distilling.

EDWARD McCALL, brakeman on the Port Wayne road, is charged with felonious assault upon a child in Florence Matrice, of Lackock street, Allegheny.

Singing for a Hospital.

A belated seat for the grand production of "Belshazzar," at the Alvin next week, will open at the box office this morning. This is Butterfield's great cantata and is to be produced by local talent, with the exception of Miss Elise Warren, Chicago's popular oratorio singer. Among the soloists will be Mrs. J. Sharp McDonald, John Stross, Miss Edith Harris, Alexander Ross, W. S. Welden and others of equal ability as well known. The chorus numbers 225 voices and the costumes are furnished from New York. As the cantata is to be given for the benefit of the Allegheny General Hospital there will be no ticket houses nightly. The Alvin orchestra will accompany the singers and the event promises to be one of more than ordinary local interest.

Pittsburghers in New York.

NEW YORK, April 27.—[Special.]—The following Pittsburghers are registered at New York hotels: B. Flew, Fifth Avenue; J. P. O'Neill, Fifth Avenue; A. B. Bower, West 12th street; W. G. Childs, St. James; R. Davis, Astor; J. H. Dimick, Astor; G. A. Macbeth, Astor; J. Martin, Astor; O. J. Morrow, Indian; J. S. St. Branswick, J. J. Haley, Holland; Miss E. A. Darlington, West 12th street; D. F. Harrison, Sweeney's; J. Snyder, International; F. X. Wood, Coleman.

House Decoration in Wall Paper and Fork choice selection of wall paper, picture mouldings and relief decorations, house sign and fresco painting, Stoughton Street, 10th Avenue, near 10th street. For estimates call them by telephone 816.

Gold Watch Free to Some Lady.

Who can guess nearest to the gold watch will be wound up in Saller & Co.'s window between 2 and 3 p. m., corner Smithfield and Diamond streets, to-morrow, Friday.

Lady Guesses To-morrow, Friday.

Between 2 and 3 p. m., the lady's gold watch will be wound up in Saller & Co.'s window. Nearest guesser when it stops gets it.

JIMMY ANDSON are neat and pretty, at Manna & Son's, 529 Penn avenue. Then Morning Glories.

Come and see this new pattern of wall paper, 719 and 721 Liberty street, head of Wood. MTH

Don QUIXOTE fought wind mills. Dugthe fights roaches, bedbugs, etc., and kills them every time. 50 cents.

METHEUN ANDSON—Sage green, warranted not to run, at Manna & Son's, 529 Penn avenue. Then

Wild Geese.

A new and elegant pattern in wall paper at John S. Robinson's, 721 Liberty street, head of Wood. MTH

Mrs. WENZEL'S soothing Syrup is the best of all remedies for children teething. 25c.

WIDENBERG ANDSON, at Manna & Son's, 529 Penn avenue. Tel. 1972.

THE RAILWAY INTERESTS.

The Burlington has been selected by the parties and Corporation Societies of Eastern cities as the official route over which delegates will travel between Chicago and Denver to attend the National Convention in June.

Report of the New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad Company for March: Gross earnings, $5,474,477; increase, $1,151,160; working expenses, $2,922,552; increase, $120,712. Deduct operating cost to leased lines worked on a percentage, $2,010,650; increase, $65,868.

A railroad train left the Philadelphia and Reading station in Philadelphia Tuesday en route to Chicago, via the Washburn Railroad, composed of 20 new engines made by the Baldwin Locomotive Works and drawn by a double compound engine belonging to the works. The train was for the Southside Elevated Railroad, Chicago.

The new railroad of Coxes Bros. Co. is

WHITE HOUSE BIDS.

Continued From First Page.

or another, it can never be defeated, so long as the world means to keep on moving. Republicanism means to-day and to-morrow; Democracy means day after yesterday.

Senator John Sherman, in his letter, gives President Harrison quite a puff, and intimates that he favors his renomination. Among other things he says, "My pleasant recollection of a former visit, when I shared your hospital, has been a great pleasure, and would greatly tempt me to be present. Since then we have enjoyed the benefits of a wise, able and successful administration of national affairs under his Presidency. He has been faithful to the doctrines of the Republican party, and has contributed as much as anyone could to the protection of American industry and the maintenance of a sound and stable currency of many kinds, but all of equal value."

