ENGLAND'S MAY DAY

To Be Celebrated Probably With Less Danger Than on the Continent.

SENTINEL ATTACKED.

Ulster Will Go to the Length of Civil War to Fight Home Kule.

THREAT OF AN IRISH UNIONIST.

Two British Feers Very Boldly Affirm the Right of Rebellion.

NEWS FROM THE EUROPEAN CAPITALS

LONDON, April 29.-May Day in England promises to be peacefully observed. The celebration of the day will be limited to a demonstration in Hyde Park, under the auspices of the London Trades' Council. This demonstration will probably be confined to speeches. It is already arranged that 16 platforms shall be erected, from which relays of speakers will address the

The action of the authorities in arresting the editor and publisher of the Anarchist paper, the Commonweal, is likely to exercise a wholesome restraint on those who are inclined to be turbulent. The authorities predict that everything will be quiet. Resolutions will be adopted at each of the Hyde Park meetings, declaring that the establishment of an international eight-hour day will be the most important step toward the ultimate freedom of the workingmen, and urging Parliament to pass the eight-

Sham Anarchists Flock to England, Nearly 100 foreign Anarchists- are said to have arrived in London during the past week, but the revolutionists declare that the greater portion of them are sham Anarchists, sent by the continental police to watch and report the doings of the refugees

A mysterious incident, which many persons connect with the Anarchists and their preparations for May Day, occurred at Fleetwood Tuesday night. A sentry on guard at the magazine was attacked by two men, who knocked him down and en-deavored to take his rifle from him. During the struggle the sentry managed to touch the electric bell communicating with the guardroom. The men evidently heard the soldiers run from the guardhouse

The Unionists continue to make every preparation for their mammoth anti-home riousness of the movement can be judged from a speech made by the Marquis of Londonderry at Dublin last night, when he said it is the duty of the Irish Unionists to bring before the English voter the fact that within 20 miles of his shores he might have a hostile Parliament and a hostile

A Menace in Time of War.

It would be impossible, he declared, t exaggerate the danger this would be to England in case of a foreign war. The Unionist convention, to be held in June, must prove to the English that the Ulster-duced tremendous cheering and cries of "Ulster will fight." Ulster men could not e handed over to the dictates of an Irish jority of whom they knew to be men whose ctions and words proved them a disgrace to any civilized country.

Earlier in the week the Duke of Devonshire spoke at Derby. This was the first time he had addressed a political meeting since his elevation to the House of Lords. his speech he drew a parallel between the condition of affairs at the time of the great revolution and the state of affairs that would be created by passing any home rule measure that would be approximately satisfactory to the Nationalists.

The Right of Rebellion Afficmed. He declared that in the event of the adoption of such a home rule measure the Protestant minority of Ulster would be subect to the tyranny, not of a King, but of a majority dominated by the same alien creed in 118 least form. He maintained that the right of resistance which belonged to their prefathers also belonged to their cotemperaries, although they must avail themselves of the right at their own risk, and stand ready to be praised or condemned according to as they succeeded or the reverse.

The indorsement of the Ulster movement by two such men as the Marquis of London-derry and the Duke of Devonshire has caused a sensation, and has shown how deeply serious the movement is.

The Liberals in Parliament have been congratulating themselves for a few days past upon a report that the Speaker would not allow Mr. Blane to make his proposed motion, that the time has now arrived to grant home rule to Ireland, and that Mr. Gladstone's ingenuity would not be taxed in making a reply to the motion, which, it is considered, is nothing more or less than an attempt to force from Mr. Gladstone a declaration of what his home rule bill will

The Liberals Badly Nonplused, The Liberals contended that Mr. Blane's could not be heard on Friday week, as it had been forestalled by Mr. Clarke, who gave notice of his intention to raise the question of legislation regarding local affairs in Great Britain and Ireland to-day, and, according to the Liberal interpretation of the rules, a question having been debated and disposed of one week cannot be again discussed at a subsequent date; but this afternoon, when Mr. Mc-Carthy asked whether the discussion of Mr. Clarke's motion would not prejudice Mr. Biane's motion, the Speaker gave a cold chill to the Liberals and McCarthyltes by announcing that the discussion would in no way prejudice or interfere with Mr. Blane's den in Paris, will be published in THE DISPATCH to-morrow. The newspaper, Modern Society, commenting on the anti-Socialists' praise of American women, takes occasion to make a most vile and despicable attack upon Americans. The writer, who presumably knows as muc sail on the City of Paris Wednesday mornabout the subject of American women as he does of any other, says that the horrible iming for Scotland, where they will spend the purity of the most fashionable girls in the largest cities of the Union is well known. summer. Mrs. Lockhart has been in delicate health for ten years, but within a year she has improved in health sufficiently to enable her to go abroad. A large party of friends accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart to the station last night to see them off and "The Deacon marriage, minus the pistol ahot," he adds, "is the typical American menage. The truth is London society is impure]here Americans will be apt to admit that the writer speaks from kn wish them bon voyage. ough, may be, after all is said and done, is less so than society in New York."

