THE CHINESE BARRED.

Only 28 Votes in the House Against the Revised Geary Bill.

IT IS TERMED A LEAK-STOPPER.

Secretary Noble Refuses Papers to Congress Investigators.

THE LAW TO BE LOOKED UP AT ONCE

WASHINGTON, May 4.-After the approval of the journal and the reference of a number of Senate bills, in the House, today, Mr. Geary, of California, presented the conference report on the Chinese exclusion bill. He demanded the previous question on the adoption of the report, and notwithstanding the protest of Mr. Hooker, of Mississippi, it was ordered.

Mr. Hitt, of Illinois, opposed the report. The Senate bill, to him, would be, if it was an original proposition, an objectional thing; but he recognized the urgent necessity of prompt legislation, and in deference to the wishes of the Pacific coast he would not have antagonization The reference bill was better than the House bill, which defiantly and insultingly opposed national faith. Never before in a free country had there been enacted such a system of tagging a man as if he were a dog; first compelling him to go and prove his right to live where he lived for years. Never before had such a law been applied to a human being, ex-cept convicts and slaves.

Mr. Hitt would vote to continue every existing law, but, speaking for the honor of his country, he appealed to gentlemen to observe the plighted faith of the nation, which had already been pressed nard upon, and which pledged to those men the treatment of citizens of the most favored nation. This was a measure in violation of that pledge which no man could vote for without Geary Calls the Bill a Leak-Stopper. Mr. Hooker, in opposing the report, said that in its present shape the bill virtually suspended the writ of habeas corpus, and against this he earnestly protested.

Mr. Geary denied that the bill suspended the writ of habeas corpus. The measure was intended to stop up leaks in the exist-

Mr. Goodnight, of Kentucky, from the Committee on Judiciary, reported the reso-lution calling on the Attorney General for information as to whether the Sugar Trust has violated the anti-trust law, and if so whether prosecutions had been instituted for

E. B. Taylor, of Ohio, said that before this resolution was presented proceedings had been taken by the Attorney General for the purpose of dissolving the trust. Nobody on this floor was in favor of trusts, and any statement to the contrary was made for the purpose of political capital.

One Way to Freeze Out the Trust, Mr. O'Neill, of Missouri, contended that the way to get rid of the Sugar Trust was for the Democratic Committee on Ways and Means to bring in a bill putting refined sugar on the free list. [Applause.] Both parties in both Houses would stand by such a bill. The resolution was adopted. bill. The resolution was adopted,
On motion of Mr. Holman the House went into committee of the whole, Mr. Hatch, of Missouri, in the chair, for the consideration of general appropriation bills. The first bill on the calendar was the sundry civil appropriation bill. Mr. Blanchard, of Louisiana, in the interest of the river and harbor bill, asked that the bill be laid aside, but Mr. Holman objected, and the facts were reported to the House, which decided—122 to 48—to lay the sundry civil bill aside, and the committee resumed its session. The postoffice and fortifications bills were also laid aside (after a little see-sawing between House and committee), and the river and harbor bill was taken up. Without action upon it, though, the House adjourned.

Business in the Senate to-day dragged along in a listless way. There were but few Senators paying attention to it, and the heat was very oppressive. After the routine morning business the Senate took up the calendar and a number of bills were passed. After an executive session the Senate ad-

IMPORTANT PAPERS WANTED.

A Hitch in the Pension Office Investigation Caused by Mr. Noble

WASHINGTON, May 4 .- In the Pension Office investigation to-day Representative Enloe called the attention of the committee to the fact that Secretary Noble had declined to furnish the papers relating to the dismissal of special pension examiners. Mr. Enloe said he wished to see the papers, because he had reason to believe Theodore Smith had preferred unjust charges against a number of employes. Secretary Noble, when on the stand, had spoken of certain matters as "more of Smith's work," and had promised to furnish any papers wanted. He (Mr. Enloe) took it that the refusal to furnish the letters desired was because they would bring out facts that were not credita-ble. Mr. Enloe asked that the House be requested to take action on it.

Representative Brosius protested against any inferences being drawn against the integrity of any officer of the Government arising out of his assertion of the Constitutional right to control removals without be-ing answerable to Congress. Chairman Wheeler said Secretary Noble got his power not from the Constitution, but from Congress, which, under a clause of the instru-ment, had by statute conferred the power of appointment of inferior officers on the heads of departments. The committee then adjourned, to give members time to look up and consider the legal questions involved before deciding on its course.