Banqueting in a Vest Conservatory. The decorations of the great dining room were more elaborate this year than ever before. The tables were given ornate blanches, and the used the privilege to the greatest advantage of the American Club. The 30 tables were each laden with the choicest blossoms, arranged with the taste characteristic of the most eminent florists. The flowers consisted of roses, daffodils, violets, primroses, pansies and all varieties of spring blossoms. The center-pieces were all different. On some tables they were arranged in a pyramid form, brightened up by tall vases containing American beauty roses on either side. On others mixed spring flowers were the center-pieces, with end pieces of roses.

Each window was banked with maidenhair ferns and small palms, while in the ordinary, where the musicians sat, were tall palms and ferns artistically arranged to screen the orchestra. General Grant's picture, at the back of the chair of the toastmaster, was entwined as to its frame in red, white and blue Yeddo cloth, with passion vine clinging in tendrils around it. The buffet was a mass of palms and ferns. The walls were draped with gracefully draped with lambrèques of red, white and blue, while here and there along the frieze, between the windows, were umbrellas, the emblem of the Republican party. A small silk red, white and blue umbrella on each table, in the middle of the center-piece of flowers. It looked like a fantastically trimmed wax taper, until a slight breeze stirred it, and it fell small and touched a spring, when each of the 30 umbrellas spread over the tables, amid the applause of the banqueters. The staircases and halls were filled with palms and ferns. The writing desks were at a table about the center of the hall. President W. S. Brown officiated, and the speakers were grouped on his right and left. The Committee of Arrangements, also occupied seats at the table of honor.

President Brown in a few words welcomed the visitors and the members of the club, and then he introduced Toastmaster Orady, who greeted a large number of guests, and then he introduced the speaker, who spoke down to business. Among the guests was Col. W. H. Reid, who broke his leg a few months ago. It was the first time he was out since the accident, and he was warmly greeted by his fellow countrymen.

Here is the menu, and it is a part of the programme that speaks for itself: Blue points, on half shells. Olives. Salted almonds. Pickles. Brook trout, broiled. Cold chicken, broiled. Roast breast of turkey. Asparagus. Sweetbread. French peas. Diamond back terrapin, Maryland style. Lobster salad. Neapolitan ice cream, assorted cakes. Select fruits. Toasted Cracker. Coffee.

The menu cards were the finest the club has had up to date. Each one cost about $1.50. It was beautifully illustrated. On the front page was a picture of Grant on horseback, then came the menu, and at the bottom a photograph of the house at which Lee surrendered. On the upper right hand corner of the last page was a picture of Grant's home, and at the bottom a picture of the house at which Lee surrendered. "Let us have peace." Each plate was provided with a small red, white and blue umbrella. The menu and parachute are much prized as mementoes.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Judge Thurston, of Nebraska, Predicts Success Next Fall.—He is inclined to juggle with the Silver Question.—The Tariff the Leading Issue. To John M. Thurston, of Omaha, the general counsel for the Union Pacific road, had been assigned the subject, "The Republican party." He said: Every constitutional amendment which extends the blessing of human liberty, and protects the fullest enjoyment of American citizenship, has been written by the Republican statesmanship and ratified by the voice of Republican intelligence. Every existing statute of the United States is the result of the wisdom of the Republican cause and Republican action.

I am here to-night to recall more especially the great services of the Republican party to the cause of human labor. I assert that Republican statesmanship has done more, within a single generation, to make labor profitable and honorable than had theretofore been done by any or all governmental action in any four centuries of civilized existence. The Democratic party still insists that it is the right of the American people to buy what they want when they can buy it the cheapest. I deny that. It is the right of the American people to have American citizenship without paying a fair price for the brain and brawn that enters into its manufacture.

I come from the wild and woolly West—this West you see we are talking of to the Republican party. I bring with me to-night a campaign cap of 1892, manufactured by the Black Nationalist party, and I am here to say to you of the Eastern and Middle States that this great loyal West is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let it circulate as a national currency. It does not propose that a flag shall be displayed at the door of the National Bank, and that the Republican party shall be the only party to have a right to the country have written—"30¢ for cash." But the Republican party stands for honest money, and it is in favor of such legislation as will permit the American miner to take his own silver, dug from an American mine, representing American intelligence, perseverance, hardihood and labor, to the mint of the United States, and have the Goddess of Liberty stamped upon one side and the American eagle upon the other, and let