EULENBERG'S PAY IS SAFE.

The Prussian Opposition Decides Not Embarrass the New Premier.

BERLIN, April 29.—The Landtag reassembled yesterday. In the Lower House the question of the salary to be voted to Count von Eulenberg, the new President of the Prussian Ministerial Council, came up for debate. Count von Eulenberg said the separation of the Imperial Chancellorship and the Presidency of the Prussian Minis ment. The Chanceller, as Prussian Foreign Minister, would still represent Prus-PATCH to-morrow.

sia in the Bundesrath, while the separation of the posts would greatly relieve the pressure of work in both.

Dr. von Bosse, Minister of Ecclesiastical Affairs, said a school bill could not be expected at present, and it was first necessary to effect a complete reform in the taxation system. Conservative and Centrist speak-ers condemned the Government's withdrawal of the primary education bill, but all declared that they would support the vote for Count von Eulenberg's salary in order to avoid embarrassing the Govern-to Be Working as Vigorously a Ever in Continental Society-Socialistic Literature Among the Armies-Club Houses Raided and Proclamations Seized.

THE LEAVEN OF ANARCHY

Paris, April 29.-Two soldiers were arrested at Marseilles to-day on suspicion of being in communication with Anarchists. The police of Laon Department of Isne removed a number of Anarchist placards that had been affixed to the walls of the prefecture of police, the mayor's office, the law courts and many private houses. The placards declared that these buildings, would be blown up. Five Italian Anarchists were arrested at Nice to-day and expelled from France. Three Anarchists were arrested at

Choisy-Le-Roi.

All of the recent incendiary fires in the town of Langean were caused by infernal machines containing inflammable materials in addition to explosives. Several of the burned houses were first drenched with petroleum. Three persons suspected of being incendiaries have been arrested. The Anarchists of this city have suc-The letters were not nice reading. In some of the letters Robinson was reproached in terms of jealousy. That he had been attentive to other married women was one cause of complaint. ceeded in distributing violent manifestoes among the soldiers in various barracks, among the soldiers in various barracks, where, however, their tenets find no acwhere, however, their tenets and no acceptance. The public galleries of the Bourse were closed to-day in consequence of the receipt of letters threatening to blow up the Bourse. A bomb with a half-burned fuse son, testified to carrying a letter from him to Mrs. Hetherington, and also giving her two $10 bills—one for her and one for her attached was found in the Rue Fleurus to-day. Two loaded bombs were found near the Church of St. Denis. The sub prefecture Amah, or nurse, to keep the woman silent.

Robinson showed one witness the letters after he had burned those which Reed read, at Espalion was burned to-day. The fire is attributed to Anarchists.

A dispatch from Berlin says: There was a strong suspicion among the officers of the troops stationed at Halle that the men were being approached by Socialists with a view to weakening their allegiance to the Gov-ernment. Investigation verified the sus-picions, for in the mea's quarters were discovered Socialistic manuscripts, calling upon them to join the Socialists in effecting a regeneration of the body politic.

A dispatch from Madrid says: The police were apprised of the existence of a manifesto, calling upon workingmen to arise and wipe out capital on May Day. Every workingmen's club in the city was surrounded by the police, and a raid was made on the occupants. The result was the capcessful.

Blanchard, being recalled, testified that Robinson told him that after returning from Tokio he asked Mrs. Hetherington to drive with him to a hotel, but instead he took her to his house, and that when she saw he was taking her past the hotel she tried to jump out, but he whipped up his horse and prevented her. That was after midnight. ture of a large number of Anarchists Among the prisoners was Vincente Lorenzo, an intimate friend of Ravachol, the Paris Anarchist, and the leader of the Barcelona Anarchists. The clubs were closed.

the name of Swanston, was engaged to be married, and who was upon the point of joining him in the Southern Cross gold fields when he was arrested. She narrated the story of how she met Deeming on a steamer bound for Sydney, and how finally she accepted the proposal of marriage he made to her. Throughout her evidence

West Australia, to Melbourne, was sub-jected to a severe cross-examination, coun-sel for the prisoner trying to elicit from him whether Deeming had displayed any signs of insanity on the voyage. The witness stated, however, that in his opinion Deeming was perfectly sane. The evidence of a Mr. Vivian, salesman for Messrs. Kıl-patrick, jewelers, Melbourne, showed the prisoner to be a sneak thief as well as a nurderer. Vivian testified that the prisoner made various purchases at the shop, and about the time Deeming, who then called himself "Dawson," was there, two rings were missed. These were the rings which the prisoner afterward presented to Miss

SOLDIERY INSOLENCE CHASTISED.

Frontier Villagers Exterminating Troop

Who Prey on Property and Women.

LONDON, April 29 .- A dispatch from Peshawar, India, near the Afghan frontier, says the troops of the Ameer of Afghanistan, between Herat and Bamia, have been treating the inhabitants in such an outrageous manner, holding neither their prop-of the villages joined forces and attacked the soldiers. The troops sustained a severe defeat, and at last reports were holding out against extinction behind barricades.

The situation is threatening, and reinforcements are being hurriedly dispatched from Herat, Candahar and Cabul.

RUSSIAN ASSASSINS IN BULGARIA.

They Came All the Way From St. Peters

VIENNA, April 29 .- Another plot against the lives of Prince Ferdinaud and Premier Stambuloff has been discovered at Galatz.

A man and his wife who had in their possession 18 dynamite bombs were arrested there yesterday but afterward escaped.

This discovery appears to confirm a startling St. Petersburg rumor that two men left there a month ago on a mission to murder Premier Stambuloff.

No Sign of Disarmament in This,

BERLIN, April 29.-The Correspondent, the organ of the National Liberals, says the Government is preparing a military bill on a large scale for submission to the Reich-

THE ANARCHIST song, which is forbid-

Going to Scotland for the Summer,

Charles Lockhart and wife left last night for New York on the limited. They will

SHIELEY DARE on water filters in THE Father Ward to Lecture at St. Pani's

The Rev. Francis P. Ward, formerly of St. Paul's Cathedral, Pittsburg, and later of Mount St. Mary's, Emmettsburg, Md., will deliver a lecture to-morrow evening at the Cathedrai. It will be under the auspices of the St. Vincent de Paul's Society. No ad-mission will be charged, but a collection will be taken up for the benefit of the stag at its next session.

burg to Bombard the Premier,

A Messenger Who Became Known. DEEMING ALSO A SNEAK THIEF. Mrs. Hetherington's Amab, or nurse, tes-tified that she knew Robinson's boy very well, as he had brought many notes to her mistress. She said: He Stole the Jewels Which He Pres One of His Lady Loves. MELBOURNE, April 29 .- The trial of Robinson's boy came so often the hotel boys asked me whether he wasn't my hus-band. The boy told me his master was bad and changed his sweetheart every two Deeming was continued in the Criminal Court here to-day. The prisoner was silent and downcast. The most interesting witness was Miss Kate Rounsevell, the young lady to whom Deeming, who had then assumed

erington-Robinson Case

FULLY EXONERATES THE HUSBAND

He Was Greatly Wronged, and Meant Only to Horsewhip the Lover.

THE WIFE'S PASSION FOR ROBINSON

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)

Belgio arrived this afternoon with Yoko-nama papers containing full reports of the trial and acquittal of Lieutenant Hether-ington, of the United States steamship Marion, for shooting Gower Robinson.

The evidence, even that of Gower Robin-n's own servants, shows that he was a professional libertine, who boasted of his conquests, and letters that were made public on he trial show him in a despicable light, as he had repeatedly, to the woman he had compromised, assured her he had burned her letters, when he afterward showed them to his friends, and broke his solemn promise to Captain Bartlett not to speak to Mrs.

Hetherington at any entertainment, and also his promise to Hetherington not to return to Yokohama while he and his wife

A. C. Reed, a British subject and close personal friend of Robinson testified to Robinson's showing him letters that Mrs. Hetherington sent him. He said:

Money Sent to the False Wife, showing that he must have had a large num-ber. Witness often saw Robinson in tears over his trouble with the Hetheringtons, and heard him say he pitled the Lieutenant, but pever heard him say he was sorry for Hetherington's counsel tried to bring out testimony from the wife of Paymaster Ray that Robinson had distributed broadqust pictures of himself, so that Mrs. Hetherington could not go anywhere without seeing them. In this they were measurably suc-cessful.

B. H. Pearson, another friend of Robin were there.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—The steamer

Lieutenant Hetherington was then called His testimony fills eight long columns. He described his fears for the safety of his children while his wife was on the ocean voyage. The first intimation he had of her arrival was a notice of her name in the Yokohama papers. He continued:

I came ashore at once and went to her room, but she was not there. I saw signs in the room that she child was there, as there was a cradle. I waited about 30 minutes before I saw her. When she came in with the Unionist convention, to must prove to the English that the Ulstermites are determined to resist by every made to her. Throughout her evidence made to her and throughout her evidence made to her her her evidence made to her her her evidence made to her her her evidence Hetherington then gave instances of special attentions paid to his wife by Robnson which first excited his attention. He liked Robinson, and never suspected him until one day when making a call at Rob-inson's house his wife went back for her veil and Robinson followed. Something in veil and Robinson followed. Something in his actions aroused Hetherington's sus-picions, and when his wife treated her hus-band coolly he spoke to her of the incident and she said she knew he did not like it.

Detectives Placed on the Trail. At St. Andrew's ball Robinson paid Mrs. Hetherington much attention. The next day witness came ashore, determined to settle matters with Robinson.

Hetherington said on December 7 he put two detectives on the track of his wife and Robinson. The witness continued: I wrote a letter to Robinson in which I told him I knew he had not kept his word, and if ever he tried to interfere with my wife I'd take it out of his miserable hide. One morning while on shore, before I was entirely dressed, I looked into my wife's value, where I found notes and other things she had received from Robinson, when I came across a letter which was not formal. The following letter was then read by Mr.

Tison and put in evidence:

My Own, My Pry—I got your letter when I got up this morning, tears running down my cheeks, and I was laughing loud. I believe I was mad for a few minutes. "Don't ask me to meet you again." "I mean to be a better wife, and good night and goodby," seemed to be all mixed up in my bruin. Good, God, darling! You don't mean you are going to throw me over after all that has passed! Have you no heart! No, I cannot believe it. Those great, big, bine, loving eyes looked too true into mine and did not lie when they looked what your lips said: "I love you," and yet you say all is over. My love, see me once more, let me kiss those lips and eyes once more, and then—well, forget if you possibly can.

Plans Laid for an Elopement Hetherington then gave another letter which Robinson wrote, evidently with the intention that it should be seen by the husband. At the same time he sent her money and a letter containing a plan for an elopement to Denver, she to take her baby.

After a talk with Bartlett, Hetherington decided to horsewhip Robinson. Hetherington testified: My wife was at the window one day, when she called out, saying: "Come here; here's our friend." Just as he got by, I called out: "You're a blackguard," and shook at him a horsewhip and went out of the hotel, but was dissuaded from my purpose.

Hetherington's counsel read a letter from Mrs. Hetherington to Robinson. Following are some extracts:

ing are some extracts:

In all this trouble I have never lost faith in you until now. In the first place, you told me you had burned all my letters. Now you say you have them. What do you mean by that? I would like to know. The letter the Judge has of yours he will never give up to his dying day. The Judge said he believed I was nothing more than your mistress, and would not live with me. He apologized for that, but only yesterday said that if he ever found out I had deceived him, he would shoot me without one moment's warning. I am not fit to touch him, but I am going to do better. You must not expect me to have anything to do with you at all. Can't you understand how I feel? How dare you tell me that you supposed I had mounted a high stool of respectability? I never fell off that stool until I fell into your arms, and I shall never, attempt to mount it again in my own mind. Gower, for God's sake take back what you said. Don't say you late me.

Hetherington Wanted to Horsewhip, Hetherington's testimony continues: I got on well with my wife, although my married life was not entirely restored. It was undermined, I considered, by Robinson. was undermined, I considered, by Robinson. I tried to make my wife love me, but had most affection for the child. I knew I would soon have to leave Yokohoma. I knew Robinson desired to have my wife and baby. I heard about his will in favor of my wife, and was anxious lest his riches, whatever they may have been, might be made use of against me.

Hetherington also gave his version of the shooting, saying he fired only to bring Robinson to, so he could horsewhip him.

From good authority is learned the reason why Hetherington made up with his wife and agreed to live with her. Mr.

Tison, the Professor of Law at Tokio College, agreed to defend Hetherington only on his promise that the Lieutenant should become reconciled to his wife before the trial began. Hetherington agreed to this with great reluctance. DIED AS HE DESERVED The Detailed Testimony in the Heth-

A STARTLING RUMOR.

Advices From Washington State That the

Sub-Treasury Has Been Robbed. NEW YORK, April 29.-Washington advices report the robbery of the sub-Treasury in this city to-night of a large amount of money. There is no possible way of verifying the rumor to-night. At police headquarters absolutely nothing is known of such a robbery, and the report is lightly treated.

HARRISON AS A REFORMER.

The Civil Service League, After Damning Him With Faint Praise for Appointing a Very Good Commission, Condemns Him for Breaking His Party's Solemn was re-elected President. A letter from William Dudley Foulke, of Indiana, to President Harrison, dated December 26, and the answer of the President thereto, were read. Mr. Foulke, in his letter, says: were read. Mr. Foulke, in his letter, says:

The civil service reform act designated postoffices and custom houses having less than 50 employes, as offices to which the system is applicable, by providing for its extension to these places whenever so ordered by you. The declaration of the platform could have no meaning if it did not refer to such offices. The able Civil Service Commissioners appointed by you have repeatedly urged that this system be extended to postoffices having 25 employes or more, yet during nearly three years of your term you have not made it.

President Harrison writes, in reply, under date of December 31, 1891: under date of December 31, 1891:

I have not time this morning to discuss at any length the question which you present, or to attempt any restatement of what I have attempted to do in the promotion of civil service reform movements since I have been here. My thought was that the first thing to do was to satisfy the country that the law is being faithfully and impartially administered as to those offices already classified. I think a good deal has been accomplished in that direction, and there has been an important extension of the classified service. The subject presented by you, as well as some other suggested movements, has been having and will have my consideration, but I am not prepared to announce any has been having and will have my control ton, but I am not prepared to announce any programme. Very truly yours, Benj. Harrison.

The report of the Committee on Resolutions, submitted by Carl Schurz, commends the President for appointing an admirable commission, and admits that much good has been accomplished, but adds that "the solemn promises of the Republican platform of 1888 have been broken, voluntary pledges of the President have been unfulfilled, and the claim of the Republican party, however strong may be the sympathy of individual Republicans, to be distinctly the party of civil service reform, is not sustained by the course of the administration."

PITTSBURG MAY HAVE A BISHOP.

Colored People Preparing to Receive the Members of the Grand Conference, The colored members of the A. M. E. Zion Churches of the two cities are preparing for the reception of the Grand Conference of that church which meets in John Wesley chapel, Arthur street and Wylie avenue, on Wednesday and will continue n session for three weeks. This the highest executive body in the church and convenes only once in four years. Over 250 delegates will be present, and they will include the leading colored men of the country and the six bishops of the church, together with Rev. Dr. Cartright, the great African missionary. new bishop is to be chosen, and the man most prominently mentioned for it is Rev. John Holliday, Presiding Elder of the loca

The six Bishops to be here will be: J. J.
Moore, D. D., of North Carolina; Joseph P.
Thompson, D. D., of Newburg, N. Y.; Rev,
Dr. Harris, of North Carolina; J.W. Hood, D. D., of North Carolina; Rev. Dr. Petty. D. D., of North Carolina; Rev. Dr. Petty, of Alabama, and Rev. Dr. Lomax, of North Carolina. Among the other prominent visitors will be J. C. Clinton, of South Carolina; General Secretary W. Howard Day, of Harrisburg; J. C. Daucy, editor of the Ntar, Wilmington, N. C.; J. C. Price, D. D., A. J. Walters, of the New York Book Concern, and many others. Bishop Moore arrived last night and will preach in the Smithfield Street M. E. Church tomorrow night. morrow night.

NEILLIE FOR DEPUTY MAYOR.

There May Be Trouble if Police Magistrates Are Not Appointed. elect Kennedy, of Allegheny, atends the morning hearings daily to pick up pointers. Mr. Kennedy intends to hold the hearings himself for the first few days. Alderman David Neillie, of the Fourth ward. Is to be offered the work of conduct-ward, is to be offered the work of conducting the hearings, but it is not known whether he will accept.

There is much dissatisfaction on the Northside because no provisions are being made for police magistrates. Mr. Kennedy is consulting an attorney with a view to finding out whether the city's charter may not be forfeited if they are not appointed.

On Five Charges of False Pretense. I. Levinstein is in jail on five charges of false pretense. He kept a store on Wylie avenue, but was burned out a week ago and has been missing since. The suits are brought by fellow Hebrew merchants on the same street. They think his conduct is Death Caused by a Bad Rope. Coroner McDowell was yesterday notified that James Sevetecs had been killed in the mines near Boston, Pa., by the breaking of a rope in the cage, thus being hurled to the foot of the slope. The Coroner deputized 'Squire Douglass, of Boston, to hold the in-

She Fell Asleep and Was Robbed. Miss Bessie Scholes was robbed of her satchel and $54 on the Pennsylvania road last night. She was going from Lancaster to Wyoming, and occupied a seat in the day coach. She fell asleep, when somebody quietly relieved her of the grip.

The Hearing Did Not Pan. Agent McClure had a batch of Law and Order hearings scheduled for Wednesday afternoon. Alderman Rohe waited on him all afternoon but he did not appear or send any excuse for his absence.

Car Couplings to Be Manufactured. The Acme Car Coupling Company, of Pittsburg, with a capital of $25,000, was yesterday granted a charter. The directors are G. P. Krauth, Henry McCoy and Ed-

California Quakes Again. SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.-An earthquake shock occurred here at 4:07 P. M. today. The vibrations were north and south

Have You Noticed Them? If not make a note of this: The "T Rooms" and "Wanted Boarders" or word advertising columns of the Dail Sunday DISPATCH contain the me

We Bought All. 100 pieces plaid lawn, the fines at 15c, our price only 10c. See th but call soon, at Rosenbaum & Co.

That's the Way Speaker Reed Sizes Up the Actions of Congressmen.

A DOZEN MEMBERS UNDER ARREST

For Absenteeism, but All Get Off by Making

Timely Excuses. ANOTHER WHOLE DAY GONE TO WASTE

WASHINGTON, April 29.-In the House this morning the Speaker called attention to the fact that at the time of adjournment yesterday the Sergeant at Arms had been given warrants for the arrest of absentee members. He would now ask the officer to hake his report. After some debate as to the power of the House to order arrests after it had adjourned, Colonel Ike Hill proceeded to the space in front of the Speaker's desk and submitted his report. Colonel Hill stated that 19 warrants had been put in his hands. Two members he had failed to find; one had been suddenly BALTIMORE, April 29.—At the annual neeting to-day of the National Civil Servcalled away on account of sickness in his ice Reform League, George William Curtis family; four were out of town. He had notified the other 12, and they had promised to be here this morning.

The Speaker stated that the Sergeant at Arms had called on him last night and asked what he should do with the members upon whom he had served warrants. The Speaker had taken the liberty to instruct him to notify them to be present to-day. The recalcitrant members were then summoned to the bar of the House, and called upon to present such excuses for their absence as they might see fit.

Bowers' Crime Was in Being Caught. Mr. Bowers, of California, was the first person arraigned. He said his offense con-sisted in being caught. He had been present yesterday, but had gone home in order to yesterday, but had gone home in order to answer the letters of persons wanting pensions, or of persons who did not want somebody else appointed postmaster. He had no intention of infracting the rules of the House. He thought he obeyed them as well, if not better, than the average member.

A motion to excuse Mr. Bowers was made, but many members believing the arrest of a member for neglect of duty was not mere child's play, but a serious matter, demanded the yeas and nays. Before the announcement of the vote, Mr. Burrows, of Michigan, said that he understood, that several gentlemen who were under arrest had voted upon the question. He made the point of order that gentlemen under arrest could take no part in the proceedings of the House. Some Partisan Applause Evoked.

Mr. Reed, of Maine, seconded Mr. Burrows in his point, and in the course of his remarks said that all this fuss and difficulty arose from the attempt to override the Constitution. (Applause on the Republi-can side, and derisive laughter on the Demorratic side.)

Mr. McMillin, of Tennessee, inquired whether the gentlemen (Messra. Reed and Burrows) and other gentlemen on the other side did not sit in their seats and refuse to

Mr. Reed said that the gentlemen were present under the laws and the Constitution, and they constituted a quorum, and were ready to be counted as such order. On the question of voting—that was an affair (as he had heard gentlemen on the other side say) between them and their constituents. The Speaker did not think he had authority to order a member's name to be eliminated from the roll call, and overruled the point of order. Mr. Bowers was excused-yeas 130

Mr. Ellis, of Kentucky, was also excused, as was Mr. Harter, of Ohio, notwithstanding Mr. Caruth's appeal that he be fined one silver dollar.

Mr. Hemphill's visit to his dentist was considered a valid excuse for his absence, while Mr. McDonald's walk with some of his constitutents in whom he was interested -his wife and children-was also deemed

Mr. Meredith, of Virginia, acknowledged being at the race course. He had gone there to see whether there was anything demoralizing in racing, in order that he might draw up a measure to remedy any evils that might exist. He was excused was excused.

Messrs. Pickler, Randall, Stackhouse,
Tracey, and Warwick were also excused.
This cleared the dock. Mr. Blount, of Georgia, asked that the House go into committee on the diplomatic and consular appropriation, but Mr. Boatner, of Louisiana, demanded the regular order, which the Speaker stated was the Welley a converging resolution. Walker expunging resolution.

Mr. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, suggested the advisability of having the case nolle

Reed Out for Peace and Harmony Mr. Reed said he was sure that if the gentleman should ask unanimous consent for the complete withdrawal of the resolution there would be no objection and "we can all live in peace and harmony." But can all live in peace and harmony." But Mr. Breckinridge declined to take this step, and on motion of Mr. McMillin the Walker matter was postponed until to-morrow The House then went into committee of the whole, Mr. Hatch, of Missouri, in the chair.

No business of importance was transacted and ex-Speaker Reed during a colloquy with Representative Balley, of Texas, declared the present House a laughing stock for gods and men.

Texns, declared the present Honse a laughing stock for gods and men.

The Sibley tent bill which has been clogging the private legislation for the past two months was finally laid aside, with a favorable recommendation, after having been amended so as to refer the claim to the Court of Claims for adjudication. The Hiram Johnson bill, a Tennesse war claim, which has received attention for many Congresses, was debated for the remainder of gresses, was debated for the remainder of the afternoon without determination. The committee then arose, and the House, with-out disposing of the Sibley bill, took a re-cess until 8 o'clock, the evening session to be for the consideration of private pension

A Way to Make Members Attend. Representative Bailey, of Texas has prepared and introduced in the House an amendment to the rules, which, if adopted, will assure a large attendance of members at the daily sessions of the House, and relieve that body from the embarrassment from which it has suffered. The amendment directs the Sergeant at Arms to withhold, at the end of each mouth, the pay of a member until he fles with the Sergeant at Arms a written statement that he has not been absent from the House during the preceding sent from the House during the preceding month. If a member has been absent, and such absence was not necessary on accoun or the sigkness of himself or some membe of his family (the statement to set forth the exact number of days of absence occasioned by other than the above causes), the Sergeant at Arms is to deduct the salary for the days of absence occasioned by other than the above causes, as provided in section 40, Revised Statutes. Any violation of this rule by the Sergeant at Arms shall make him by the Sergeant at Arms shall make him liable, on his bond, for all payments made contrary to the provisions of section 40.

BRAZIL'S fresh troubles treated in lal letter to THE DISPATCH from Consul J. O. Kerby, of Para. See te-morrow' twenty-four page lacue.

Boy Littell's $1 inundried white shirts; best in the world for the price; five sleeve engths. 203 Smithfield street. To-Day Men's All-Wool Suits, $10, Sacks og cutaways in all the new shades and colors at Salier & Co.'s, corner Smith-neld and Diamond streets.

POOR FLORA LORELLA

ositively identified Among the Corpses in Fire-A Brother Just From Pittsburg Fails to Recognize the Body-Six Small Boys Are Sald to Be Cremated.

PHILADELPHIA, April 29.-After two ours' hard work in the ruins of the burned theater this morning the searchers had the melancholy satisfaction of uncovering part of a body. Half an hour's more work brought the body completely into view, but the charred and blackened mass of flesh bore so little likeness to a human being that it could not be told whether it was a man or a woman. Little more than the trunk of the body was left. The head was one, both arms were off to the elbows and oth legs to above the knees. All the cloth-ng was burned away. The clothing found beneath it was dentified by the wardrobe woman of the heater as that of Mrs. Flora Lorella, a liquor manufacturing. Miller is a young

The search for bodies in the theater ruins was stopped at noon, because of the danger that the overhanging walls might fall on the seachers. These will be taken down at once and the search resumed.

John Mitcheil, a brother or Mrs. Flora Lorella, who lost her life in the Central Theater fire, arrived here this morning from Pittsburg, where he worked as a compositor on THE DISPATCH, and visited the morgue on THE DISPATCH, and visited the morgue where the headless trunk recovered from the ruins this morning was lying.

Mr. Mitchell, after his first shudder of horror, turned away, his disbelief converted to the conviction that he was not looking on his sister's corpse. "No," he said, "that is not Flora. The bones are too small. Although my sister was of low stature and plump, her bones were all heavy and large." Mr. Mitchell next visited th boarding house at which members of the company were staying, and then told them of his conviction; but Mrs. Overpeck, the wardrobe keeper, assured him that he was Special Officer McGarrity, who was in the theater at the time the fire started, tells a theater at the time the fire started, tells a startling story. He says that he saw six boys, apparently companions, rush for the fire escape, where they were soon struggling with a mass of desperate men who paid attention to the safety of no one but themselves. The boys were quickly relegated to the rear, as the mob pushed its way forward He says they were surely lost.

MOONSHINER MILLER HELD.

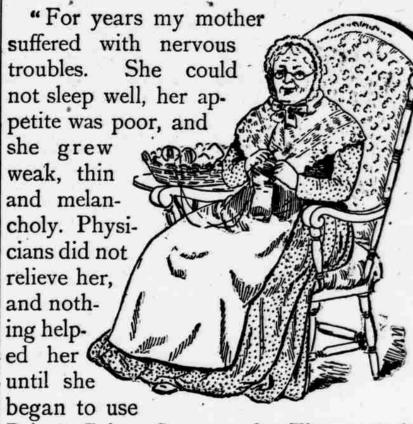

The Witnesses Against the Defendant For nish the Buil.

Wesley Miller, a nephew of William Miller, the slayer of Hochstetler, who hails from Jefferson township, Somerset county, was yesterday given a hearing before Com missioner McCandless on a charge of illicit an, and he was dressed in true mountaineer style when he appeared yesterday. He grew very nervous as the hearing proceeded, and kept constantly toying with his broad-brimmed hat.

Joseph Faust, a neighbor of Miller's, testified to having seen the defendant maktestined to having seen the detendant making whisky. Another neighbor, John Sleesman, said he had bought whisky from him. This concluded the testimony and the peculiar part of the case was that the witnesses offered to go on Miller's bail. They were accepted and he was held in $500 for the fall term of United States court.

It Made Mother Strong.

Paine's Celery Compound. That made her strong, strengthened her nerves, and did her food, without the knowledge of a world of good."-G. H. BEERS, Orbisonia, Pa.

world of good."—G. H. BEERS, Orbisonia, Pa.

Paine's Celery Compound is no ordinary pring tonic, but a true strengthener and respring tonic, but a true strengthener and renewer of nerves, brain and blood. It gives new life to the aged, makes the weak and nervous strong, and restores men, women and children to health and cheerfulness.

If you wish to get the benefit of this offer you must come

1,096 YARDS

BEDFORD CORDS

(The handsomest and best) 12½ CENTS A YARD.

12,960 YARDS PLAIN ENGLISH SUITING 25 CENTS A YARD.

BIG LOT OF

INDIA SILKS (The best on Earth) FOR 31c, 35c, AND 50c.

496 DOZEN

LADIES' RIBBED HOSE (Made to retail at 50c)

OUR PRICE 25c.

T. M. LATIMER,

138 and 140 Federal Street, ALLEGHENY, PA.

THE ELEGANT CLOTHING We are Tailoring to Measure tells its own story in the great increase of the business. The fact of the matter is we will not sell a thing unless we know it will give good wear, and the people have learned to know it. At the same time prices have been so moderate that buyers are coming from every part of the two cities. You've heard the prices-$25, $30 and $35-of course you can have higher. Certainly; but we want you to know you can get reliable Suits at these prices.

Ready-Made Spring Overcoats.

39 SIXTH STREET.

The Woman Still Pursued Him, John Jones was held for court veste on a charge of wife desertion. Mrs. J is employed as a domestic by Rev. J. Witherspoon, in Allegheny, and says Jo deserted her two years ago for anot woman, whose name she did not know. was determined to bring him to justice, a ever since she has been untiring in efforts to locate him. Last week she learn that he was living at Jack's Run, and h

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and gently yet promptly on the Kidn. Liver and Bowels, cleanses the tem effectually, dispels colds, he. aches and fevers and cures habita constipation. Syrup of Figs is to only remedy of its kind ever pr duced, pleasing to the taste and a ceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 500 and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any enhstitute.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

WALL PAPER

Advertised at 65c, 75c and $1.15 per room with border to match gives anyone a good idea how cheaply they can paper a house. Send for samples of these papers, sent free to any address.

G. G. O'BRIEN'S

PAINT AND WALL PAPER STORE. 292 Fifth av., 3 Squares from Court House ESTABLISHED 1860. mb26

DRUNKENNESS

J. O. FLO Dental O

M. MAY, SONS FINE DYEING AND 56 Sixth ave, Pittsl

Telephone 2003.

JAS. M'NEIL & BOILERS, PLATE AND With an inci machinery, we work in our line the old method machine work. Allegheny Valley TAIL Correct Winter Suit

H. & C.
Merchant Tuilors,

pruning trees, laying out ing charge of work general HERMAN I LANDSCAPE GAR

ELLSWORTH AV., Shady McNAUGHEB & CO., CONTRACTO Paving sidewalks, roadwa stables and collar floors wi brick, concrete and fire thurnished and set. 43 Fede City. Pa.

TNFERMENTED GRAPE JU

A delicious beverage with all the inal properties of the grape, absolute, of alcohol. In quart bottles. GEO. E. STEVENSON & CO., Sixth av. ja8.xxx

PROPOSALS.

NOTICE TO BUILDERS—SEALED PROPOSALS will be received by F. J. Oster ling, Architect, Telephone building, Seventiav., Pitrsburg. Pa., until NOON SATURDAY, May 7, 1892, for the erection of the new North Public School, corner of Eighth at, and Dequesne way, Pitrsburg, a. Plans and specifications can be seen at the architect, who will also f forms for bids. Each proposal companied by a bond to the the bid.

E. W. TZEL, ap294

Secretar SEALED PROPOSAL

JUSE,

NOTICE TO BUT'
POSALS will postoffice to the a'
DAY, May 2, inc Workhouse for beef, free from portions: One and one-thir'
from 400 tr
baths. Pl
West Pe
The W tubs for ap25-II SEALED PRO-ed through the ress until MONor furnishing the with good boiling the following pronuck, one-third plate Total amount needed. nds daily, except Sab dvery, on board of car at Federal street station will furnish the necessary WILLIAM HILL,